

REPORT MADE ON HEALTH WORK IN SALEM SCHOOLS

Report of health work carried on in Salem elementary schools during the past year, under the general supervision of Miss Grace Snook, was made public yesterday. The report, as made by Miss Snook, indicates a gradual and consistent improvement in children's postures since the work was begun.

The close of the school year 1924-1925 saw the number of pupils in elementary school needing attention reduced to 5.6 per cent, as compared with 10.4 per cent at the close of the previous year. There were three checks taken in the year just closed, reviews to the check at the end of the year. A check taken in November showed that 21.7 per cent of the children had incorrect postures and needed individual attention. In February the percentage was reduced to 16.9, and a check in April showed 10.9 per cent still defective.

Garfield heads the list of schools as having the lowest percentage of pupils needing individual attention. A complete list of elementary schools in the city, with the number of pupils tested and percentage found with defective postures, is as follows:

Garfield, 249, 2.5; Englewood, 242, 4.1; Highland, 268, 4.4; Grant, 296, 5.4; Yew Park, 276, 5.7; Richmond, 248, 6.4; Washington portable, 58, 6.8; Lincoln, 256, 10.3.

TORTURERS OF GIRL'S SUITOR ARE CONVICTED

White Plains, N. Y., June 17.—(A. P.)—Convicted of torturing an unwelcome suitor, a bride's husband and father were in jail here today.

Randolph M. Stelle, bond broker of Newark, N. J., the husband and William MacClymont, Yonkers real estate broker, the father, used steel twistlers on William Holland of Howard, N. J., a youthful commercial artist weight 122 pounds. A jury yesterday found them guilty of second degree assault.

The twistlers, such as police employ in subduing refractory prisoners, Holland said, were wrapped around his wrists in MacClymont's office to which he was lured one evening last July, until links cut into his flesh and the blood spurted. He then promised, he said, to cease his attentions to Miss MacClymont. She was married to Stelle shortly afterward.

Judge Blakely deferred sentence to admit Stelle and MacClymont to bail. Conviction calls for a maximum prison sentence of five years, but there were indications

Have you seen Wondrous Yosemite? National Park

In the heart of the highest Sierra, there's a wonderful canyon-valley and park,—a constellation of grandeur—Yosemite!

Here, Indians believed, dwelt the High Gods; domes, arches and giant sculptures rise everywhere in majesty. The Crouching Lion of El Capitan—its perpendicular wall as big as a farm, half a mile high—Half Dome the Magnificent, Glacier Point with its overhanging rock 3,000 feet above the Valley floor, the highest waterfalls in the world—Mariposa Grove of Giant Trees, the world's oldest living things—all those and many other mighty panoramas are gathered together in this one National Park, directly east from San Francisco by rail or motor.

Another advantage! On your Yosemite trip you can easily include a score of other interesting places, indicated on the map on this page, as well as hundreds not so famous but equally beautiful and delightful.

Sequoia National Park, Lake Tahoe, Mount Shasta, the world-famous 17-mile Drive and blue Monterey Bay, the Redwood Highway, and colorful San Francisco itself, all are calling to you.

"California Wonder Tours" is a new illustrated booklet that tells you how best to visit Yosemite and other California attractions. Let us send it to you with our compliments.
