U. D. Club Luncheon Yesterday

One of the most attractive bridge luncheons of the month was an event of yesterday when Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr., Mrs. T. M. Barr and Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Jr., entertained members of the U. D. club and a group of additional guests at luncheon in the James Godfrey home followed by several hours of bridge at the home of Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr.

The Godfrey home where luncheon was served at one thirty was lovely with masses of ocean spray, foxglove and roses. The tables were centered with crystal bowls filled with marigolds, delphinium, and deep pink sweet peas forming an unusually beautiful color combination. Yellow and blue predominated in the favors and table appointments.

Covers were laid for Mrs. G. E. Schuneman, Mrs. James Heenan, Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Ben Forbes, Mrs. John Rand, Mrs. T. D. McClaine, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mrs. Fred Brock, Mrs. A. E. Huckestein and Miss Eleanor Huckestein, and the following club members, Mrs. J. C. Nadon, Mrs. C. J. Healy, Mrs. John B. Nathman, Mrs. S. Breitenstein, Mrs. Henry Hintzen, Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mrs. F. G. Brock and the hostesses.

The living rooms of the Eckerlin home where the group met for bridge following the luncheon were attractive with California poppies, roses, marigolds and delphinium. High bridge honors were won by Mrs. G. E. Schuneman who received the guest prize and Mrs. Harry Weis who was given the club prize.

This was the final meeting of the club for the year.

One of the most interesting feetings of the entire year of the missionary society of the First Congregational church was an event of last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley on Lincoln hill. Sixty members of the society were present.

Dr. Fannie Brown led the devotionals. She gave a beautiful tribute in the form of a memorial to Mrs. Annie Parkhurst, formerly a member of the society. During the program hour Mrs. W. D. Clarke gave a reading "When Little Grandma Sings" with the intermission solos given by Mrs. Josephine Taylor, aged 82 years.

The main speaker of the afternoon was Miss Hannah Kim, a Korean student at O. A. C. who was a student at Peking university when Dean Ava B. Milam, of the Corvallis school of home economics became interested in her and brought her to this country. Miss Kim is studying and preparing herself to go back to her own country as a teacher. She told the group of conditions in Korea and of the work done by the Standard Bearers there.

Mrs. W. C. Kantner formally welcomed into the organization Mrs. Charles Ward, wife of the new pastor. Mrs. Ward responded graciously.

During the tea hour the hostesses, Mrs. Livesley, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. H. K. Stockwell took charge. The musical program arranged for the afternoon included numbers by Miss Mildred Roberts, violinist and Tommy Livesley, violinist, and several vocal solos by Mrs. Harry Harme with Mrs. Frank Zinn accompanying. The guests were also entertained by selections on the Aeolian pipe organ in the Livesley home.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts and the Misses Helen and Mildred Roberts motored to Portland on Monday and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Smith at the premier showing of Rosaria, the Rose Festival pageant

Floral Show At Armory Next Week

The Salem Floral society will hold the second annual floral show in the Salem armory next Tuesday, June 23, both afternoon and evening. Six classes have been arranged with twelve prizes offered. Professional florists will not be allowed to compete. Ten cents admission will be charged to defray the cost of renting the armory.

Since its organization ten years ago, the Floral society has been one of the most active of Salem's clubs and because of the success of the flower show last near it has been planned to hold a second one.

H. T. Bateham will have charge of the program. His plans include music, short talks on flower culture and the parade of children from four to six years of age with flower baskets. Prizes for this will be announced later.

Mrs. H. T. Love will be in charge of the entries and Miss Edith Hazzard, Miss Oda Chapman, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. W. E. Anderson will supervise the arrangements of exhibits. E. N. Gillingham, Homer Smith and Earl Pearcy will take charge of the awarding of the prizes. The judges have not been chosen as yet. Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. Frank Myers and Mrs. Walter Kirk will be in charge of the children's parade.

The rules which govern the show are as follows:

Rule 1—Applications for entry must be made by calling Mrs. H. T. Love, 1997J.

Rule 2—Exhibits must be in place by one o'clock on the opening day and cannot be removed until after the close of the exhibit at 10:30 p. m.

Rule 3—All flowers exhibited for prizes must be plainly and correctly named on cards supplied by the society.

Rule 4—No one serving on committees shall be eligible to compete for a prize.

Rule 5—Judges may withhold any prize if in their opinion the exhibit is not of sufficient merit.

Rule 6—The society will give the best possible care and protection to all exhibits but it distinctly disclaims all liability for loss or damage to exhibits or personal property of the exhibitors.

Rule 7—Membership in the Floral society must be taken out before prizes can be collected.

Prizes are offered as follows:

Class 1—Table decoration arranged in vase, bowls or baskets. All accessories such as cloth, candles, silverware or china to be furnished by the exhibitors. Scale of points for this exhibit: arrangement 50; color harmony 30, and originality 20. First price $3. Second prize $1.

Writers Meet at Kells Home

An unusually large number of modern writers met last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells for their regular semi-monthly gathering. After several hours of informal visiting in the beautiful gardens about the Kells home the group went into the house for the evening's program.

In the absence of the section leader, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. W. F. Fargo presided. Albert Roy who returned very recently from a year in California, opened the program with his story, "A Detour of Destiny." Mrs. Blanche M. Jones followed with two short prose sketches, "A Father," and "If We Would be Helped." Perry Reigelman read a story which he published recently in the People's Home Journal. He has called it "The Resurrection of Quigg."

Two poems were contributed by Clara Virginia Barton. She has called them "Song" and "The Winds of Happiness." Mrs. Viola Price Franklin read several sketches which appeared in the Portland Journal and Robert Paulus read the Rotary club bulletin which contained the announcement of the program which the writers gave at the Rotary luncheon today.

The hostess, Mrs. Kells, read an original poem, "War—When Will it End" which appeared in The American Friend a short time ago. Charles J. Lisle read another of his boy stories. This one he has titled "Dad." Two limericks, one a tribute to the hosts of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Kells, and the other concerning the booster place cards at the B. and P. W. state convention banquet here Saturday evening were read by Miss Edna Garfield. Two poems, "A Mother's Work" and "Two Boys" were read by Mrs. C. J. Lisle, Mrs. Elizabeth Sherwood closed the program with a dog story which she titled "The Way of a Dog With a Man."

Miss Lillian Applegate was a special guest of the section last night. In addition to those taking part in the program there were present last night Gertrude Robicon Ross, Mrs. Robert Paulus, Miss Marie Roberts, Prof. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. J. M. Clifford, C. A. Kells, Molly Brunk and Maude Covington. Later Paul Sherwood and F. S. Barton joined the group.

During the tea hour Miss Applegate and Miss Garfield assisted Mrs. Kells.

The next meeting of the section will be a lawn party at the home of Molly Brunk on Highland avenue.

Rheumatism

"Good-bye old crutch!"

THERE IS positively no longer any excuse for suffering the agonies of rheumatism! Especially in the autumn of your life, when the vital organs weaken, impurities multiply and linger in the muscles and joints, as never before. It is now, just now, when you cannot afford to guess. No day returns!

Here is a joyous fact which can mean to you a fond farewell forever to all the miseries, the tortures, the body-twisting pains that you have suffered from the demon of rheumatism. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red-cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red-blood-cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweetheart glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

On a salad of lettuce, fruit or cold vegetables—FRENCH DRESSING is the simplest—and at the same time the most sophisticated.

Add a little chopped onion or crumbled cheese or the yolk of a hard boiled egg, or chives, or mustard, or Worcestershire Sauce, or any seasoning that you like, to give this dressing a new relish whenever you want a change.

Wesson Oil makes such good French Dressing because it is so good a salad oil. And that is exactly why we recommend it to you as a shortening and a frying fat. Surely the shortening that goes into biscuits, cakes and pies, and the fat in which doughnuts, young chicken and croquettes are fried, should be just as delicate in taste and choice in quality as that which you use to make a salad dressing.
