

MARKET FOR COUNTRY DRESSED MEATS SLUMPS

OVER SUPPLY IS GENERAL; TRADE SPURNS OFFERS

Portland, Or., June 10.—Country dressed meats are in a bad way. With the street well supplied, the butcher trade filled up and coolers heavily stocked, the market is very depressed. Trade has declined as the receipts pile. Even when values have been lowered buyers failed to take hold.

Today the extreme top on choice light calves is 12 to 12 1/2 cents. Very few sales are made even at these levels and it takes extra fancy veal to bring the top. Yesterday afternoon good calves sold at 11 to 11 1/2 cents and then they had to be wished on by the butcher trade. This morning butchers were apparently not interested.

Weather during the past few days has been favorable for shipping and country meats are arriving in good shape.

Hogs Are Weak
Country killed hogs are barely holding 15 1/2 to 17 cents. Pork receipts are not as heavy as veal and choice light blockers move out fairly well although the demand is limited.

Calves are also weak at the yards. Light hens continue to be a drag on the market with sales made as low as 18 cents. Along the street prices range from 18 to 20 cents. Heavy hens are bringing 22 to 24 cents. Springs are moving slowly at 21 cents on leghorns and 24 to 25 cents for colored stock. White ducks are weak and lower at 20 cents.

The scramble for butter continues in the local market with a good demand for southern shipment. On the exchange standard cubes advanced a half cent to 42 1/2 cents.

Eggs remain on a steady basis with graded stocks marked up at the previous days quotations on the dairy exchange. Current receipts are back to 31 cents on the local board.

Wool Trade Slow
Wool trading in Oregon is quiet as shearing progresses. Buyers have made offers for southern grades but growers are inclined to hold for a better market.

The Boston wool market is some what more active and manufacturers are showing some interest in raw stocks. Spot wools are limited and prices are firmer on practically all domestic wool. Choice Delaines have sold up to 50 and 52 cents in the grease, but lower grades are showing some interest in raw stocks.

Strawberries held at 17 1/2 to 18 1/2 cents on the early growers market although the arrivals were fair by good. Raspberries were scarce with $2.50 to $2.75 the prevailing market. A few red currants brought $2.50 a crate, and later sold on the street at the same price. Produce dealers are trying to get $2.25 a crate for strawberries but they are moving out very slowly due to the weather.

Field Marshal Lord Plumer, known as Britain's "Soldier's Soldier," has been named new High Commissioner for Palestine, a step foretold by a former hand in the East. Owen D. Young co-author of the Dawes Plan, was given the honorary degree of doctor of laws at Columbia University's commencement. Camille Flammarion, noted French astronomer and poet, died in his observatory in France at the age of eighty-three. Donald B. MacMillan, American explorer, may head a relief flying expedition to search for the missing Amundsen-Ellsworth Polar expedition.

250,000 POUNDS WOOL ARE SOLD

Portland, June 10.—The largest sale of wool made in the northwest this season was closed yesterday when H. Stanley Coffin of Yakima sold 250,000 pounds of coarse wool to be shipped to Boston. The price was around 25 cents. The wool is in storage at the Western Wool Warehouse. Mr. Coffin still has unsold about 200,000 pounds of fine wool.

No business has been reported in the interior recently. Dealers have put out bids of from 32 to 35 cents, but no determined effort has been made to buy as the majority of growers were holding out for a higher price. With the current market established at the 25-cent level, as shown by the Coffin deal, it is thought likely there will be more of a disposition now on the part of buyers and sellers to get together.

Of the market condition at Boston yesterday the government daily wool bulletin said: "The wool market has been some what more active and manufacturers are showing more interest in stocks of the raw product. Spot wools are very limited locally in several lines. Prices are slightly firmer on about all domestic wool. Choice delaines have sold up to 50 to 52c in the grease, this market."

2 MARION COUNTY JERSEYS QUALIFY

Two Marion county Jersey cows have qualified for the register of merit of the American Jersey Cattle club.

St. Saviour's Select 509975, a senior three-year-old Jersey cow owned by Alex Harold & Son of Salem, has completed an official 305 day test in which she produced 2477.7 pounds of fat and 7555 pounds of milk. She carried her calf for 224 days of this time.

Graymorn Dams 579453, a senior two-year-old Jersey cow owned by Warren Gray of Marion, has completed an official 305 day test in which she produced 430.87 pounds of fat and 7736 pounds of milk on two milkings per day. She carried her calf for 213 days of this time and her milk averaged 5.57 per cent butterfat for the test.

PARKING CHANGE SLEEPS HEAD-ON TEST STOPPED

jagged by the police. No fines, however, were imposed. On that street the rule is parallel parking with the curb line because of the Oregon Electric tracks on the street. This is objectionable because of the down-hill pitch of the street, which causes the cars, when parked parallel to be headed down a grade.

Several citizens in that district have expressed themselves as desirous of a head-on parking ordinance. Parallel parking allows only a few cars to park in the block and also makes it extremely difficult to get a car out of the line when driving away. The head-on system, it is declared, is the only method that would allow of anywhere near enough room in the block. Under the present system some of the business men find it necessary to park on another street entirely, far from their places of business.

Parking in that block will be an extremely serious question when the new theater on the east side of the street is completed and in use. Gasoline pumps take up much space and parking is prohibited entirely for a distance of 100 feet in front of the Oregon Electric depot.

CHERRY MARKET BLOWS UP

According to report received here the Royal Anne market in the east has blown to such an extent that buyers in eastern Washington who have been picking up Royal Anne for fresh shipment are now turning them over to canneries. The reason for the break in the market has not been learned.

SEASIDE WOMAN MADE EASTERN STAR HEAD

Portland, Or., June 10.—Caroline Louise of Seaside was elected worthy grand matron of Oregon chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and Dr. D. G. Webster, Portland, worthy grand patron at the 36th annual session of the grand chapter here yesterday. Mrs. Mary Alice Burdette of McMinnville and R. Frank Peters of Hillsboro became past worthy grand matron and patron, respectively.

John H. Ranney of Portland was elected associate grand patron, Mrs. Leonora H. Kerr, associate grand matron; Miss Nellie McKinley, Portland, grand secretary, and Mrs. Marie E. Smith, grand treasurer, both re-elected. Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Grants Pass, grand conductress, and Mrs. Bess Setters, Astoria, associated grand conductress. Other officers will be announced by the worthy grand matron.

LARGE SIZES IN FRUIT MAY PUT CROP TOTALS UP

Portland, June 10.—Abundance of soil moisture, and the light set of fruit, which indicate that sizes will range unusually large may produce a fruit crop for Oregon larger than present estimates, says F. L. Kent, statistician of the department of agriculture in report on a survey of the state during the last two days of May.

These conditions, he points out, may overcome to a large extent the handicaps of the unusually dry season last year, the light bloom this spring, and the fact that cold rainy weather at pollination time interfered with normal setting of the fruit.

There was some loss of trees from winter cold, he says. There was also considerable winter damage to cherries, raspberries and blackberries.

Last year's weather conditions affected pears unfavorably, and the spring weather was bad at pollination time. The Rogue river district had an early prospect for a 3000 car crop, but indications now are for about 1500 cars. Prospects are very good in the Hood River district, with indications of a more than 50 per cent increase over last year.

Many of the older prune trees, particularly those which have not had good care in the past, suffered from the winter. Some trees were killed outright, but a much larger number show from few to many dead limbs interspersed, with the live ones. Cold rains following blooming are held partly responsible for the light set of fruit, which in some localities, promises to be not more than 10 per cent of a normal crop. The crop for the state as a whole will probably not exceed 25 per cent of a normal crop, which at this time should be around 50,000,000 pounds of dried fruit or its fresh equivalent.

DARROW AND COLBY WILL FACE BRYAN

cussions of the bible and evolution were touched upon by Secretary Wilbur of the navy department in a prepared commencement address today at Duke university, on the subject "Common Sense."

Quoting as his text, "If any man lack wisdom let him ask of God who giveth abundantly and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him."

Common Sense Need
Appealing for application of common sense to many of the problems of life Mr. Wilbur said: "We need common sense in religion."

"If the bible is the inspired word of God, as we believe," he added, "then he created the universe and left the record of that creation for ever inscribed upon all created things. There are at least two divine books, the Holy Bible, on whose pages are inscribed the doings and sayings of holy men and the book of nature. A part of this historical story is plainly written upon the geological strata which circumscribe the globe. Common sense suggests that these two records be considered together and to reject and utterly ignore either is equally foolish."

"Science today, whatever else it may have accomplished, has demonstrated that the universe is not created according to laws which still operate daily. These results not only suggest, but they demand a Planner and a Creator and a law giver. Reason cannot go so far as to discover these laws and plans and created things without going a step further to the creator, discerning some of his attributes by the things he has done."

Faith Held Need
"I was asked the other day if I believed in a future life, and what proof there was of such life. I replied that it took faith to apprehend and believe in a future life. But there are ample proofs of a future life if we care to weigh them and the fundamental one around which all others center is the resurrection of Jesus Christ. If Christ rose from the dead it proves that there is a future life. What evidence is there of his resurrection? WORK STARTS ON NEW Y BUILDING

Actual work of construction of the new Salem Y. M. C. A. building began today. Ten tons of iron to be used in reinforcing the concrete arrived last night. The remainder is expected within a few days. The last shovelful of dirt was removed from the excavation yesterday. A trial shovelful has already been built on the parking strip south of the site of the building.

The building itself is expected to be completed by December 15, 1925. The total cost is estimated at $156,906.50. Of this amount $120,000 will go into construction of the building, $26,000 will be paid for the furniture, $10,000 has been paid for the lot, located on Court street opposite the postoffice, $1234 will be paid for the work of excavation and $672.50 will be paid for digging the sewer.

The building will be of reinforced concrete, with an exterior of stucco. The construction contract was awarded to Wechter and Hughes of Salem. The wiring contract to the Salem Electric company, and the plumbing contract to Sturgis and Shurtz of Portland.

There will be four floors, including the basement. There will be a deep tiled swimming pool in the basement, which local Y. M. C. A. authorities declare will be second to none on the Pacific coast. It will measure 60 by 20 feet. The building will contain two complete gymnasiums, 59 dormitory rooms, 5 open hand ball courts, two enclosed hand ball courts, four club rooms, various lobbies and other equipment. There will be two separate entrances to the place, one for boys and one for men.

trained and every Christian church in existence and every Christian institution and every Christian in the universe now and since the day of the resurrection is evidence of the resurrection. It was this incident which transformed the eleven disciples from fleeing cowards appalled and dismayed at the crucifixion into inspired prophets who assailed the world single handed and sought in a generation to convert all men to Christianity and to a belief in the resurrection. It was faith in the resurrection that enabled men who had fled from mere rebuke or censure to calmly face a martyr's death. "To believe in such a trans-

Renting a Home?

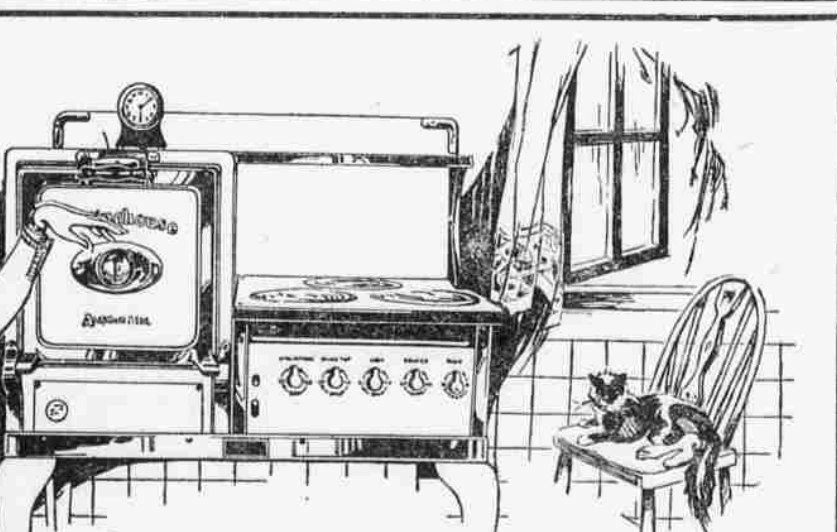

First of all, look to its Electrical Convenience

One thing affecting the comfort of any home you rent is the completeness of the electrical installation. Nowadays, no house is a home without convenient connections for electrical appliances, without correct lighting and without standard wiring devices. In renting a house make sure of its electrical installation by asking if the wiring was done by a "Check" Seal contractor. The "Check" Seal identifies qualified electrical contractors who employ good workmanship and install standard wiring devices. Also when you need electrical appliances remember that the "Check" Seal identifies electrical retailers who sell quality electrical merchandise.
