HERE ARE TWO EXCELLENT farms, no better soil in Marion county Beautifully located on paved highway on Portland milk route, southeast of Woodburn about three miles in the best farm and fruit district in the county. 40 acre farm, good large barn with stanchions for 8 cows, plenty of mow room for hay 6 room house, large wood shed and milk house adjoining; family orchard. Farm fenced into 4 separate fields, and pasture all in crops; 18 acres wheat, 10 acres oats, about 10 acres corn, balance orchard and berries. Crop all goes with farm, if taken soon. Crops are splendid, probably worth $1500. Will take $2500 to handle. We won't state price of farm as we want buyer to see land first. Plenty of spring water handy for stock.
12 acre farm, all in cultivation, crops go with farm. Adjoining first described farm, same owner. Very superior productive land; spring water for stock. Beautifully located on paved highway, and nice new modern residence, with large, handy woodhouse adjoining large up to date poultry house. ½ acre strawberries, 1-8 acre gooseberries produced a ton of berries this year; the berry vines mostly set last spring, and are in excellent condition. This is a choice home and priced for quick sale at $5000, with good terms on half. If you want something you can make a living on, let us show you these farm homes. See

ANTI-FOREIGN SITUATION IN CHINA IS GRAVE

New York, June 24—Over-night dispatches from Canton, new hotbed of Chinese anti-foreign agitators, picture a serious situation. Apparently alarmed by yesterday's outbreak, in which excited Chinese exchanged shots with the guards around the foreign settlement on Shameen island, the authorities are sending defenseless foreign civilians from the trouble zone.

A British steamer carrying 500 women and children arrived at Hong Kong from Shameen this morning. The American gunboat Helena is proceeding to Canton from Hongkong.

The situation at Amoy, north of Hongkong is also reported increasingly grave due to the persistent anti-foreign propaganda in circulation there. Despite assurances from the Chinese authorities that the unruly elements can be kept in hand, the American, British and Japan consuls have requested their governments to send warships and meanwhile a steamer is being held ready to take off the foreign women and children should trouble arise.

Disturbances are also feared at Peking on the occasion of the dragon festival tomorrow and all of the legations are reported to be taking precautions to meet any violent movement.

Detailed accounts of yesterday's shooting at Canton show that the anti-foreign domination was comparatively peaceful until one section of the parading Chinese began firing from the bund toward Shameen. A French merchant was killed and a British marine and three civilians wounded, including the white commissioner of customs.

British and French marines immediately returned the fire of the Chinese but were checked by the senior naval officer in command.

The Chinese firing broke out opposite the British section of Shameen, giving further evidence that the anti-foreign movement is directed particularly against the British and Japanese. Report of assaults on Japanese subjects came from four interior points in China yesterday.

The text of the appeal sent to Pope Pius by professors of the national university of Peking, given out in Rome last night, repeats the charges made in the Chinese vernacular press that the foreigners have "perpetrated murders against unarmed Chinese citizens in the international settlements at Shanghai, Hongkong and elsewhere."

The pope is asked to extend his sympathy and support to the Chinese cause. He has entrusted the apostolic delegate in Peking with the task of answering the appeal, deploring the bloodshed and wishing for the re-establishment of order and a spirit of understanding.
