Wedding at Mee Home Beautiful

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding solemnized yesterday, Sunday morning at ten o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mee when their daughter, Pearl Alene, became the bride of John A. Horgan. The ceremony was performed in the living room of the Mee home before an improvised altar, and in a bouquet of ferns, pink and white carnations, snapdragons and large baskets of delphinium and peonies.

The double ring ceremony was used with Rev. Morrow officiating. Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Miss Fay Wolf.

The bride wore an attractive gown of pink georgette and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Alice Mee who was dainty in a gown of old rose georgette. Her corsage was of lavender sweet peas and roses. George D. Alderin served as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and the guests. The bride cut the large wedding cake which centered the table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Horgan, Miss Mee, Mr. Alderin, Rev. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mee, Mr. and Mrs. A. Luch and son, Mrs. Zanker, Miss Louisa Heidecker, Charles Wolf, Mrs. Montgomerer, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Coenber, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolf, Miss Dolores Wolf, Carl Wolf, Jr., Miss Ruth Hullison, Miss Dorothy Hixon, Floyd Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. W. Delegates will start leaving Portland Friday. Many who are driving will leave Saturday and others will go down Sunday night.

Mrs. George D. Williams, Portland, chairman of the transportation committee of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, reports that there will be no special train operated to the annual meeting of this organization to be held at Marshfield, as there were not enough reservation receipts received.

Organization of forces has been completed and everything is set for the kick-off of the American Legion endowment campaign which starts today. Vic Mackenzie is chairman of the drive and expects to make quick work of raising Salem's quota of $4000. In speaking of the endowment campaign Mr. Mackenzie said:

"The Legion is itself subscribing a large part of the endowment fund. It is inviting the rest of America to join in this subscription, because the cure of the disabled and the care of the orphans of the war is an American trust and privilege. In laying before the people of our country this opportunity to share in our responsibility, we of the Legion feel that we have neither need or occasion to beg for help. It appears perfectly plain to us that if we make the situation clear to the average American citizen, he or she will be glad to help set up this permanent endowment fund, happy for the chance to know that his or her gift will be working through the years to send men out of the hospitals cured and sound and well to resume their places as happy, responsive, competent American citizens. We think that every American will be glad to know that this gift is securing for American children whose fathers fell defending our flag, the same chance for home and care and education and character building that these children might have otherwise had. We are sure that the contribution of each American to this endowment fund is a gift gladly made for the aid of those who gave most to America."

A number of Salem business men have signified their willingness to assist local Legionnaires in their work of soliciting funds.

This is the second time the locals have taken the Corvallis players into camp, both times by a decisive score, the first game ended 14 to 0 in favor of the red and black nine in six innings. The Corvallis players went up in the air in the first game and allowed the locals two hits, eight walks and two hit batsmen.

PASTORS GIVEN DITCH DIGGERS PAY, SAYS HAYS

Columbus, Ohio, May 25.—(By Associated Press)—The average salary paid a minister in America is less than that of a ditch digger, Will H. Hays, motion picture industry head, declared here before the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America.

Mr. Hays is chairman of a commission of laymen appointed last year to put into effect a new pension plan for Presbyterian ministers and their dependents. The body is charged with raising $15,000,000 to establish the plan April 1, 1926.

"To keep the minister, his wife and his family clothed, fed and educated, we pay him $20 a week, scarcely more than the wage of a garbage collector," he said.

Mr. Hays said that the eventual success of raising the fund apparently is assured but that all the support and cooperation of the church is necessary to attain it.

Actual work of soliciting the money will begin, he said, as soon as at least 4000 ministers and 4000 churches have accepted the plan.

94 IN CHICAGO; 26 IN MICHIGAN

Chicago, May 23.—(A.
