Albany Members Are Guests

Seventy five members of Barzilia chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at Albany, were guests of Chadwick chapter Tuesday evening at their last meeting before the summer recess. In the group were included a number of dignitaries of the Eastern Star. From Albany came Frank Miller, past grand patron, and Mrs. Coates, past grand Ruth. Two past grand patrons, Judge O. P. Coehoon and Judge Burnett, were also present, as well as a number of patrons and matrons.

The matrons' association were hostesses in charge Tuesday night. Mrs. Fay Wright and Mrs. Jessie Darby were in charge of the decorations. The reception hall was decked with great baskets of lavender and purple Canterbury bells and in the chapter room were used tall white lillies. Mrs. Harry Styles presided at the piano during the evening.

Following the regular business of the chapter a group of Miss Lena Belle Tartar's pupils gave a short program. Miss Thelma Davis and Miss Wilma Coursey sang and Miss Claudia Lewis gave a Spanish dance. Miss Genevieve Findley accompanied the singers.

The decorative plan in the dining hall where luncheon was served was carried out in red and white. Crimson ramblers in bowls and vases were attractive at the long tables and clever place cards in the Eastern Star colors marked covers for the officers at one end of the center table.

The chapter will not meet again until September.

An attractive home wedding was solemnized yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer on Mill street, when their daughter, Phyllis, became the bride of Fred Patton, uncle of the groom. Rev. J. J. Patton of Oak Grove, performed the ceremony.

Roses, lillies and Canterbury bells were lovely about the living room where the ceremony took place.

The bride wore white satin made simply with Spanish lace shifon. Before the ceremony Miss Mary Jane Albert sang "At Dawning" and Miss Evelyn Patton played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Only a few relatives and intimate friends of the young couple attended the ceremony.

Miss Florence Young, her Beta Chi sorority sister, was maid of honor. She wore turquoise and white. Before the ceremony Miss Mary Jane Albert sang "At Dawning" and Miss Evelyn Patton played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Only a few relatives and intimate friends of the young couple attended the ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Patton were graduated from Willamette university with the class of '21. Mrs. Patton is a member of Beta Chi and Adelante literary society while Mr. Patton is an Alpha Psi Delta and was president of the student body in his senior year. After a short motor trip they will go to Falls City to make their home. Mr. Patton is superintendent of schools there.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott returned Tuesday evening from Portland where she spent the last week attending the annual meeting of the Friends church in the northwest district.

Miss Lena Dotson will present a group of her pupils in recital in the Center street Methodist church both tonight and tomorrow evening. This evening the older pupils will present a program with Leonard Chadwick violinist assisting. The junior pupils will appear tomorrow evening.

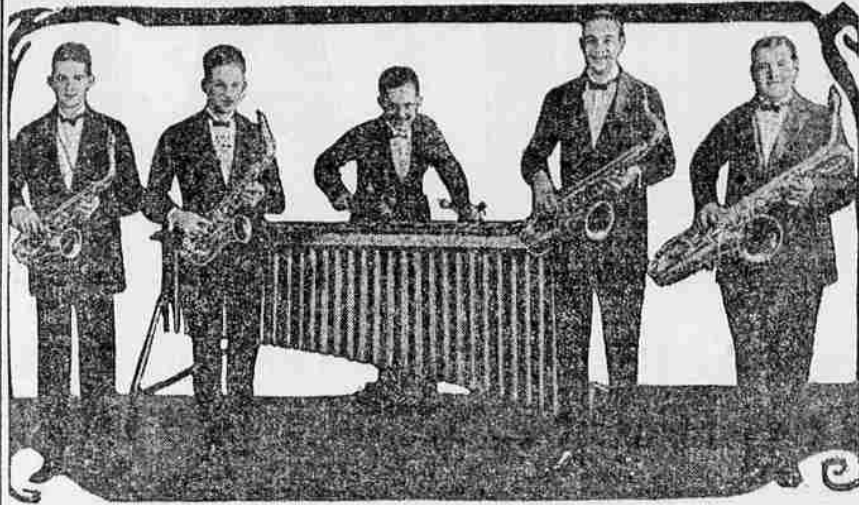

The ladies of the Oak Grove grange will sponsor a cooked food sale at the Southern Pacific ticket office on north Liberty street on Saturday.

The last meeting, until fall, of the Kalfoury progressive clerks club was held on the attractive lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kalfoury on north Summer street on Tuesday. A picnic dinner was served at long tables placed along the creek. Later the group enjoyed several hours of story telling and dancing in the Kalfoury home. The picnic dinner is an annual affair. The club will meet again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liveley and children, Dorothy, Tommy, Bobby and Mary Patricia, are spending the day in Portland attending the Rose Festival.

Maupin's Singing Band

Evening of Sparkling Entertainment Feature of Chautauqua.

Maupin's Singing and Novelty Band, one of the most unique organizations of stars ever seen on the Chautauqua circuit, will introduce vocal and instrumental music in so many novel forms that keenest enjoyment and amusement can be anticipated when the organization appears on the last day program. Continuing has been given deserved attention by the leader, William L. Maupin, but not allowed to overshadow the clever talent of the nine young men in the band, each a star performer. Maupin will be remembered as director of the famous Dunbar's White Huzzars, which proved a sensation with the public. In launching his own star organization this clever director has selected the "pick" of talent, the result being a diversified program that leaves nothing to be desired in the way of musical entertainment and distinct novelty. Each member of the band is a vocalist of ability, and each plays a different instrument. The organization is a successful combination of band, glee club and minstrels, giving liberally of music, song and comedy numbers of the most acceptable type. Novelty features in costume will be introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liveley entertained as their dinner guests last night Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lachmann and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dorcas.

Six prominent Salem writers contributed a program of their own writings before the weekly luncheon of the Rotarians yesterday. Charles E. Wilson, chairman of the program committee, asked Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, leader of the writers' section, to choose six writers to appear before the club.

Following the business meeting the program opened with Clara Virginia Barton reading four of her poems. Two of them—"Radio" and "The First Attack"—were radio poems and have appeared in radio magazines. The other two were poems on Oregon. One was called "Oregon" and the other "Scotch Broom in Oregon."

Isabelle Gray Clifford read a long poem in which is outlined one of the beautiful Crater Lake legends. She calls it "Blue Water." Blanche M. Jones read a long prose article, "Father," which she read on Tuesday evening before a meeting of the writers' section.

Editorials which he has written for Colliers and for the Dearborn Independent were read by Charles J. Lisle. A number of these unsigned articles are published from time to time by Mr. Lisle. Two other well known Salem poets who contributed to the program were Anna Van Horne Nelson and Ruth V. Fargo. Mrs. Nelson read her "Rain Sprites," "No Matter" and "Shadow." Mrs. Fargo read two of her poems which have been published—"Rain at Night" and "Blossom Day."

Mrs. Henry Meyers was a charming luncheon hostess in her home yesterday. Marigolds and sweet peas, with yellow candles in crystal holders centered the table with covers laid for Mrs. Charles A. Gray, Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. Frank Sneider, Mrs. Margaret Cooper and the hostess, Mrs. Meyers.

Miss Iva Claire Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Love, returned Tuesday from Seattle where she has been studying music for the past year at the Cornish school of music. Miss Love played recently in a recital given by her teacher, Maurice Letlat. Miss Alice Peterson of Moscow, Idaho, one of her fellow students, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the house guest of Miss Love.

Col. and Mrs. E. Hofer have returned from a motor trip through eastern Oregon, northern Nevada and California. They were the guests in San Francisco of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hofer.

Miss Elma Weller will present a number of her younger pupils in recital at the First Christian church tomorrow evening. They will illustrate the Dunning improved method of piano study.

Miss Buckles Charming June Bride

A charming June bride was Miss Velma Buckles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buckles, who was married at nine o'clock last night to Elbert Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bradford, Rev. H. F. Pemberton performed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents.

Masque of ocean spray, and tall baskets of lillies were lovely about the rooms of the Buckles home and at one end of the living room was erected an archway of flowers with an improvised altar formed with ocean spray and tall lillies. Mrs. H. F. Pemberton sang "At Dawning" before the ceremony. Miss Laura Pemberton accompanied her. The wedding march from Loehring was played by Harold Lattin.

The bride was gowned in white flat crepe made in tulle style and her full length veil was caught with two strands of orange blossom. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and roses. Miss Ruth Lattin was maid of honor. She wore an attractive frock of tan and orchid crepe and carried a quaint bouquet of sweet peas and tiny rosebuds. Russell Buckles, a brother of the bride, was the best man.

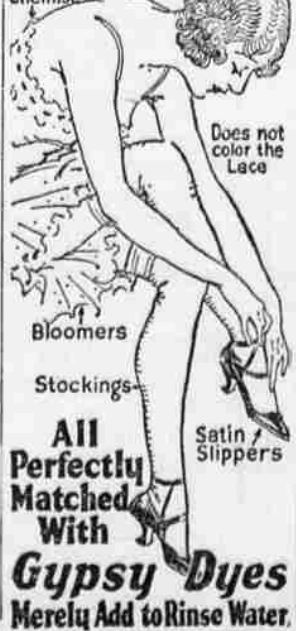

An informal reception followed the ceremony. More than fifty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford left last night for a two weeks motor trip to southern and eastern Oregon. They will return to Salem to make their home, as Mr. Bradford is in business here.

Mrs. Bradford was graduated from Salem high school last week. Miss Dorothy Duncan whose marriage to Wayne Hammit will be an event of late June was honored at an attractive miscellaneous show on Tuesday evening. A number of her intimate friends gave the affair for her at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lyman McDonald.

A number of lovely gifts were placed in a large basket, covered with quantities of roses and a messenger presented the basket to Miss Duncan at the door.

Twenty four of Salem's most enthusiastic golfers enjoyed the second ladies' day at the Illabeo country club yesterday. Under the leadership of the team's captain, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, the matches were arranged by the handicap committee. The first sixteen players will continue in a tournament for a cup while the eight losers will play among themselves for a prize to be chosen later.

Among yesterday's winners were Mrs. Gus Hilson, Mrs. E. J. Baker and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. J. H. Farrar, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Orrie Fry, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Donald A. Young, Mrs. J. H. Garbobot, Mrs. Brazier C. Small and Mrs. George P. Griffith.

One of Salem's most interesting newcomers is Miss Jeanette Calhoun of New York city, who has taken an apartment at the Court. Miss Calhoun has been a craft artist with the Roy Craft shop in New York city for a number of years.

A picnic social will be given by the West Side circle of the Jason Lee aid society tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Law at 250 north Fourteenth street.

NORTHWEST MEDICAL ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Portland, Or., June 18.—Arrangements are being completed here for the reception of 600 members of the Pacific Northwest Medical Association which will meet in annual session June 29-30 and July 1. Dr. J. Earl Eise, chairman of local arrangements, is receiving registrations and Dr. Stuart Sheldon will make hotel reservations for all who register in advance.

While the convention of the medical will not be colorful or spectacular from the standpoint of gaudy uniforms, drills or brass bands, it will undoubtedly be of greater import to the community of the northwest that any of the many conventions coming here this season. Latest developments in surgical and medical science will be presented and discussed by eminent authorities and invaluable knowledge disseminated. The featured speaker is Dr. Alan N. Drury, London, England, who is a heart specialist of world reputation. Sir Henry M. W. Gray, Royal Victoria hospital, Montreal, is another notable speaker. Harvard, John Hopps, Rush, Michigan, Western, Everett, Washington, Vanderbit, Oregon, H. K. Catering Laboratories and Mayo Clinics are prominent medical centers of this country to be represented on the program.

Coincidentally with this meeting will be the gathering here of the pediatric association of the north Pacific and of the orthopedists who will permanently organize. All sessions are to be held in the Multnomah hotel.

WOMAN SO ILL. WASHED DISHES SITTING DOWN. Mrs. Ashcroft's Remarkable Recovery After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Covington, Ky.—"I was so weak and nervous I could hardly do my housework as I could not stand because of the bearing-down pains in my back and abdomen. I sat down most of the time and did what I could do in that way—washing dishes, etc. One day a book describing Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine was put in my mail-box. I saw how the Vegetable Compound had helped others so I gave it a trial. I had to take about a dozen bottles before I gained my strength but I certainly praise this medicine. Then I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood medicine for poor blood. I was cold all the time and would be so cold I could hardly sit still and in the palms of my hands there would be drops of sweat. I also used the Sensitive Wash and I recommend it also. You may publish this letter and I will gladly answer letters from women and advise my neighbors about these medicines."—Mrs. HARRY ASHCROFT, 522 Beech Avenue, Covington, Kentucky.

New Safe Way to Remove Hair Roots

No need now to undergo painful electric treatments to remove superfluous hair; nor to apply ordinary ineffective hair removers which only remove surface hairs. A marvelous new Oriental balm has been discovered which is applied almost as easily as cold cream. It penetrates towards the hair roots and gently "eases out" every objectionable hair, root and all, and leaves the skin clean, white, healthy and soft as velvet. No stings, no odor. No growing back of hair stronger than ever. Absolutely hairless. Rarely, as this wonderful new discovery is called, is highly recommended by prominent beauty specialists and is sold on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction by Emil A. Schaefer, Capital Fry Store, P. E. Graber, D. J. Fry, J. C. Perry.—Adv.
