House Guests Honored During Week

Salem society has been "putting its best foot forward" this week for the entertainment of its out of town guests. It has been a week of luncheons, teas and dinners complementing the several prominent visitors. Commencement week both on the Willamette campus and at the high school with its president's receptions, class reunions and alumni banquets, to say nothing of farewell affairs for graduating seniors, has occupied many. Between showers the golf enthusiasts have enjoyed the golf course. Wednesday will be the favorite day for pilgrims to the country club if the success of the first "ladies day" last Wednesday is any indication of the future success of the plan.

Plans for the summer are being rapidly completed with the arrival at home of the boys and girls from the various university and college campuses. Commencement at O. A. C. this week and at the University of Oregon and at Washington this week end means that within two or three days at the most all of the college students will be home for the long summer recess. There are among a number of informal affairs to celebrate their return.

Mrs. William Klitz of Vancouver, B. C., who has been visiting for several weeks with her mother, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, has been honored at a number of attractive affairs this week. On Monday Mrs. T. A. Livesey entertained informally at tea in her Lincoln hill home in her honor. Tuesday Mrs. Fritz Slade complimented Mrs. Klitz, and Wednesday Mrs. F. D. Thieleen was hostess at a dinner cover luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Klitz. On Thursday a group of prominent Salem matrons with a number of out of town guests were entertained at tea in the Thompson home with Miss Louise Thompson hostess. It was a farewell affair for Mrs. Klitz who left this morning for her home in Vancouver. Another prominent visitor who has been here was Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria, who was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore. Following the wedding of her brother, Ralph Dickinson Moore to Miss Lucille Eldred in Portland last week, Mrs. Kinney came to Salem.

Today all society is tremendously interested in the garden party at which Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Mrs. Fred Powell are entertaining in the Thompson gardens.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Adams was the scene on Monday evening of a most delightful affair when the members of the Men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church gathered with their families for a twilight picnic on the spacious lawn about the home. Eighty persons were present and later a picnic dinner was enjoyed in indoor kitchen, pitching horseshoes and other games, while others gathered around the fireplace inside. The program was rendered later, Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Long were honor guests for the evening. At the close of the program Dr. L. G. Altman, secretary of the class, read resolutions of appreciation from the class to Rev. and Mrs. Long; and J. P. Bates, president of the class, presented to the Longs in the name of the class a pair of silver candlesticks in token of their appreciation of the services of the pastor and his wife.

Dr. S. A. Bowman is teacher of this Bible class.

Mrs. Kenneth Leggo was hostess at charming affair on Wednesday evening following the commencement exercises on the Willamette campus when she entertained a group of the charter members of Beta Chi sorority.

Chapter members in the group were Myrtle Mason, Grace Collins, Eva Roberts, Bernice Knuts Evelyn Gordon Ekstrom, Mrs. E. C. Richards and Alma Baker Leggo. Additional guests were Muriel Steever Morse, Margaret Leggo and Mrs. F. A. Leggo.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd motored to Neokwin today for the week end.

Mrs. Eleanor Hucksstein is entertaining at her home guest over the week end Miss Susie Starrow of Portland. This evening Miss Hucksstein will entertain a group of Miss Starrow's friends in her honor.

Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. H. H. Olinger motored to Portland yesterday for a day of golf on the Portland club course. They were the guests of Mrs. W. K. Northrup.

Mrs. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr. Mrs. Kitty Graver and Miss Priscilla Fry will leave tomorrow morning on a month's tour of Alaska. They will sail from Seattle to Seward and will go into the interior as far as Fairbanks. On their return they will visit in Seattle with two of Mrs. Fry's nephews. They will visit in Vancouver and Victoria and plan a motor trip to Mount Rainier before returning to Salem probably late in July.

Mrs. L. R. LaFury left early in the week for Michigan to visit for some time with relatives. Mrs. LaFury started about twenty two months ago when the fatal illness of her mother, Mrs. Annie Parkhurst, recalled her from Wyoming.

Two Artists In Recital On Tuesday

An event of more than usual interest in Salem musical circles will take place next Tuesday night, June 16, at the First Presbyterian church, when Mary Talmadge Hedrick, violinist, and Ruth Bedford, pianist, will appear in joint recital.

That the event is of more than usual interest is due to the record made by these young musicians—a record of painstaking work in the development of a marked natural talent—a technical and a sympathetic understanding that have caused favorable and often enthusiastic comments upon some young Salem people, but from visiting musicians, professional and amateur.

Mrs. Hedrick, who is a pupil of William Wallace Graham of Portland, is a violinist whose accomplishments have given her an outstanding place in a musical community where standards are high and exacting. Her work as director of the orchestra at the Grand theater during the past year has made her familiar to practically all Salem people.

Miss Bedford, a pupil of Beatrice Shelton, is one of the most accomplished accompanists in Salem, aside from being a pianist who interprets the music of the masters with definite power and understanding. She is ever a favorite upon any program.

The program to be given Tuesday night is as follows:

Third Sonata, D minor, Op. 108, Brahms; first and second movements, allegro, adagio, vivace and piano.

Etude en Forme de Valse Op. 52, Saint-Saens; piano.

Third Concerto, B minor op. 61, Saint-Saens; allegro non troppo, andantino quasi allegretto, molto moderato e maestoso; violin.

Ballade No. 1, D flat, Liszt; H. Gounod; piano.

Serenade Melancolique, Op. 26, Tchaikowsky; violin.

The many friends of Mrs. J. W. Spriggs will be grieved to hear that she is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin. Mrs. Spriggs has been with Mrs. Durbin since she returned from California in April.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker left for Albany today to attend a reunion of the Parker family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Parker.

Miss Marie Churchill who has been a member of the faculty at Franklin high school in Portland during the past year arrived today to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Churchill are anticipating a visit of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Weller, and very small grandchildren, Gordon Churchill Weller of McMinnville.

Mrs. Frances Campbell is the guest over the week end of her mother, Mrs. James Godfrey. Last night Mrs. Campbell was a guest at the graduation exercises of the Salem high school senior class which included her daughter, Miss Genevieve Campbell. Mrs. Godfrey returned yesterday from Portland where she attended the sessions of the grand lodge of the Eastern Star.

Miss Margaret Fisher will present a group of her junior and intermediate piano pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening beginning at eight o'clock. Twenty four pupils will appear on the program. Assisting will be Miss Gladys McIntyre, soprano, and Mrs. T. E. McCroskey, reader.

Dr. Don Byrd motored through to Neokwin today to spend the week end with Mrs. Byrd and their children who are guests for several weeks at the Prince Byrd cottage.

Mrs. Jessie F. Bush will present a group of her students in piano at a recital in the Leslie Methodist Episcopal church tonight at eight o'clock.

Mrs. George L. Hug and her son, Robert, left this morning for Portland. Mrs. Hug will return this evening and Robert will go with his great aunt, Miss May and Miss Anne Shrogen, to their summer home "Alderslea" near Ocean Park, Washington, to remain for several weeks.

Members of the W. C. T. U. will meet at their hall on south Commercial and Ferry streets on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 for a Flower Mission day program. Numbers appropriate to the day will be given and Rev. Muller will lead the devotions. An offering will be taken for the children's home at Corvallis and anyone wishing to offer gifts of clothing, books or toys for the children may do so at this time.

Garden Party Today

The lovely garden about the Frederick Hill Thompson home on North Summit street was the scene of a beautiful affair today when Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Mrs. Fred Powell were hostesses at a garden party. Nearly two hundred prominent Salem matrons mingled under the lovely rose gardens, under the trees and in the attractive summer house, during the afternoon. Large garden swings and much wicker furniture was placed about the tea table was a picture of beauty with its huge centerpiece of pink roses and blue lupine. A color plan of pink and blue was followed throughout. The guests were served at small tables arranged under the trees. Punch was served in a charming lattice summer house at one corner of the garden.

For the pleasure of the guests the hostesses arranged for a most enjoyable musical program. Miss Gladys McIntyre sang several times, Miss Louise Findley played a solo and accompanied by Miss Claudine Gerth, violinist. Miss Emery Riddell sang, Miss Jean Hobson played a piano solo and Miss Fay Sparks sang. Other vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Arthur Rahn and Mrs. E. H. Hobson.

Proceeding at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. C. J. Bowles of Portland, Mrs. Lair Thompson of Portland, Mrs. John Rand, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Charles Breck and Mrs. William McElchrist, Jr.

Assisting in the serving and about the gardens were Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. E. H. Hobson, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Carl Bowersox, Mrs. T. E. Gallagher, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Wren Powers, Miss Marie Churchill, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Robert C. Sarrell, Mrs. H. H. Terrill, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Harry Twitchell and Mrs. E. E. Urago.

The seventh birthday of little Miss Dorothy Williams was delightfully celebrated yesterday when her mother, Mrs. T. L. Williams entertained a group of eleven of her little friends in her honor. Several hours of games were enjoyed during the afternoon. The dining room where luncheon was served was lovely with red roses. A crystal bowl of red roses centered the dining table and red candles were used in crystal holders. The birthday cake was decked with roses also.

In the group were the honor guest, Dorothy Williams, and Virginia Cross, Margaret Hauser, Flavin Downs, Dorothy Jean Willet, Eleanor Roque, Ileen Mooil, Margaret Reynolds, Eleanor Perry, Ruth Kellogg, Elaine Collett and Mary Jane Shook.

Mrs. Kate Dell Marden of the Marden Dunning school of music, Portland, was hostess recently at a delightful four course luncheon honoring Mrs. Herbert Bartholomew, Miss Lulu Forrester of Portland and Mrs. T. S. Roberts of Salem, teachers who have just completed the prescribed course in the Dunning system. The table was attractively decorated in blue and pink delphinium with tall pink candles in silver candlesticks. Ten other guests were included in the group.

Prof. T. S. Roberts is giving a series of two recitals today at his studio. The junior recital was given this afternoon by the following pupils, Eleanor Luper, Phillip Brown, Frederick Blatchford, Veraon Bushnell, James Luper, Helen Snyder, Evelyn Young, Helen Benner, Sam Raimo, Lawrence Engstrom, Kenneth Beardsley, Verna Rogers, Lavorne Homer, Valma May, Alda Fleming, Blanche Reese, Hattie Ramp. They were assisted by Arbutus Rudy who sang in a pleasing manner, The Lavender Seller, and by Stanley King who delighted the audience by his reading "Ma and the Auto," by Edgewood.

At eight o'clock this evening Prof. Roberts will present his pupils in the following program, assisted by Gladys McIntyre, vocalist, Lulu Rosemond Walton, reader, and Louise Findley, accompanist:

Sounds of Springtime, Wenzel; Neva Stolzele.

When the Lights are Low, Engelmann; Marguerite Millard.

Charge of the Hussars, Spindler; Yvonne Aufranc.

In a Cory Corner, Bratton; Ernest Thompson.

La Syphe, Bachman; Claudine West.

Duet, Waits and Finale, Bohm; Ella Russell, Carl Lemke.

Reading, "A Call with Attaboy," selected; Miss Walton.

Il Trovatore, Verdi; Paul Lee.

(a) Spring Song, Henselt; (b) March de Nuit, Gottschalk; Mary Miller.

Hark, Hark the Lark, Schubert-Liszt; Grace Flynn.

(a) Romance, LaFarge; (b) Valse Chromatique, Godard; Ella Russell.

Vocal, I Chide Thee Not, Schumann; Miss McIntyre.

Allegro from Concerto in E flat for 2 pianos, Mozart; Maude Engstrom, Grace Flynn.

Members of the Monday afternoon bridge club and their families will enjoy a picnic at Graber's grove south of town tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hamilton left yesterday for San Francisco for a visit of twelve days for two weeks.

June Brides Are Feted At Dinner

Four wedding anniversaries celebrated within the month of June will be honored tonight when Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., will be hosts at a dinner in their home. Guests will be Captain and Mrs. Earl Fiegel, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walek and Mr. and Mrs. Orris Fry. Each of the four couples celebrates their anniversary this month and today is the anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Fry (Berneise Craig).

Mock orange blossoms, bridal bouquets of rose blossoms, and Coell Brunner orange, a bride's cake and all the other accessories of a wedding will be arranged for the dinner this evening.

Mrs. Raymond Walek has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fry, during this week, and Mr. Walek came up from Eugene today.

WHITMAN HEAD RESIGNS OFFICE AFTER 31 YEARS

Walla Walla, Wash., June 13.—Dr. Stephen L. Penrose, for 31 years president of Whitman college, in his annual report to the board of overseers here today, tendered his resignation as president of the college, in order that the board might be able to freely choose between three alternative solutions of the situation which has developed because of the impairment of his vision early in the school year which is now closing.

"While I am able to carry on my class work and the internal administration of college affairs, I am not able to carry on the work of teaching and internal administration as an equally indispensable part of a president's duties," said the Penrose report.

"Three solutions of the situation present themselves to my mind," continued the report. "The first is that you should elect a president to take my place, who would carry on the joint duties which I have been carrying for the past 31 years, and give attention to both the inner and outer sides of college education; the second, is that you should appoint president who would devote himself to the external administration and leave, me if you wished to do so, as an instructor in philosophy; the third is that I should continue as president to carry on my work of teaching and internal administration as I have done this year and that an assistant to the president should be appointed, whose duty would be to cultivate under my direction those persons in the outside world whose friendship for the college will be particularly valuable."

BIDS FOR GRADING OF STATE HIGHWAYS OPENED

Portland, Or., June 13.—Bids for grading and surfacing portions of the Alsea River, Grants Pass-Crescent City, and The Dalles-California highways were opened yesterday at the United States bureau of public roads. Low bidder for the job of scraping and surfacing 5.4 miles of the Grants Pass-Crescent City highway from Waldo to the state line was William Vander Helten of Medford, $27,250. Dunn & Baker of Klamath Falls bid $35,078. Six bids were submitted.

PELICAN FLOWER TO BLOOM

Washington—A full blown flower of the vine aristolochia, better known as the goose or pelican flower, has been produced at last in the conservatories of the botanic garden. The vine is native to the West Indies, and the feat of making it bloom here represents ten years of effort by George W. Hess, director of the garden.

The head and back of a duck appear outlined in white, life size, in this peculiar flower, which is purple within.
