

LOGANBERRY GROWERS FIX PICKING PRICES OF CROP

SCALE FIXED FOR LOGANS AT CENT AND HALF

At a meeting of a number of loganberry growers in the red hills district yesterday, a decision was reached to pay a cent and a half a pound for pickers this year, a number of the growers deciding on a cent and a quarter, with a cent and a half to all who remain throughout the season. This system probably will be made general.

Two cents has generally been paid, but growers have reached a conclusion that under conditions which prevail this year pickers can make more at the cent and a half price than they could at two cents under ordinary conditions and as a result declare they will not afford to pay the two cents. Berries will be large and picking profitable at the cent and a half basis they say.

In addition the fact that cherries will be short this year proved another reason why the picking price was reduced. In ordinary years when cherry picking is heavy it is hard to keep loganberry pickers as many of them prefer the work in the cherry orchards. Loganberry growers expect but little competition from cherry orchards and consequently plenty of pickers.

Loganberry picking is expected to start about June 20, that is in anything like full swing. Probably an early picking will be made sooner than that.

WHEAT AND CORN CLOSE AT LOSS

Chicago, June 13.—The wheat opening, 1/4 to 1 1/2 lower, July $1.49 1/4 to $1.50 1/4 and September $1.54 1/4 to $1.55 1/4, was followed by a drop to $1.53 1/4 for July and $1.54 1/4 for September but then by irregular rallies with July touching $1.61 1/4 and September $1.58.

After opening at 1/4 to 2 1/2 cents down, September $1.15 1/4 to $1.16 1/4, corn continued weak.

Oats started at 1 to 2 cents decline September $2 1/4 to $2 3/4, but later recovered most of the loss.

Provisions were easy. Wheat closed nervous, 1 1/4 to 2 1/2 cents net lower, July $1.52 1/4 to $1.53 1/4 and September $1.54 1/4 to $1.55 1/4.

REALTY SALES OF PAST WEEK

The activity of the present real estate market is strongly reflected in the Parker Realty company's report of sales closed during the past week. The demand for all classes of property, according to Mr. Parker, has necessitated his adding several salesmen to the staff of his highly trained sales organization. The following properties totaling $24,500 were sold by the company's Salem office during the past week:

House at 1295 Norway sold to J. B. Fisher.

Houses and gasoline filling station at 2775 Portland Road sold to L. Petrie.

House and 6 lots at 1887 Water Street sold to J. O. Lacey.

House at 1705 Mission Street sold to A. R. Hudnall.

2 1/2 acres located 5 1/2 miles southeast of Salem sold to J. H. Rowland.

6 acres located 5 miles east of Salem sold to C. E. Smith.

53 acres located 9 miles east of Blayton sold to John Muir.

46 acres located 6 miles southeast of Salem sold to A. W. Lathrop.

BUDDHIST MISSIONARIES USE MOVING PICTURES

Tokyo, Japan.—The mysterious interiors of the temples of the two most powerful Paddhat sects in Japan are to be opened to the moving camera. The Higashi Honganji and the Nichi Honganji sects in Kyoto have decided to make use of the movies in their missionary work and allow the temples and sacred precincts to be used as locations for filming the lives of the priests and the religious ceremonies. The scenario of a religious drama by the chief priest of Higashi Honganji already is being cast.

TASTE IN COLORS HELD GAUGE OF CIVILIZATION

Denver, Colo.—Prof. Thomas Russell Garth, of the department of education in the University of Denver, declares that preferences in colors denote types of civilization and orders of intelligence.

He pointed to a recent test made by the University of Texas, which found that white children cared most for blue and evinced a particular distaste for yellow.

"The more white people are educated," said Prof. Garth, "the less they esteem red. In fact, they suppress all colors except blue as they become more educated."

NANCY JORDAN & FRANCIS.

Miss Nancy Jordan, young English girl who figured in an internazional war romance several years ago, is the object of a search by Kansas City police, following her disappearance from that city. She was recently divorced from wealthy Claude Hetherington Clarke, who married her after Miss Jordan alleged Frank Warren, divorced husband of the woman who brought her from England, was father of her son, Francis.

LINEN MAKING MACHINES DUE HERE MONDAY

Two machines, weighing 6 1/2 tons, and counting the first installment of Salem's first linen mill being built by B. C. Miles and others, will arrive in Portland from Manchester, England, on Monday, and will be shipped to Salem for installation immediately upon arrival. One machine was manufactured in Leeds, England, and the other in Belfast, Ireland. One is a Brownell twisting machine, the second is a yarn softening machine.

The remainder of the machinery for the plant, amounting to 25 tons, will arrive in Portland July 2. All machinery makes the entire trip from England to Portland by water, being taken through the Panama canal, and admitted to this country duty free by special arrangement with federal authorities.

The lot arriving Monday, worth some $6000, will be shipped from the dock at Portland by truck directly to the plant here, located in the northern section of Salem. It was announced this morning by Mr. Miles. The entire lot of machinery to be installed has a value of $60,000. Value of the plant after completion is estimated at $130,000. Those in charge hope to have it completed by September 1.

IRISH PROHIBITION NO BETTER SUCCESS

Dublin.—The Pioneer Total Abstinence Association of Ireland, the conditions of membership of which prescribe that no one can join until he has totally abstained for two years from any form of alcohol, is not satisfied that St. Patrick's Day, 1925, was as dry as the legislature intended.

All drink shops were closed, but there was an exemption in favor of bona fide travelers. One had only to go outside the city boundary, it was said, to get all the drink desired.

CHILD HEALTH WORKERS BUSY

Work done during the present week, ending today, was announced this morning by authorities of the Marion county child health demonstration. The first three days of the week were spent by the force at Jefferson. Thursday was spent at Marion and Friday and Saturday have been devoted to compiling results.

At Jefferson, 64 children, all of school age, were examined. In accordance with the policy of the demonstration a local committee of women was asked to assist with the work, which was headed by Dr. Van Winkle of Jefferson and Dr. Guldbranson of the demonstration staff. The local committee at Jefferson consisted of Mrs. Paul Smith, president of the Jefferson Women's club, Mrs. Fontain, Mrs. Mrs. Miss Looney, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Davis.

At Marion, 18 children of school age and pre-school age were examined. The local committee there consisted of Mrs. S. E. Roland, Mrs. H. E. Russell, Mrs. S. J. Thomas and Mrs. Ethel Gulyan. No active clinical work will be done by the demonstration next week. The following week work will be done throughout the county at various places where the staff has been requested to come, special emphasis being laid upon the child younger than school age.

DEAD PETS PRESERVED FOR SORROWING OWNERS

Los Angeles.—Strange stories surround the pets which men and women bring into taxidermy studios here. Often the sorrowing owners want their dead cat, dog or bird companions stuffed and mounted.

Recently a man came in with a parrot. He explained the manner in which he wanted it preserved. "I am having a little casket made," he added, "and it is to be placed there. We were pals for 19 years." He told how he and the bird had travelled over Europe together.
