Floral Show Opens Tomorrow

All flower lovers of Salem and the surrounding districts are interested in the floral show which will open in the evening tomorrow afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Salem Floral Society, or as it will soon be known, the Salem Garden Club.

At seven o'clock in the afternoon Dr. J. H. Fairchild will give a talk on lilies. At seven thirty in the evening a children's floral parade will be held on the stage in the armory. There will be no entry charge and all mothers with children between the ages from four to six inclusive may enter their children. Each child, carrying a basket of flowers, will walk across the stage before the judges. More than three dozen prizes, including four boxes of candy, books, rubber balls, balloons and rocks, have been contributed by various Salem merchants to award the children's parade entrants. All children must be in the armory before seven thirty. Other details may be obtained from Mrs. Max Baron and Mrs. F. G. Myers.

An orchestra will furnish music and a new set floral play will be given by Jean Anderson and Margaret Nunn.

Mrs. H. T. Love is in charge of the entries. The program is being arranged by H. T. Love, Miss Edith Hazard, Miss Oda Chapman, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. W. E. Anderson are supervising the arrangement of the exhibits. The awarding of the prizes will be directed by E. Gillingham, Howard Smith and Earl McCoy. All exhibits must be in place by one o'clock tomorrow and cannot be removed until the close of the show tomorrow evening at 10:30.

The home of Mrs. M. H. Hunt and Mrs. J. H. Hunt on Marion street was the scene of an attractive shower on Friday evening given by a group of Royal Neighbors in honor of Miss Margaret Collins, bride-elect. Pink roses and Jerusalem lilies were arranged artistically about the room and during the evening a musical program was given by Helen Benner, Evelyn Young, Mrs. Clifton B. Mudd and Ada Sharp. A mock wedding followed with several other features. Later the honored guest, Miss Collins, was presented with a huge basket filled with the gifts and flowers.

In the group were Miss Collins, Mrs. M. O. Comstock, Mrs. J. F. Van Osdal, Mrs. E. A. Sharp, Mrs. F. L. Prince, Mrs. T. A. Jura, Mrs. Sydney J. Gentskow, Mrs. Clifford B. Mudd, Mrs. Harold E. Livock, Mrs. D. L. Spaulding, Mrs. I. A. Persons, Mrs. C. H. Peterson, Mrs. A. A. Rookstool, Mrs. P. E. Ackerman, Mrs. J. T. Collins, Mrs. M. H. Hunt, Mrs. C. C. Wetzel, Mrs. Percy Hyster, Mrs. I. W. Woodhouse, Mrs. W. L. Nelson, Mrs. Sarah Nelson, Mrs. William R. Baker, Mrs. J. E. Blodgett, Mrs. C. L. Parmenter, Mrs. J. H. Hunt and the Misses Helen Benner, Lela Spaulding, Myrtle Graybill, Mildred Ackerman, Ada Sharp, Crystal Yates, Vivian Nelson, Helen Benner and Evelyn Young.

An attractive home wedding, distinctive because of its simplicity, was celebrated last Thursday when Effie Savage was married to Fred Perrin. The ceremony took place at eleven o'clock in the morning in the Savage home with Rev. George L. Lovell officiating. Tall baskets of ocean spray and marguerites, Canterbury bells and delphinium were lovely about the rooms.

The bride wore an attractive frock of sandalwood crepe and carried an arm bouquet of roses and sweet peas. There were no attendants and only immediate relatives and intimate friends were present. The ring ceremony was used. An informal reception followed with the bride cutting the bride's cake. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Perrin left for the beach to spend several weeks. They will be at home during the summer at Pedee, Oregon.

Mrs. J. E. Law and her two sons are the guests for several days in Portland of Mrs. Law's mother, Mrs. J. W. Beveridge.

Miss Lenore Preston was Mrs. F. D. Thilisen's guest over the week end. She will leave shortly for San Francisco and Berkeley to continue her study of the dance art in further preparation for her work which she will resume here in the fall.

Mrs. Jones Hostess to Daughters

The Polk county home of Mrs. Seymour Jones was the scene of an attractive affair on Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Jones was hostess to a meeting of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution with members of the state board of special guests. Chemeketa officers were formally installed and during the afternoon Mrs. Fletcher Linn of Multnomah chapter in Portland, gave a comprehensive report of the Washington conference, which she attended as official delegate.

Tea was served in the Jones' garden. All the board members were seated at one long table and chapter members were grouped at small tables. A patriotic motif was carried out in the decorations. Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. C. C. Clark poured and assisted about were Mrs. H. T. Love, J. W. Orr, Mrs. Armer Goulet, Mrs. G. C. Best, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Miss Ruth Ruffin, Miss Iva Clare Love, Miss Ola Clark and Miss Junette Jones. Mrs. Jones presided at a meeting of the executive board in the chamber of commerce rooms beginning at ten o'clock Saturday morning. At this time it was decided to make the scholarship loan fund of the organization at once available and operative. Mrs. U. G. Smith of Portland, is chairman of the scholarship loan committee and her assistants are Mrs. W. I. Hembree of McMinnville, Mrs. E. M. Brant of Corvallis, Mrs. G. J. Frankel of Portland and Mrs. E. E. DeCout of Eugene. A thousand dollars was pledged to the fund for a building in Eugene, all payable in three years. A no hostess luncheon was given at the Gray Bell at noon.

Three bride-elects, Miss Joy Turner, Miss Ethel Wykoff and Miss Eunice Truax, were honored at an attractive luncheon on Thursday when Mrs. E. A. Baker entertained for them in her home. Additional guests were matrons and maids whom the bride-to-be have chosen for their attendants.

A large bowl of white and yellow flowers centered the luncheon table and yellow favors were used throughout. Tiny white card-carrying covers for Miss Turner, Miss Wykoff, Miss Truax, Mrs. Ivan Martin, Mrs. Clara Vibbert, Miss Marcelle Caste, Miss Gladys Kelley and Mrs. Baker. Miss Turner and Miss Truax will be married on Sunday and Miss Wykoff has chosen July 5 for her wedding to Leo Cronke.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gauntlett and children, Billie and Gertrude, and Miss Pullen, all of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kafoury yesterday.

Mrs. William Gauntlett of Seattle, formerly of Gold Beach, Oregon, and well known in the state, will arrive very soon to spend several weeks at the N. C. Kafoury home.

The woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's church will meet on Friday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. A. C. Parr on Portland road. This will be the final meeting of the year.

Miss Beatrice Shelton will present a group of her senior pupils in recital in the First Congregational church this evening at 8:15. They will be assisted by Mary Talmadge Headrick and the Schubert octette. This is the first of a series of recitals to be given by Miss Shelton's pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hartman left yesterday by motor for Grants Pass to meet Mrs. Hartman's sister who is coming up from California to spend a month here.

Mrs. Myrtle Henderson entertained as her guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. William P. Henderson, Miss Elizabeth Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clum. Yesterday they attended the Idaho picnic at the fair grounds.

Friends of Mrs. Mary E. Yockey will be happy to hear that she has returned to her home on Union street after spending more than a month in the Salem hospital.
