Fourth to Be Observed Quietly

The modern motor which makes the beach and the mountains accessible in a few hours has worked a drastic change in the manner in which the family of today celebrates Independence day. In the days of the early victorians, and even the sully, the boardwalk, father, mother and the seven children left early in the morning for the nearest town. Every hamlet and every busy metropolis had its "biggest and best" Fourth of July celebration. No town was really patriotic unless at least once a year it got together for a baseball game, a horse race, or two, several dozen peanut, hot-dog, and balloon vendors, several quill contests, a number of pink lemonade stands, and several speeches by the town's leading citizens to show the other towns in the county that it truly understood the importance of celebrating the great Fourth.

Today the "celebration" is almost obsolete. For the majority the Fourth day of July means a day of comparative rest, a trip to the beach, to a favorite spot along the banks of a swift mountain stream, or even a long jaunt along one of the highways. Almost universally Salemites are planning to observe the day in this manner. Many have gone, others are leaving tonight and tomorrow for the two days recess to favorite coast and foothill resorts.

The week has been one of the most quiet ones of the entire year. Several smaller affairs such as I. S. Filtz Slade's tea for Mrs. J. L. Waigrove on Wednesday and Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. F. A. Elliott's luncheon on Tuesday would have been outstanding at any time and stand out especially in the past week.

Weddings both large and small have continued in frequency. One of the most elaborate weddings, as well as one of the most beautiful was solemnized in First church on Sunday when Miss Joy Turner became the bride of William Edward Moege. A number of attractive home weddings as well as several smaller church weddings have taken place during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox and Walter McDougall and his sons left the morning for a two weeks' motor trip to Bend and East Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer and Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Galloway left today on a three day motor trip to the Coos Bay country. They will visit North Bend, Marshfield and the Bandon beaches.

Miss Beatrice Shelton entertained her music class at a line party at the Oregon early in the week, followed by a banquet at the Spa. The tables were decorated with flowers in pink and lavender and lily table cards marked the covers for Miss Beatrice, Mrs. L. L. Darby, Mrs. W. E. Anselmi and Mrs. Paul Silke who presided at the E. C. Apperson summer home at Newkows.

Livesley, John J. Roberts, Judge John L. Rand, David W. Eyr, Frederick Lampert, Louis Lachmann and Dr. Saurman.

Mrs. F. M. Jordan who has been the house guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers for nearly a fortnight left this morning for her home in Seattle. Mrs. Meyers accompanied her guest as far as Portland by motor. A number of affairs were given in Mrs. Jordan's honor during her visit in Salem.

Wreck Heroine

MARIE LOUISE HAAKER

Miss Mary Louise Haaker, of Park Ridge, Ill., the only survivor aboard the D. L. & W. train that was derailed during a terrific storm near Hackettstown, N. J., proved herself a heroine in rendering first aid to scores of victims.

A superabundance of material property was declared in store for the Pacific coast and the business and professional women's club was urged to keep the spirit of idealism, without which material prosperity is ashes, by Miss Agnes C. Laut, writer and student of economics, in her talk at the luncheon of the business and professional women's club in Portland yesterday. The luncheon was held at the Multnomah hotel, and owing to the prominence of the speaker, was open to all persons interested.

A feeling for spiritual beauty is the thing that brings crowds to the Portland Rose Festival, the speaker declared, urging the need of preserving this spirit. Need of applying the same spirit in business and other human relationships was also stressed by Miss Laut. Business success, she declared, followed the practical application of idealism. "Jealousy," Miss Laut said, "is a vice of the soul in business as elsewhere."

"Practically all of the vocations that call women out of the home are simply wider developments of the things she has always been doing in the home," Miss Laut pointed out, in discussing the present business relationships of women.

Dolph Thomas sang a group of songs, with accompaniment by Genevieve Baum Gaskins, and Miss Marguerite Carney sang, with accompaniment by Miss Ruby Lloyd Brown. Miss Edith I. A. Dalley, president of the club, presided, and Mrs. Josephine Porney was chairman of the day, introducing the speaker and musician.—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet and their son, Homer, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson (Mildred Apperson) will be the week end guests at the E. C. Apperson summer home at Newkows.

Miss Margaret Dellinger is the guest in Portland for the week of her mother, Mrs. Mary Norman.

UPPER SANTIAM LOOKS FOR HOLIDAY CROWDS

Mill City, Or., July 3.—No celebration of any kind is being planned here for the Fourth of July. Most of the local people will make trips to the coast or other resorts. A large number of campers and fishermen are looked for along the banks of the Santiam and other rivers in this vicinity. Fishing is reported to be good on the north fork or the Santiam above Melama and some fairly good catches are being made in the Santiam around here. Roads are good to Niagara now, and good catches are being made between Niagara and Detroit. Breitenbush springs are popular this summer and quite a few are planning on spending the Fourth there. The new resort of E. F. Russell at Berry is being opened and excellent camping facilities are reported there. Most of the salmon have gotten over the dam here and now lying in the holes between Gates and Berry, creating good chances of hooking one when fishing in deep water for trout.

The city library will be closed all day tomorrow, July 4. It will be open a usual on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Downing has as her house guests Miss Ione Downing and Miss Ruth Lomax of Quinala, Nebraska. Enroute to their home they will spend a week in Yellowstone national park.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Nelson of Portland, in their home over the week end.

Miss Margaret Griffith, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Maxine Buren, Miss Dorothy Patterson and Miss Helen Savage motored to Silverton on Tuesday where they were guests of Mrs. J. C. Curry at the Curry home in the Waldo Hills. During the afternoon the engagement of Miss Helen Curry to Frank Alm of Silverton was announced.

This Man Intends to Keep It in the House

"In May or June, 1913, I got four bottles which were worth many dollars to me. They enabled me to go to work again. I had lost 40 pounds, but these 4 bottles of May's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble gained back all I had lost and I feel like a new man since. I shall keep it in the house all the time. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

DEMPSEY SAYS NO OPPONENTS ARE AVAILABLE

London, July 3.—(A. P.)—Jack Dempsey, in a signed article to be published in the Weekly Dispatch on Sunday says: "I am unemployed because there are so few fighters who will be giving the public a good show for their money if we meet. Nobody is more anxious to get into the ring than I am."

The champion sees little prospect of any work before July of next year when he is to meet the "Tunney." He disclaims suggestions that he is holding out for high prices, declaring his willingness to fight at any time on a percentage basis.

Advance notices of the articles were given out today. Dempsey is to spar nine rounds tomorrow night at Brighton as the "feature" of a boxing tournament, the proceeds of which will go to the Royal Sussex hospital.

The champion will go three rounds each with Phil Scott, who is considered a likely future heavy weight champion, and Captain Ernest Chandler, former amateur heavyweight title holder.

FLEET DEPARTS FOR AUSTRALIA

U. S. S. Seattle, off Hawaiian Islands, July 3.—(A. P.)—Under tropical skies and favored by smooth seas the United States fleet today led into routine cruising on the second leg of the trip to Australia, which is the greatest undertaking of its kind yet attempted by an American fleet in view of the fact that every ship maintains itself on a self-sustaining basis aided by a train of food, fuel, repair and hospital ships.

With the departure from Hawaii commenced the training competition for the new year. The personnel of the ships immediately began training for the coveted honors of battle efficiency. The formation arranged allows areas for each division so that commanders may maneuver their vessels for exercise of gunnery and tactical communications and covers over 30 square miles.

In daylight the ships are out of formation but still maintain the fleet speed and course regarding their positions before dark. Gun drills occupy the greater part of day. The shellbacks are busy making preparations for the ceremonies incident to entrance into the realm of King Neptune, when the equator is reached.

TUNNEY TO MEET HERMAN

Kansas City, Kan., July 3.—Gene Tunney, light heavyweight boxing champion and present conqueror of Tommy Gibbons, will meet "Italian Jack" Herman, New York heavyweight in a ten round no decision bout here tonight.

The champion is the decided favorite. Billy Gibson, manager of Tunney announced today he would confer with Jack Dempsey on the latter's return from Europe in an effort to match Tunney with the heavyweight champion this year. Gibson said he would urge the fight for Labor Day.

RIFFS INCREASE DRIVE

Fez, French Morocco, July 3.—(A. P.)—Increased pressure by the Rifians, with attacks against each of three principal French garrisons is noted in an official communiqué.

Yankee Oarsmen Lose

Henley-on-Thames, July 3.—(A. P.)—Jack Beresford Jr., of London, present title holder today defeated Walter M. Hoover of Philadelphia in the eliminations for the diamond sculls of the Henley regatta.

"For over two years I suffered from pains in my side and back with headaches and weakness," says Mrs. Walter E. Anderson, a farmer's wife of Rangeley, Maine. "It seemed as though I could not get my work done from one day to the next, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health so that now I can do all kinds of work, sewing, washing, ironing and sweeping. I hope this letter will influence other women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." Volumes of such letters from women explain why Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., of Lynn, Mass., is the greatest user of roots and herbs in the world.—Adv.

C.S. Hamilton GOOD FURNITURE

A gain we commemorate that momentous day in the history of these United States—the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Let us not become so accustomed to freedom that we forget our debt to those heroic men of Revolutionary Days, who, the few in number, won freedom for the more than a hundred million souls who now enjoy the benefits for which they fought.
