Dance at Country Club Lovely

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Sargent of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained at an attractive dance at the John J. Roberts country club last night. The club was transformed into a spring garden. Lattices and trellises with vines and flowers entwining, comfortable wicker chairs and garden lounges, clumps of rhododendrons and other flowering shrubs placed about the large dancing room and the small rooms adjoining made a most attractive setting for the hundred and more guests.

A buffet lunch was served at midnight. During the evening Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Dorothy Livedey and Miss Maxine Myers presided at the punch bowl. A delightful feature of the evening was a clever Dutch dance given by Miss Mildred Roberts and Miss Maxine Myers.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cusick of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurray of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Ball of Portland, Mrs. A. C. March of Portland, Miss Katherine Shale of Eugene and Kenneth Bailey of Eugene.

The final meeting of the Sweet Briar club was an enjoyable event of Wednesday when the members met at Willamette Lodge, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel, for a covered dish luncheon and a program in the afternoon. Special guests were Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. W. P. Kimball of Woodstock, Ohio, Miss Virginia Page and Miss Ruth Young.

The rooms of the Kugel home were attractively decorated in larkspur and Canterbury bells. During the afternoon Miss Virginia Page gave several readings and various games were enjoyed during the afternoon.

The club will convene again in October. An interesting meeting of the Willing Workers class of the First Christian church was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. H. Simpson with Mrs. Chester Lee in charge of the program. An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was the one act comedy, "Selecting a Pastor for Stringtown" which caused much merriment. Miss Vivian Whistler sang "For He Loved Her" and "The Owl."

Special guests were Mrs. W. Conley, Mrs. D. A. McLeuridy, Miss Gertrude Wagner of La Grande, Miss Vivian Whistler and Rev. J. J. Evans.

Members in the group were Mrs. W. P. Ellis, Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. Edith Simpson, Mrs. C. A. Lewis, Mrs. F. Copp, Mrs. H. H. Stanton, Mrs. Clifford Elgin, Mrs. Ralph Conley, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. E. M. Russell, Mrs. B. W. Macy, Mrs. Will Macy, Mrs. C. R. Lester, Mrs. E. H. Dickenson, Mrs. J. O. Chamberlain, Mrs. A. A. Carper, Mrs. J. C. Perry and the hostess, Mrs. Simpson.

The local Maccabees chapter is represented by the following delegates at the state convention which is in session in Portland today and tomorrow: Mrs. Bertha Smart, Miss Dorothy Smart, Mrs. Jennie Miller, Mrs. Roba Smith, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. Beesie Boehringer, Mrs. Avis Martin, Mrs. Helen Stewart, Mrs. Caroline Bushnell, Mrs. Frances Thompson, Mrs. Agnes Cooney, Mrs. Katharine Beardsall, Mrs. Lulu Borling, Mrs. Melvina Sloper, Mrs. Rosella Croswain, Mrs. Ollie Purdy, Mrs. May Shanks.

Sevels are being held in the Pythian temple in Portland. Mrs. Aydelotte of Oakland, supreme commander, is a special guest at the convention. A special feature is the health work of the order which is being considered at this convention.

Costumes for "The Mikado" arrived yesterday from Seattle and everything is in readiness for the presentation this evening. The Salem high school chorus is attending to every detail towards making the annual opera an unquestioned success. The advance seat sale indicates a packed house when the curtain rises this evening.

Fifteen singers from Franklin high school Portland, are coming as special guests of the Salem high school chorus. Included in the number will be Prof. and Mrs. R. B. Waleh, who have charge of the opera in the Portland school.

The opera will be given but one public performance. Lena Belle Tartar is in charge. Miss Helen Charles, Miss Amy Fiedler and Lawrence Patrick were week end visitors at Newport.

OPERA DIRECTOR

Miss Lena Belle Tartar, who directed the high school students who will present "The Mikado" in the high school auditorium tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albrich have returned to Portland after spending several days with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albrich, Mr. Albrich, who was graduated from the North Pacific Dental college this week had the distinction of being elected to Omicron Kappa Epsilon, national honorary dental fraternity.

Mrs. Cross Hostess at Tea Today

The Curtis Cross home on Lincoln Hill was the scene today of a delightful gathering of Salem society matrons and a number of out of town visitors when Mrs. Cross was hostess at tea. The affair was planned especially for a number of house guests who are being entertained in Salem homes this week.

Dainty little Miss Virginia Cross greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. Cross received them in the living room. A color plan of lavender and gold was carried out both in the living room, the library, and in the dining room where the tea table was laid. Canterbury bells, larkspur and rhododendron were lovely in tall baskets about the room.

Presiding at the perfectly appointed tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Milton Meyers and Mrs. Russell Catlin.

The interesting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Fisher are Mr. Fisher's brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Fisher, who are spending sixty days leave in the states. Mr. Fisher is United States consul at Nantes, France, and they will remain here until the end of July when they will return to France. Prior to his appointment to the post in Nantes Mr. Fisher was in the government service in South Africa for a number of years. He served in China. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher are planning a number of affairs for their guests and short motor trips are being taken to all the surrounding points of interest.

Mrs. E. C. Richards spent yesterday in Portland where she was a guest at the shower which Miss Grace Collins gave for Miss Winifred St. Clair, a Willamette graduate of 1923, who will be married very soon. Both Miss Collins and Miss St. Clair were prominent on the Willamette campus during their college days and both are members of Beta Chi sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Breckenridge have moved from their former home on south Nineteenth street to their country home on the Jefferson highway near the Graber place.

One of the Salem women most active at the state convention of the Oregon State Federation of women's clubs in Marshfield this week was Mrs. J. A. Churchill. As chairman of the department of public welfare of the Oregon Federation Mrs. Churchill presided at the session yesterday morning and called for reports from the sub-committees.

The convention closed last night and the local delegates are expected to arrive home either tonight or tomorrow.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Miss Edna Garfield and Miss Maggie McFadden motored to Corvallis on Tuesday where Mr. Bishop attended the board meeting of the W. C. T. U. children's farm home. Mrs. Bishop is a member of the board of directors.

Mrs. John A. Carson, president of the Salem Associated Charities, and Mrs. Nora White, Marion and county juvenile officer, returned last night from Portland where they attended a meeting of county judges and city and county workers in the Multnomah county court house. The meeting was called by Emma M. DeBrulle, executive secretary of Multnomah county public welfare bureau, and practically all sections of the state were represented.

The free auto camp, the social evils that have followed its existence, the "auto traps" who find it cheaper to flit over from one free camp to another than to pay rent—each was discussed and condemned by the group. A plan was discussed for a "confidential exchange" for the relaying of information regarding destitute families motoring from one place to another. The group members were practically unanimous in their support of the plan for the centralized relief of the "auto tramp."

Commencement at the deaf school consists of two parts this year. Yesterday the public was welcomed at an exhibit in the parlors of the main building of the school where a display of products from the cabinet shop, print shop, sewing and cooking departments was made. A style show was held in the auditorium at 4:15 in afternoon. All of the costumes shown were made by the deaf girls.

The graduating exercises will be held at eight o'clock this evening in the auditorium of the school. Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, will make the main address and will present the diplomas to the graduates. Drill and work in rhythm will also be included in the program this evening.

Plans are being formulated for the entertainment of several hundred visitors at the annual homecoming which will be held at the Brush College school tomorrow. It will be an all day affair with the people of the community hosts to people from all parts of the state who at any time in their lives attended the Brush College school.

Last year nearly five hundred were included in the group with visitors from various parts of the state.

Mrs. J. L. Townsend of St. Paul, Minnesota, will arrive tomorrow to be the guest of her niece, Mrs. May Shank.

Members of the Brush College grange degree team motored to Dallas last night where the state grange is in session to perform the degree work. Mr. and Mrs. William McCall, local grange delegates, have been in Dallas for the entire convention and a number of the other members of the district have been in attendance at the various sessions. Mr. Arthur Utley spent Wednesday in Dallas.
