A feature of the evening was the presentation of a large poster of the graduates which will be framed and hung in the high school sometime before commencement. Following the presentation the students gave an "oaky" under the leadership of Garland Simpson. Miss Helen Marcus sang "To a Tree" and "Smilin' Through."

"Ladies Day" At Golf Club Yesterday

Yesterday, the first "ladies' day" of the year on the Illahce country club course, attracted a goodly number of Salem matrons who are golf enthusiasts. Accosted King

JOHN COWRIE

John Cowrie, a manufacturer, of Des Moines, Ia., upset British tradition when he walked up to King George at the Empire Fair in London and said: "How do you do, King. Shake hands with America." King George smiled and shook hands. Subsequently, however, the British ruler was greatly embarrassed when his own subjects, who had read of the American's act in the newspapers, attempted the same familiarity.

Thirty members of the Salem business and professional women's club met last night at the home of Mrs. LaMoine Clark for a convention rally—a forerunner of the three day state convention of business and professional women which will be held here for three days beginning tomorrow. The Marion hotel will be the official headquarters with sessions to be held in the chamber of commerce. The visitors will be taken for a drive about the city on Wednesday afternoon, the convention banquet will be served at the Gray Belle Saturday evening, and a picnic breakfast will be given in Bush's pasture early Sunday morning.

The living rooms where the group met were lovely with baskets of Canterbury bells and pink poppies. Mrs. C. R. Gregg, class president, presided, and Mrs. Rose Lempe led the devotionals. An old fashioned "last day of school" program of songs and recitations was given with Mrs. S. R. Vall acting as school mistress.

French Dressing—for salads of crisp, green lettuce, cool, fresh fruit, or cold vegetables.

Just mix three parts of Wesson Oil, one part of lemon juice or vinegar, salt and pepper to taste, and there it is!

Some say French Dressing is more delicate if made with lemon juice instead of vinegar, and paprika instead of black pepper—but it is really a matter of taste.

There are many variations of French Dressing—in fact, you can vary the taste whenever you wish a change by adding almost any seasoning that you like. A copy of our booklet containing a number of salad dressing suggestions is yours for the asking. Just drop a postal to the Wesson Oil People, 212 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal.
