Caruso Award

MISS MILDRED SEEBA

Miss Mildred Seeba of New York won the first Caruso Opera Fellowship which provides for tuition, living and transportation for a year's study in Italy.

The second annual flower show under the auspices of the Salem Floral society which opens Tuesday, June 23 at 2 p. m. at the armory to continue afternoon and evening. It is developing keen interest among flower lovers and flower growers. The program as outlined promises new and attractive features. Short, practical talks by specialists in particular flowers will engage the attention of those interested in that flower. There will be music pertinent to the event. The parade of children, each with a basket of flowers, will be held at 7:30. As a comment on the latter event, the business men of Salem have donated the prizes for it.

New classes have been formed for exhibits. To class 7, a tentative one, special attention is called, both because it is new and because it provides prizes for the best collection of uncommon cut flowers, cultivated or wild, alien to this section or unusual here, to consist of not less than three blooms. This class appeals to curiosity as well as beauty.

Special emphasis is put this year upon the fact that there will be no charge for entries. This ruling has already brought a hearty response from all flower growers, and the indications are that there will be a display at the armory, June 23, to awaken the enthusiasm of all comers. It is only when a prize is won that any ruling is imposed. That is a 41 membership in the Floral society.

All exhibitors are reminded that flowers to keep to the best advantage should be picked the evening before exhibition and placed in containers with deep water. Then if handled carefully they will carry their fresh, upright appearance to the close of the show.

Mrs. E. E. Bergman was hostess at a charming luncheon at the Gray Belle yesterday commencing Miss Loriel Blatchford whose wedding was an event of this afternoon. ## Wedding In First Church Today

Very beautiful and perfect to the smallest detail was the wedding of Miss Loriel Blatchford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, to Clarence Gillette of Eugene, which was solemnized in the First Methodist church at four o'clock this afternoon. This was Salem's first large church wedding this June, the month of brides, and one of the loveliest. Rev. Fred Taylor performed the ceremony.

Tall baskets of pink roses, banks of pink Canterbury bells and pink lupin combined with ocean spray, both through the aisle and in the chancel, made First church a beautiful setting for the bridal party. Tall cathedral candles on either side of the altar completed a charming effect.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Kathleen LaRaut sang "At Dawning" and later "All for You." Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Byron Arnold. The bride, a charming and attractive girl, was lovely in a gown of white satin made simply with clusters of pearls. Her full length veil was clasped and held in place with orange blossoms and her shower bouquet was of tiny rosebuds and white sweet peas. She was given away in marriage by her father, Dr. Blatchford.

Five Beta Chi sorority sisters of the bride served as her attendants. Mrs. Seldon Sackett, matron of honor, wore an attractive frock of pink crepe combined with georgette and two of the bridesmaids, Miss Elsie Jackson and Miss Eva Roberts, wore dainty orchid frocks. Pale green gowns were worn by Miss Lucille Tucker and Miss Beatrix DeGraff, bridesmaids. Each of the maids carried a quaint corsage and wore a wreath of flowers.

Little Peggy Thompson, in a fluffy pink frock, carried a huge basket of roses and sweet peas. David Thompson acted as ring bearer.

The ushers were Ruskin Blatchford, Roderick Blatchford, Sheldon Sackett and Raymond Dimick.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Blatchford home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gillette were graduated from Willamette university with the class of '22 and there is truly a college romance. Both were unusually active on the campus and popular with their fellow students. Mrs. Gillette is a member of Beta Chi sorority and of the Adelante literary society. Mr. Gillette is a Sigma Tau and a member of the Websterian literary society. He was very active in athletics. Mrs. Gillette was active in musical circles and in debate and was May Queen attendant in her senior year. After a short trip they will return to Portland to make their home.

The wedding march was played by Misses Helen and Laura Cammack as the bridal party took their places on the porch before an altar banked with ocean spray and mock orange blossoms. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. Stroud sang "At Dawning." A dainty two course luncheon was served later in the dining room which was attractively decorated in pink and white. A large bowl of Madam Caroline Testout roses formed the centerpiece for the bride's table, over which streamers of pink were gracefully bestowed from the chandelier.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bear, and has lived near Turner since early childhood. She was graduated from the Turner high school in 1916 and from Willamette university in 1920.

SEARCH OF UNDERGROUND TUNNELS IS FRUITLESS

Chicago, June 19.—(A. P.)—Search for more than two hours in the labyrinth of tunnels 40 feet under the surface of Chicago's business section failed to produce any trace of a gunman, who Tuesday evening fired at a policeman in State's Attorney Crowe's office.

The man, thought to be Tony Spano of the Genesee gang, was believed to have been seeking Mr. Crowe, who recently with Chief of Police Collins, started a drive on the underworld. After fleeing from the county building, he disappeared into one of the tunnels and yesterday a man thought to be the fugitive was seen by workmen at another point in the tunnel.
