ANGELS BREAK EVEN IN 2 GAMES

Mt. Angel, July 6.—The Mt. Angel baseball nine broke even in the two games which were played over the week-end. On the Fourth the local team played Silverton on the field near the Silver Falls Timber company mill in a 10 to 8 game. The Mt. Angel boys made a costly error in the second inning and Silverton scored eight runs in the one inning. Another in the sixth and one in the eighth gave the Silverton team a lead that Mt. Angel could not overcome.

Better luck and fewer errors gave Mt. Angel the long score with a better team yesterday when they played Molalla. In an eleven inning game the final count was 7 to 4. Molalla tied the score in the ninth and neither side was able to break through until a second inning was played.

More than sixty Mt. Angel people took the special car that was run to Molalla on the W. V. S. yesterday.

To the Editor: To correct an impression Mr. Espy of Woodburn would hold out regarding road route Salem to St. Paul via Fairfield will give a few facts.

Mr. Espy says but two people live on this stretch of contemplated macadam road from Aral to St. Paul, commissioner Jim Smith and Mike Mahoney. Suppose because we do not bank at Woodburn Mr. Espy fails to recognize we small fry. Commissioner Smith lives near St. Paul so is but a short distance from pavement. Mike M. W. Mohony lives on another road some two miles from this contemplated route. Now, as to people, my wife and I live on this road and we are still two adult people. Starting at Aral's corner, will enumerate the real bona fide Americans who do live on this route.

G. A. Miller, 45 acres, leased to Allaman family 14; E. B. Smith lease 16 acres 6; W. B. Newberter approximately 50 acres 2; Uphoff Webb lease 2; T. A. Ditmars about 250 acres, family 3; John Imlah, 23, family 4; Mr. Dunky 10 acres family 4; Mr. Francis, 35 acres, family 6; S. T. Parker, 80 acres, family 3; F. Ralph DuRette, 80 acres, family 9; Don B. DuRette, 2 acres, family 6; T. R. DuRette, 100 acres, family 4; James Mahony, 400 acres, family 5; James Mahoney lease, family 2; Mr. Pierce, lease; Sopese Moore, 320 acres family 4; Louis Pelland4. Making a total of 92.

Several families live near and use this road John Marthaler, Duke Ballwebber, George Ballwebber, the Williams and Hart hop yards giving employment some half dozen families.

I am no booster for paved roads but should be pleased to hand over esteemed county court a boquet for their sensible adoption of macadam far superior in construction and upkeep to pavement not mentioning several hundred thousand dollars to Warren construction Co. in royalties on patent paving there no patent on gravel yet. There several families living near St. Paul on this road including Com. Jim Smith.

r. Espy claims the route north to connect pavement at the four corners is shorter it seems to me that was not the idea of the market roads to make short routes for tourists but to serve the whole people even though they live at Fairfield or even St. Paul.

Yours truly,
F. R. DuRette

QUARTET SINGS AT CHURCH HERE

Those who attended the morning services at the First Congregational church on Sunday were treated to a program of sacred music by the Immanuel male quartet and saxaphone club. Versatility, precision and perfect blending were marked features of the quartet's singing.

Joe J. Kleinsasser, manager, first tenor and son of a minister; Joe A. Kearnes, second tenor and a convert of a Billy Sunday revival campaign; A. L. Reimer, first bass, accompanist and a follower of his father in devout Christianity, and P. D. Eitzen, second bass and also son of a minister is the personnel of the quartet and the manner in which the singers were introduced. They hail from Van Nuys California, traveling by auto and having for company their wives and a big blue-eyes baby, the eight months old daughter of Mr. Eitzen, the basso.

Outstanding numbers rendered by the quartet were: two negro spirituals, "Heab'n" an original arrangement, and "Peter, Ring Dem Bells," Rodehaver; "The Rose of Sharon," Anllen; "Crossing the Bar," Adams, and "My Jesus, I Love Thee," Towner. Probably the most effective number was the beautiful harmonized scriptual context "Remember now they Creator in the days of thy Youth." (Rhodes.)

"The Stars and Stripes Forever," Sousa, was played as a saxaphone number and was followed by a sacred selection arranged for the saxaphone by members of the quartet. Mr. Kearnes, possessed of a highly pleasing tenor voice, sang as a solo "In the Dawn of Eternal Day," (Roth). Mr. Eitzen's deep, mellow bass voice was heard to good effect in "Flee as a Bird." (Dana).

SENATORS WIN OVER CONVICTS

The Salem Senators defeated the Oregon state prison baseball nine on the prison grounds Saturday by a score of 5 to 3 in a well played game. The locals garnered 11 safe hits off of the delivery of Foster, stellar twirler for the convicts. The prisoners were able to get twelve hits off of the pitching of Jenkins, Senators twirler but most of them were scattered out. The locals scored two runs in the second and three in the fourth. The prisoners tallied their scores in the sixth and eighth innings.

Jenkins, Senator pitcher struck out fourteen of the prisoners and Bittles who relieved Jenkins fanned one. Foster, prison twirler sent seven of the local batsmen back to the bench. The game was hard fought with each side holding down the errors. The Senators made one miscue and the prisoners two.
