Clements Enjoy Trip Abroad

Letters telling of extremely interesting experiences in Vienna have been received from Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clements who left here April 1 for a trip abroad. Dr. Clements is taking a six weeks' course from a famous Viennese physician and Mrs. Clements is sight-seeing in the Austrian capital.

After leaving here Dr. and Mrs. Clements visited in New York for several days with Mrs. Clements' sister, Mrs. Foot. They sailed on April 17 and after a very stormy passage arrived at Rotterdam. After a short visit there they went directly to Vienna. They will stay in Berlin and Paris before going to London and on June 24 will sail from Southampton on the White Star liner "Humbert" for New York. They plan to stop over in New York and in Washington and Lambert, Minnesota, where the doctor first started practicing, before returning to Salem.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor was hostess at a delightful motor trip to Corvallis on Wednesday. In the group were Mrs. Estia Snedecor, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. John Lauterman and Mrs. Frank Snedecor. In Corvallis they visited with Mrs. Joseph Stewart at the Phi Beta Phi house and with Mrs. Charles Gray at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Estia Snedecor came down from Portland last night to join Mrs. Snedecor who has been Mrs. Frank Snedecor's house guest this week and they returned to their home today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kinball of Woodstock, Ohio, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kinball. They are touring the western states.

Friends of Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr., will be happy to hear that she is recovering from the effects of an operation performed Wednesday morning. Mrs. Eckerlin is at the Salem hospital.

More than fifty Salem members of the United Artisans left this morning on a caravan trip to southern Oregon. Tonight they will be the guests at dinner and a dance of the "Indians" at Roseburg. Tomorrow evening the Grand Pass "Caravan" will entertain them at dinner and later at a dance. During the trip they will also be taken on a tour of the Oregon caves. The local drill team is included in the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Martin who are accompanying the Artisans on their trip to southern Oregon will go on to Redding, Modesto and Oakland, California, before returning home. They expect to be gone ten days.

Beta Chi Initiation Banquet

A wedding that is of interest both in Salem and in Portland will be solemnized this evening at eight o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ameler when their daughter Miss Della Ameler will become the bride of Halfdan J. Hjort of Portland. Rev. E. H. Shanks will perform the ceremony. There will be no attendants and only intimate friends of the family have been invited to the affair.

Mendelssohn's wedding march will be played by Miss Elva Ameler. The bride will wear an ensemble suit of rosewood and a large transparent hat of a sand color.

Miss Ameler is well known in local musical circles. She is a member of the Schubert octette. Mr. Hjort is connected with the Pacific Fruit company in Portland where they will make their home.

Among the delightful pre-nuptial affairs given for Miss Ameler was the shower at Miss Minnetta Magers' studio in the Derby building one evening last week. Orange blossoms were used for decorations and the gifts for the bride-elect were suspended in a dainty sprinkler hung high and with ribbon streamers fastened to each gift.

The local camp of Sons of Veterans of which Glenn Adams is commander and the tent of Daughters of Veterans of which Mrs. Alma Fischer is president, are to have charge of placing the flags and markers at the graves of the union veterans of the Civil war in the cemeteries of Salem in preparation for the Memorial day services, and any information relatives or friends can give these organizations of graves of veterans which have been overlooked in former years, will be gratefully received.

All members of the American Legion auxiliary are asked to meet in Marion Square at 1:30 tomorrow to form in line for the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith will motor to Newberg tomorrow to spend the day with relatives.

More than a hundred prominent Salem women gathered at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements yesterday at a silver tea sponsored by the Presbyterian aid society. During the afternoon Mrs. Grace E. Hall, well known Oregon poet read a number of her verses before the group and philosophized for a bit on the life about us.

During the first hour Mrs. Clements and Mrs. D. A. Hodge presided at the tea table. Later their places were taken by Mrs. J. W. Harrison and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. J. L. Whittier, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. S. H. Probert, Mrs. F. G. Franklin and Mrs. H. J. Mohr.

Miss Gladys Steele and Miss Mabel Root have returned from a motor trip to Seattle. While there they attended the convention of the northwest hospital superintendent's association.

Members of the Golden Hour club motored to Woodburn yesterday to be the luncheon guests of Mrs. W. H. Bretz at her home. In the group were Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Allen J. Cleveland, Mrs. George Egin, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton, Mrs. Cecil Fox, Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mrs. Herbert Winkler, Mrs. Claude Van Slyke, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Homer Ingray, Mrs. Wilford Pemberton and Mrs. B. M. Hendricks.

Snappdragons, sweet peas, delphinium and azalea formed a beautiful centerpiece on the luncheon table. The living rooms were attractively decked with wild flowers—French pinks and larkspur. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

Mrs. Allen J. Cleveland will entertain the club members in her home on June 11.

Mrs. J. H. Brewer has her house guests for several days her brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyer. They motored down from their home in Pendleton.

From the Corvallis campus has come the word that Miss Ruth Peyton of Salem, has been elected to Delta Omega sorority. Miss Peyton is a freshman and majore in commerce.

Word has been received recently from Miss Elizabeth Lord from the Philippines that she will postpone her return to her home for another year. Miss Lord is with her brother, Montague Lord, at Manila and Cebu. During the winter months Miss Lord toured Indo-China, India and islands in the Polynesian group.

Beta Chi Initiation Banquet

Active and alumna members of Beta Chi entertained at a formal banquet at the Spa last night honoring six initiates. Covers were laid for fifty at three tables decorated with baskets of lovely pink peonies. Each was tied with pink tulle. A special honor guest was Mrs. E. C. Richards who was presented with a Beta Chi pin during the evening. Initiates who were honor guests were Miss Louise Nunn, Miss Margaret Wood, Miss Marjorie Christenson, Miss Phoebe Smith, Miss Margaret Arnold and Miss Clara Jaeger.

Among the alumnae in the group are Miss Velma Legge, Miss Alma Wells, Miss Anne Laxenlar, Miss Elaine Obery, Miss Pauline Heikel, Miss Lola Millard, Miss Helen Galka, Miss Carol Cheney and Miss Mary Jane Albert. Miss Caroline Stober acted as toastmistress and called for the following responses: Miss Eva Tacheron, "Can't You Hear My Plea"; Miss Louise Nunn, "Find for Me the Girls I Love"; Miss Remoth Tryon, "Tell Her I'm Ever True"; Miss Dorothy Owen, "Fate May Part Us, Years May Pass."

At a regular meeting of the Salem teachers' association held recently officers were elected for the coming year. Miss Lela Reed of the McKinley staff was chosen president. Other officers are as follows: First vice president, Mrs. Cathryn Bates; Grant; second vice president, Miss Lillian Schroeder; Englewood; third vice president, Miss Grace Allen; Park; secretary, Miss Dorothy Taylor; Parrish junior high; financial secretary, F. E. Lord; Parrish junior high; treasurer, H. S. Stockton; Park; press correspondent, Miss Ruth Stermer; Garfield.

Fawc; Lincoln school; Garfield, Mrs. B. Duncan.

Miss Ruth Barber, Miss Irene Dodd and Mrs. Roy Sneed entertained the nurses' club at tea in the Gray Belle yesterday. Fourteen Salem nurses were present. During the business meeting Dr. W. H. Byrd gave a lecture on surgery and medicine, as it was practiced in 1888.

Reports of an extremely interesting convention are being brought from the P. E. O. members who have attended some of the sessions of the state chapter meeting in Oregon City this week. Mrs. W. W. Moore and Mrs. Frank Churchill motored down for the opening day, Tuesday. Another Salem member present was Mrs. B. J. Miles who is the guest this week of her daughter, Mrs. William Kuitl, at her country home near Milwaukie. Official delegates who are present for the entire convention are Mrs. F. W. Seale and Mrs. E. J. Huffman of chapter G and Dr. Mary C. Rowland and Miss May Rauch of chapter AB.

Memorial services will be held at the Jason Lee cemetery tomorrow morning beginning at ten o'clock with the Ladies of the G. A. R. in charge. A short talk will be given by Rev. Thomas Achenon. Music will be furnished by the Cherrybud band.
