Homecoming At Brush College

Nearly three hundred men, women and children, from various parts of the state gathered at the Brush College school picnic grounds on Saturday for the annual homecoming of those who at any time in the lives have attended the Brush College school. Members of the community at the present time were hosts at the affair.

A cafeteria dinner was served at noon in the school dining room and a program in the school grounds followed. At this time Mrs. Bryon Harritt made a gift of the picnic grounds to the Community club and a speech of acceptance and appreciation was made by U. J. Lehman. The school children contributed several program numbers and an address was given by Walter C. Winslow in which he gave memories of his school days in the little school. More "reminiscences" were given by Mrs. W. C. Kantner. A number of visitors also gave short talks. Following the program was a baby show with prizes given to the largest, the smallest, the bluest eyed and the brown eyed babies. There came athletic contests of various kinds, races and games with the young and the old participating.

The various committees in charge of the affair were as follows: in charge of the food, Mrs. E. J. Lehman, Mrs. Arthur Utley and Mrs. Charles McCarty; on the program committee, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Ralph Allen and Miss Carol Cheney; in charge of the sports were Mrs. Corydon Bloodgett, Mrs. Elmer Smith and William Corneille; the baby show committee included Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mrs. Ralph Allen and Dr. Bloodgett.

Your Mind is at rest... under trying conditions

This NEW way solves woman's oldest hygienic problem in a way centuries of women hoped for

THROUGH the ages, women have suffered a hygienic handicap. It is as easily disposed of as a piece of tissue—that ends an old-time embarrassment. It is deodorized. And that prevents danger of offense. You get it at any department store or drug store, just by saying "Kotex." And that banishes the embarrassment of asking for a "sanitary pad."

In every 10 women in the better walks of life have adopted it. Which proves its benefits. It will mean much to you in health, in daintiness and protection. It proves old ways a needless folly.

KOTEX DEODORIZED

1. Prefabricated: 5 times as absorbent as cotton pads. Absorbs 16 times its own weight in moisture—and scientifically deodorized.
2. No laundry. Discard as easily as a piece of tissue.
3. Easy to buy, anywhere. You ask for them by name. Many stores keep them ready-wrapped—help yourself, pay the clerk, that is all.

No laundry—discard as easily as a piece of tissue.

Social Wolves

Wherever young folks congregate, there are social wolves. Read what they did to Helen Saunders, beautiful high school girl.

HELEN never gave her parents a moment's worry—until Zan Thompson began paying her attentions. He flattered her girlish vanity. Soon she was a different girl. Her face took on a look as though she were hiding something. Disregarding her mother's warning she continued to meet Zan Thompson.

One night Helen failed to return. All night her parents waited. Then at dawn they heard the street door open quietly and a soft step in the hall.

The story of how Helen Saunders fell under the influence of Zan Thompson is told in True Story Magazine for July under the title "Saving Helen."

The following letter from Helen's mother which accompanied the manuscript of "Saving Helen" gives you some idea of the depths of sincerity and earnestness in the hearts of the men and women who bare their souls for the benefit of mankind in True Story Magazine.

Editor of True Story Magazine—"Enclosed you will find a story true in all incidents, changed only in names and location, and the fact that instead of the one girl I have two other children. I have opened my heart to write this, with a hope that it may help some other girl, who finds herself drawn away from the home circle by the same influences met at school or in social life. Perhaps the result of this story may draw back another who has just placed her feet on the downward path. In any event it goes from me to your office with the great desire back of it to help some young girl in some way. You may feel that my sympathy has not been sufficiently warm for the erring boy. I feel bitterly sorry for him, and was able to help him in a way that came unexpectedly. I feel that his term in the Reformatory will be his redemption. Something had to be done to soften the shell of his mature criminal indifference to law and decency. If he can be helped then I am ready to help him, but he can never again touch my child. Trusting you may find the story acceptable, I remain,

Sincerely,
