

ENGLAND ASKS FRANCE TO PAY HER DEBT ALSO

Paris, July 2.—(AP)—The inter-allied debt question has been thrust still further to the fore by the receipt from London of a new memorandum suggesting that France make an offer for settlement of her debt to England, even if only a provisional one.

The memorandum, signed by Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, takes cognizance of France's plans in connection with her American debt by stating that Great Britain has no desire to interfere with negotiations which France might initiate with other creditor powers.

Mr. Chamberlain states the occasion, however, to state that England feels that should France sign an agreement for payment of part of her debt to the United States, the British would expect a proportionate reimbursement.

The British memorandum is being studied by Foreign Minister Briand and Finance Minister Caillaux, who not long ago were given authority by the cabinet to initiate negotiations for the settlement of the inter-allied debts.

Pending the dispatch of additional instructions to M. Daeschner, the French ambassador at Washington, the government has asked him to inform the American authorities that France is disposed to send a commission to the United States to discuss the question.

TWO BANDITS ARE KILLED IN RUNNING DUEL

grocer. The second was killed by Marshal Ed Nelson.

A. E. Hovey, cashier, kicked a burglar alarm as the men brandished their guns and while the bell outside the bank was clanging its message to the townspeople, the bandit force, Hovey, his assistant, C. A. Stewart, and W. A. Evans, a customer, to lie on the floor while President Steberg was compelled to fill a sack with currency.

Office: Wounds One

Marshal Nelson responded to the alarm but, his gun sticking as he attempted to draw it, he was forced to lie on the floor. He was not disarmed, however, and as the pair left the building he fired two shots, both of which took effect. The wounded man took the wheel of the automobile and his companion mounted the running board, rifle in hand, firing rapidly to keep off pursuit. The bandit car was a block away when it suddenly dashed from his grocery and with the first shot from his rifle picked the man from the running board.

Seeing his companion fall to the pavement, the wounded bandit drove around the block firing as he went. Turning back into Main street where his comrade lay motionless and ordering the crowd about with his revolver commanded "pick up that fellow and put him in the car."

Marshal Nelson hurried up. "Put up your hands," he ordered the bandit.

The reply was two shots from the driver.

Nelson then finished what he had started in the bank and put a bullet through the bandit's body. He died a few minutes later but said no word.

SAY DOHENY STORY FAKE

agreements in March, 1922, while Mr. Doheny didn't get his first contract until April 25, 1922.

As for naval officers' fears of an oriental invasion of this country being deleted from Rear Admiral John K. Robinson's deposition at the Cheyenne oil lease trial, Mr. Pomeroy said:

"Whatever was deleted had to do with matters which the state department in the public interest said it did not care to have disclosed publicly."

"There was nothing in the deposition of any particular moment that affected the situation. If there was any war scare, as Mr. Doheny calls it, that it was all settled when the first Doheny contract was actually signed."

What of Satchel?

"What about the little black satchel? I have a picture in my mind of this patriot giving $100,000 to Mr. Fall with one hand and receiving in the other contracts involving $100,000,000 worth of property."

Edward C. Finney, assistant secretary of the interior, branded Mr. Doheny's story, the Times says, as a bid for public support, made up in part of untruths and in part of statements promulgated in detail designed to minimize the part Albert B. Fall played in the lease.

Mr. Finney admitted that three telegrams from Three Rivers, N. M., where Mr. Fall was spending a vacation, to the interior department in Washington, had disappeared from the files, but he denied that the department records had been ransacked by the senate oil investigators.

"Just a re-hash of the alibi," Mr. Roberts said as quoted by the New York Tribune.

COAL MINERS TO MAKE DEMANDS

Saratoga, Pa., July 2.—(A. P.)—The anthracite scale committee today submitted to the tri-district convention for its ratification the following tentative demands for renewal with mine owners of the contract expiring August 31.

A contract for two years; complete recognition of the union, which means adoption of the check-off; 10 per cent wage increase for tonnage men and a $1-a-day additional for day workers; equalization of day rates; payments on the basis of 2240 pounds tons where now paid on car basis.

Other demands include: Quicker adjustment of grievances; improvement of housing conditions on company property; equalization of colliery work during shutdowns and other matters of technical character.

SENATORS PLAY CONVICTS HERE FOURTH OF JULY

Announcement was made yesterday evening that the Salem Senators will meet the prison nine on the prison diamond, the Fourth of July. The entire Senator lineup may not be present but several of them will be in the game and the rest of the team will be gathered from the best players around town.

Proctor, Barham, Ashby, Edwards and possibly another one or so will be on hand.

Edwards is planning on starting Barham on the mound against the Albany nine when they cross bats on the Oxford park diamond Sunday afternoon in the first meeting between the two teams since Albany entered the league. The locals are given the edge over them but nothing is certain until the final out is made. The game promises to be a good one as the Albany team has gained a little more confidence since winning their first game of the season against the papermakers last week.

Hillsboro will meet Camas at Camas and the Luckenbach Ship company will clash with the papermakers. The Hillsboro game will be a fast game as both teams are about evenly matched and fighting hard for an upper position. The shipbuilders are given the edge over the papermakers since winning seven straight games. The game with the convicts will be played in the morning.

Levon Nine Wins

The American Legion baseball team of the twilight league won over the Grotto nine last night by a score of 5 to 0. Hooper, of the Legion, scored the first tally of the game when he crossed the plate in the first inning. In the third frame, Pearmine, of the Legion, scored another tally. The other three were scored in the fourth and fifth innings. One each by Hooper, Acton and Pearmine.

Yankee Oarsman Wins

Henley on Thames, Eng., July 2.—(A. P.)—Walter M. Hooper, American oarsman, defeated M. K. Morris of England by four lengths in their heat for the diamond sculls at the Henley regatta today. Hooper's time was 8 minutes 14 seconds.

RAIN THREATENS POSTPONEMENT OF FIGHT CARD

New York, July 2.—Rain which began falling this morning threatened to force a postponement of the Italian hospital fund boxing bouts, scheduled for the Polo Grounds tonight. Although weather bureau officials predicted that the rain would continue this evening, promoter Humber J. Fugazy said he would not decide on definite postponement until late today.

Some 50,000 followers of boxing are expected when eight famous fighters take part for good-sized purses in the benefit.

A double headliner is offered. The welterweight champion, Mickey Walker, fights the middleweight king, Harry Greb; Harry Willis, negro giant, meets the rejuvenated heavyweight, Charley Weinert.

In the Walker-Greb tussle, Walker cannot lose his title because his opponent will enter the ring far over the welterweight limit. But Walker may win the crown that the Pittsburgh man took from the head of Johnny Wilson.

Greb is the favorite, for he has speed, power and courage considered sufficient to offset the brilliant attack that is sure to come from the sturdy battler from Jersey.

No championship will be at stake when Willis and Weinert face each other, but the ambitions of either may be shattered. Far in the offing—very far it would seem—looms a bout with Dempsey. Willis has sought the opportunity for years. Weinert would cherish the chance. Each has conquered the man who a few years ago set Dempsey harrying through the ropes, Luis Angel Firpo.

The state athletic commission has been called on to decide many issues in connection with this program—the question of postponement from June 19, found necessary when Walker suffered an injury in training; the question as to which is the feature bout, a matter still in the balance, and the status of Jack Kearns, who it is reported, even will agree to a Willie-Dempsey match in order that he may gain admission to the grounds to second Walker tonight. Kearns has been notified that he

COOLIDGE FINDS HE CANNOT AVOID CARES OF OFFICE

Swampscott, Mass., July 2.—(AP)—President Coolidge is reaching the conclusion that a president, regardless of where he goes, cannot evade the cares of his office.

Coming to the seashore for relief from the enervating heat of Washington, the president is finding that although removed from the seat of government, there are problems to plague a vacationist.

Mr. Coolidge was confronted today with several issues, still somewhat aloof, but nevertheless holding vexatious probabilities.

The K. K. K. controversy threatens to take a new turn as a result of the announced intention of the organization to invite the president to review its parade and address its members in Washington early in August. No formal invitation has yet been received but it is considered unlikely here that the president will be able to accept, particularly as he has indicated that he still will be summering here at the time.

The announcement that an invitation would be extended, however, has brought communications to Mr. Coolidge from a number of individuals and organizations opposed to the plan, urging him to emphatically decline and, in some instances, appealing to him to do something to prevent the holding of the Washington meeting.

Another cloud on the horizon is the possibility of a strike between anthracite operators and miners over a new wage scale. The president is watching developments with interest, chiefly through the newspapers.

GOVERNMENT OF SOUTH CHINA IS REORGANIZED

Canton, China, July 2.—(A. P.)—A new government for southern China was formed here yesterday by the forces which recently captured Canton.

The new civil governor, Wu Hon-Min, is known for his boisterous proclivities as is Liu Chung-Hoi, minister of finance in the new regime.

Hsu Sung-Chi was named minister of war and Sun-Fo was appointed to the ministry of communications. The civil governor will do double duty as secretary of foreign affairs.

All foreign consuls here, excepting the British and French, were invited to a reception held by the new government.

The British have not yet presented demands expected to be made against the Chinese administration here. It was reported that demands made by the French government already have been returned unanswered by the Chinese officials.

TO WITHDRAW MARINES FROM NICARAGUA SOON

Managua, Nic., July 2.—(AP)—Local newspapers announce that the United States marines will be withdrawn from here on August 4. The first detachment of marines arrived 13 years ago to quell revolutionary activities and marines since have served as a guard for the American legation.
