SCOUT LEAGUE GO TO PREPARE CAMP CASCASAN

Harold Ware, local Boy Scouts executive, left early this morning for Camp Cascasan with Robert Erchinger of Seattle and three members of local Boy Scouts organizations. They will prepare the camp for the first encampment, which begins Saturday, July 11. Some Salem scouts have signed up for the first encampment and will leave from the Salem armory at 8 a. m., transportation being furnished by local members of the organization. Before leaving this morning, Harold Ware expressed the hope that as many as 20 more local scouts would sign up to make the trip, bringing the number up to 50. He also hopes to take 50 on the trip to the second encampment, which begins July 25. Only about 20 have applied to go to the second encampment. Each camp will continue for a period of two weeks. Contrary to former announcement, applications are still being accepted.

Local scouts making the trip to camp today are Hugh Shattuck of Troop 2 and Ralph Purvine and James Fairchild of Troop 1. The advance detail, consisting of five altogether, will set up a number of tents, construct a new cement incinerator adding to the sanitary condition of the camp and generally get the camp into condition for use beginning Saturday.

Camp Cascasan is located on the south fork of the Santiam river, near Cascadia. A construction program will be stressed among the camp activities this year. Pioneering work, such as building signal towers, diving apparatus for the swimming pool, as well as a long chute for use pool, has been planned.

Robert Boyles, chef of the camp last year, will officiate in the same capacity again this year. Harold Ware will have general charge of the camp, assisted by Bob Erchinger of Seattle, who will turn his attention toward camp fire singing and other activities not handled by Ware.

COOLIDGE WILL TALK AT OUTING

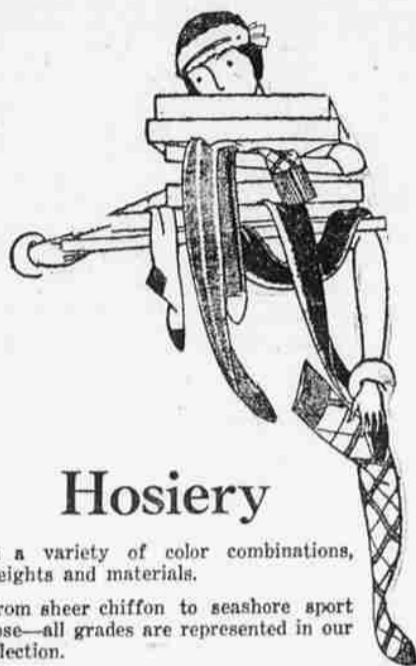

Swampscott, Mass., July 7.—(AP)—President Coolidge starts the third week of his vacation with one engagement of political importance on his schedule. This will be his first appearance Saturday at an outing at which the principal speaker besides himself will be Sen. Butler of Massachusetts, chairman of the republican national committee and his political and personal intimate. Senator Butler probably will be opposed for reelection next year by former Senator David I. Walsh, democrat.

Saturday's outing will be held on the farm near here of Ralph S. Bauer, republican candidate for mayor of Lynn. His guests, in addition to the president and Senator Butler will be Governor Fuller and editors of Essex county newspapers. The outing is an annual affair.

During the week Mr. Coolidge is expected to confer with David Milvane, republican national committeeman from Kansas, who is summering at Magnolia. Mr. Milvane predicts that barring an in-

Lemons Tighten Wrinkled Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons in a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have the very mildest anti-wrinkle lotion to tighten relaxed skin, erase fine lines and eradicate crows-feet. Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the skin at night. By morning most of the tell tale wrinkles, tired lines and crows feet are smoothed out, giving a more youthful contour to cheeks, chin, throat. It leaves the skin velvety soft, clear and fresh. Beauty experts use this astringent lotion for enlarged pores, also to bleach and whiten mallow, tanned skin. Mix this harmless lotion yourself since it acts best immediately after prepared.—Adv.
