

WORTHINGTON GONE TO EUROPE OFFICERS FEEL

San Diego, Cal., July 1.—Federal officers today indicated their belief that the newest search for John H. Worthington, known as the "wolf of LaSalle street," who faces a term in Atlanta federal prison, would be a long one.

Reports gathered at Escondido, Lower California, to which Worthington went several days ago, led those seeking him to believe that he had started on an ocean trip to Europe, where he is supposed to have sufficient funds in bank to keep him going ahead of pursuers for some time.

Word brought back to San Diego by the latest party to seek Worthington is that Worthington left Escondido last Saturday. He was in a hotel under guard of Mexican officers. Before that he had been at Fontana, where he was ostensibly seeking relief in mud baths. It is said that when American federal officers found him there he exclaimed:

"You thought I was running away, didn't you? Well, I simply came here to take the mud baths."

Search of Worthington's baggage by the American agents is said to have been stopped by the chief of police of Escondido. Thereupon the head of the American party went to see the Mexican governor at Mexicali, a ride of several hours. If he got any assistance there he has not reported the fact here.

That Worthington has a large deposit of cash in Italy is said to be well known by his friends, as is also the fact that he has other large sums at hand in various parts of the United States. So certain were the members of the searching party of Worthington's ability to take care of himself financially at any time or in any crisis that they declared that he is one of the few men in the world who can command $100,000 in cash at practically the very instant he needs it.

SPOKANE BOOTLEGGERS ADOPT NEW METHODS

Spokane, Wash.—The latest strategy of bootleggers of this locality, the civil authorities declare, is to hire some persons suffering from chronic illness to market their wares. Then when the peddler comes before a court, the plea is made that he has no money and that a jail sentence would mean sure death.

"Within the last three weeks there have been at least four cases of this kind tried before me," declared Police Justice Fred Morrill. "The defendant even had a physician take the witness stand and testify that it might mean death for the accused if he should be compelled to serve time in jail."

FORMER TIGER NOW 54; STILL PLAYING

Battle Creek, Mich.—A 54-year-old grandfather, who formerly wore a Detroit Tiger uniform, still is able to pitch winning baseball, despite his years.

Fans who know the Tigere in 1905-06 will remember him, John Eubanks, who came to the club the same year that Ty Cobb did. Of all the players in the American league then, just two remain, Cobb and Walter Johnson, and Eubanks has vivid memories of each. Eubanks, who lives at Bellevue near here and pitches for the Bellevue United Stone team, recalls Johnson's first game in the American league, and says that Walter's spiked shoes were the cause of the young rookie's defeat in that contest.

Saw Hanging

KATHRYN DE MAULEY

Kathryn de Mauley, of Chicago, disguised as a man, slipped into the death chamber of the county jail to witness the hanging of Willie Sams, policeman slayer, "for a thrill." Her sex was not revealed until a "hate-off" order, when it was too late to remove her without a disturbance.

HOUSEKEEPING TAUGHT TO GIRLS IN ARMENIA

Alexanderopol, Russian Armenia.—An initial attempt at the scientific study of home economics is being made in the American orphanage schools here. A model village has been established, in which Armenian girls are taught by actual practice the rudiments of household science.

SENATORS AND PIRATES LEAD

New York, July 1.—A disturbance of marked intensity has been registered in baseball. Where once stood a peaceful Philadelphia and a fearsome Giant, there are now an austere Senator and a belligerent Pirate.

The mighty Walter Johnson came forth yesterday to lift his Washington brethren to the heights over the Athletics. Meanwhile Jack Scott killed the Giant hopes by falling to halt the Braves.

Johnson made June's last one of his rarest days, permitting the Pirates to spend their energy in a losing battle with the Cubs, 1 to 0. Kauffman allowed Pittsburgh only three safeties.

Sam Jones went out for the New York Yankees and captured his tenth victory of the season from the Red Sox 2 to 0. Boston could count only four hits.

The White Sox required 12 innings to defeat the St. Louis Browns 6 to 1. Manager Collins and Sheeley each shot forth three singles.

Cleveland, starting a five-run rally in the sixth, overcame the Tigers, 6 to 3. The Phillies and Dodgers also traveled extra innings, the decision finally going to Fletcher's squad 19 to 9.

Old Resident Near Death

"I had not eaten food for 19 days and was slowly starving to death. Given up by five doctors, I tried a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which gave relief at once. I am 75 years old and would have died but for your wonderful medicine. The jaundice is all gone and I am gaining appetite and strength every day." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

LOS ANGELES CO-EDS DEMAND SEDATE HUBBIES

Los Angeles.—Results of a questionnaire of 595 co-eds of the University of California, southern branch, held here recently, revealed that men who are respectable without being of the "good-guy" type, and who have a decorous attitude toward life and its recognized institutions are the ideal husbands desired by modern college girls. The query was submitted by the civic education department of the institution for the purpose of ascertaining what standards are necessary for husbands.

Other qualifications needed are an income of at least $250 monthly, with assurance of advancement; he must be a member of a large family, and preference was expressed for the professional or business man who can talk about subjects other than his business.

London, Eng.—Kagawa Toyohiko, a labor leader of Kobe, Japan, arrived in London recently to study the workings of the British labor party as an aid to organizing a labor party in Japan. Mr. Toyohiko said the socialist and labor leaders of Japan had combined in efforts to further the movement and that while the Japanese labor party would be modeled after the British system it would function in some ways along the lines of the social-democratic Germany.
