INDEPENDENCE NINE WINS AGAIN

Independence, June 9.—The Independence town baseball team met the Valsetz team and won from them in a very close and interesting game, on the local field, Sunday.

Because Independence is leading the Polk county league with nine victories and no defeats and Valsetz is a close competitor with three victories and three defeats, the interest in the game was high and there was a large crowd. Independence had no score and Valsetz only 2 until the seventh inning when Independence tied the score. That tie held through the ninth inning and it wasn't till the tenth that Independence brought in the winning run.

The last meeting of the Independence Parent Teachers association was held at the high school last Tuesday. Officers elected for the next year are president, Mrs. Arthur H. Horton; vice president, Mrs. E. P. Lamb; secretary, Mrs. E. G. Hennagin; treasurer, Mrs. Florence Rosenberry.

At the same meeting the association presented the school with a large clock for their gymnasium.

Friday noon a luncheon was given by the Independence P. T. A. at the training school, for the teachers and officers. The color scheme of orange and blue was beautifully carried out with California poppies and bachelor buttons.

Miss Naomi Hansen fourth grade critic in the manual training school at Independence was called home because of her mother's illness in Portland.

Gerald Hewitts and William Bennett of Independence are slated among those graduating from O. A. C. this June. The latter is one of the honor students.

Superintendent and Mrs. F. A. Bauman of McMinnville were visitors in Independence Sunday.

NON-SUPPORT WARRANT SERVED ON JEFF FOX

Dallas, Or., June 9.—Jeff Fox was arrested at Independence on Sunday by Sheriff Hooker on a bench warrant charging non-support. The indictment was secured at the spring session of the grand jury but Fox was not located until yesterday. He tells conflicting stories of his whereabouts during the last few months. Several times Fox has been connected with moonshine and bootlegging in the district and last spring he served 30 days in the Polk county jail after his two sons, 15 and 16 years old, were caught delivering booze in one of the hop yards. He assumed the blame for them at that time. He is held in the county jail for trial.

HIGH SCHOOL TO LOSE FIVE BALL PLAYERS

Five men will be lost through graduation from the Salem high school baseball team which just finished such a successful season, winning all of their games by good batting.

The locals have made an enviable record this season due to the stellar pitching of Fabry and Ellis. Ellis started out this year for the first time but showed that he had a lot of stuff. Fabry will still be with the red and black nine when they start up next year. Those lost through graduation will be Ellis, Heenan, Louis Girod, Paul Girod and Cotter Gond.

The loss will be felt most at second and short as the Girod boys have played good ball for the locals. Good men will be in school next year from the junior high school.

BOYS ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Dallas, Or., June 9.—On the charge of stealing automobile tires in Valsetz, two 17-year-old boys were arrested in Falls City on Saturday evening. They gave their names as Bob Stevens and Pete Sazel and are said to be transients from Washington. The charge against them was made by Gordon West of Falls City. They are being held in the county jail.

ST. PAUL WOMAN DIES IN HOSPITAL

St. Paul, June 9.—Miss Theresa Wolfert, 54, died at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland last Friday evening. She had been in ill health for some time and two weeks ago was removed to the hospital. She leaves her father, age 82; and some cousins living at Albany. Her funeral took place from the church here Monday morning at nine o'clock. She was buried in the cemetery beside her uncle who died 29 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klotz of Mt. Angel attended Miss Wolfert's funeral Monday morning.

The following went to Portland Tuesday afternoon to attend the Alchemists at St. Mary's academy that evening: Mrs. Albert McKinley (Edna Davidson), Mrs. J. Connor (Marie Kirk), Mrs. Carl Smith (Ann Kennedy), and Mrs. Claude Smith (Madge Nelson), all former students of St. Mary's.

STAYTON WINS FROM MILL CITY NINE 15-7

Mill City, Or., June 9.—The baseball team of Mill City suffered their second defeat of the season at Stayton, Sunday, when Stayton walked on their 15 to 7. It was a good game up until the sixth inning when the Mill City boys blew it. Mill City plays at Turner next Sunday, Crabtree the following Sunday and at Stayton on July 3 during the Roundup.

7 ARE ORDAINED IN PRIESTHOOD

Mt. Angel, Or., June 9.—(Special.)—St. Mary's church was the scene of a beautiful ceremony on Saturday morning when seven young men, students for a number of years at the Benedictine seminary, were ordained in the priesthood by Rt. Rev. Joseph McGrath, bishop of Baker, Or. The church was crowded with townspeople and relatives and friends of the celebrants from all parts of the coast.

Those ordained were Sebastian Terhaar, Mt. Angel; Cyril Lebold, Salem; Vincent Koppert, Portland; Norbert Mattucci, Portland; Augustus Schenbacher, St. Benedict; Adolph Roellen, St. Benedict; and Columban Manser, St. Benedict. This was the first ordination ever taking place in the town church.

On Sunday, Father Sebastian Terhaar read his first mass. It was a pontifical high mass and the St. Mary's choir sang Bogis's mass. Rev. Father Victor Raessler preached the sermon.

MILL CITY MAN PROMOTED

Mill City, Or., June 9.—W. B. Singleton, who has had charge of the traffic out of the Hammond Lumber company office here for the past four years, has been promoted to the Portland office and will leave in the near future. His place in the local office will be taken by Glen A. Smith.

LIBERTY SCHOOL GRADUATES FOUR

Liberty, Or., June 9.—A community picnic was held here last Friday, the closing day of school, following graduation exercises which were held at the community hall Thursday evening, June 4. Eighty graduates receiving diplomas at the exercises were Sabina Schmidt, Lola Foy, Cecil Denser and Leland Scott. The program which was rendered was attended by a large audience.

The picnic Friday began at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, crowds being gathered together at that time. Sports began at 11 o'clock and consisted of races, a ball game and other activities continuing through most of the day. At noon lunch was arranged under the oak trees, many lunch baskets having been brought for the occasion.

Immediately following lunch a general program was given by pupils of the school.
