Miss Marcus Married This Morning

Beautiful in the perfectness of its setting and its simplicity was the wedding at eleven o'clock this morning of Miss Mabel Marcus to Earl R. Cooley of McArthur, California. The ceremony took place in the garden of the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus, with Rev. Everett, student pastor at Oregon Agricultural college, officiating.

The bridal party assembled under a bower of roses and marguerites. Nearly two hundred friends of the young couple were grouped about the lawn. Miss Frances Hodge played the wedding march from Lohengrin and Miss Josephine Bress sang "At Dawning" and "Until." Following the ceremony she sang "The Prayer Perfect."

The bride was a lovely picture in her gown of white satin made with rhinestones and pearls. Her full length veil was fastened with tiny rosebuds and she carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses.

Miss Helen Marcus was her sister's only attendant. She wore an attractive frock of pink voile over pink satin and carried pink sweet peas. Monroe Cooley, brother of the groom, served as best man.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff and Mrs. John Watt of Portland, grandmother of the bride, cut ices and poured. Assisting about the living rooms were Mrs. L. M. Purvine and Mrs. J. W. Harbison. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Anne and Jean McClew of Eugene, Miss Lucille Moore, Miss Marjorie Marcus, Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Mary Gilbert. The living rooms and the dining room were attractively decked with flowers in various shades of pink and in white.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Cooley left for a trip of several weeks. They will make their home in McArthur, California, where Mr. Cooley is a teacher of agriculture.

Mrs. Cooley was graduated from O. A. C. with the class of '25 with high honors. She was one of 45 honor students out of the entire senior class. She is a member of Sigma Kappa, national sorority, and of Delta Psi Kappa, national physical education fraternity. She was active in athletics and in Y. W. C. A. work on the campus. Mr. Cooley is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho and was graduated from O. A. C. in '23. Their engagement was announced at the Sigma Kappa and Alpha Gamma Rho houses at O. A. C. last year.

Film Divorce?

Alla Nazimova, famous film actress, did not deny reports she was going to Paris to obtain a divorce from Charles Bryant, when questioned just before sailing on the Aquitania. They have been married thirteen years. Her husband refused to comment.

Saturday of this week will be Oregon Federation of Women's clubs day at the Willamette valley chautauqua, in Gladstone park, and every effort is being made to make the occasion a happy and notable one. Interest will naturally center about the attractive new headquarters, which has just been completed, and which will be opened Wednesday, with Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans of Oregon City, chairman of chautauqua for the federation, in charge and ready to give a cordial welcome to all women, visitors from afar, as well as members of the Oregon federation.

Tea will be served from 3 until 5 each afternoon during the assembly. On Wednesday the Oak Grove-Milwaukie Social Service club, Mrs. Willis Green, will be in charge; on Thursday the Multnomah Woman's club, Mrs. Redmond Marshall, will be in charge; on Friday the Oswego club, Mrs. William Schauper, president, will preside.

Saturday being state federation day, the president, Mrs. Saidie Orr-Dunbar, will be in general charge, and assisted by Mrs. Evans and board members. The tea table will be presided over by Mrs. Charles H. Castner of Hood River, Mrs. Ida B. Callahan of Corvallis, past presidents of the federation; Mrs. Rhode B. Hayes, president of the Portland Federation of Women's organizations, and Mrs. Alexander Thompson, a past president of the city federation. Heads of departments and divisions will assist.

The symposium hour of the chautauqua from 5 until 6 will be in charge of the federation, Mrs. Eva Emery Dye of Oregon City presiding, and Mrs. Dunbar acting as chairman. Reports of the recent convention at Oregon City will be given, the several topics having been assigned as follows: "The American Home, the Keynote of the Convention," Mrs. Charles T. Hoge, Oak Grove-Milwaukie Social Service club; "The Doernbecher Children's Hospital Endowment," Mrs. Frank McCrillis, president of the Portland Woman's club; "The Music of the Convention," Mrs. William Kraesig of the Oregon City Woman's club; "The Departmental Plan of Work," Mrs. James Shaw, president of the Alameda Tuesday club; "The Social Side," Mrs. Earl Hobbs, president of the Washington County Federation of Women's organizations.—Oregon Journal.

A. A. U. W. Sponsors "The Rivals"

In pursuance of their campaign for better films, and better magazines on local newsstands the Salem branch of the American association of University Women is going a step farther in the active support of better drama for the Salem stage. The local association is now devoting all its efforts towards the creation of interest in the production of Sheridan's famous play "The Rivals" at the Grand theater on July 25. A brilliant cast headed by Mrs. Fiske and including Chauncey Olcott, Thomas Wise, James T. Powers and other famous artists will produce this famous old play here.

The second event which the A. A. U. W. members will sponsor will be an address by Clayton Hamilton, one of the leading American lecturers on the theater, at the Oregon theater at eleven o'clock on the morning of July 18. This will be entirely free and is arranged in connection with the Sheridan Festival which is signalized by a revival of "The Rivals." The Sheridan revival is undertaken in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the original production of "The Rivals" by Richard Brinsley Sheridan.

Associated with Prof. Brander Matthews in the department of dramatic literature at Columbia university Mr. Hamilton became known some twenty years ago as one of the ablest lecturers in his field. At different times he has been dramatic critic of The Forum, The Bookman, Everybody's, and Vogue. A broad and cultural foundation of interest in the classics of the eighteenth century is laid by Mr. Hamilton as a vital part of the program to honor Sheridan. He is an authority on the Sheridan period—on the life and manners of that artificial age of wigs, powder, patches, brocades, red heels and silver buckles. Because of his outstanding ability and knowledge of his subject the Salem University Women are particularly eager to interest men and women of the city and the district in his lecture a week from Saturday morning.

The only actable English drama written within almost 300 years since Shakespeare's death—to be exact, from 1616 to about 1890—and still remaining vital on the modern stage came from the quill pens of two Irishmen—Oliver Goldsmith and Richard Brinsley Sheridan. And out of the thousands of plays written and produced in those 300 years only three have possessed the vitality to survive along with Shakespeare's plays as favorites in any sense of the term; Sheridan's "The Rivals," "School for Scandal," and Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer."

The first historic triumph of Sheridan as a playwright occurred 150 years ago; and his laurels are enjoying a floral renewal in the sesquicentennial exercises sponsored by Mrs. Fiske and her associates.

Eczema

OH! The joy of a peaceful, restful night. What a wonderful "up and going" feeling follows such a night of undisturbed slumber.

Oh! What tortures—what agony—what despair—goes with the nights where eczema and other skin diseases hold power and drive away rest and peaceful slumber. For under the cover of darkness like crafty beings of the underworld these eruptions work their most serious havoc.

S.S.S. is the established conqueror of these annoying skin diseases. S.S.S. drives these ever disturbing elements from your system—elements that carry in their wake—lack of energy—undermining health! You may try in vain to get rid of them by using salves, lotions, washes, all to no purpose. You can't do it that way—the seat of the trouble lies deeper—impure blood trying to throw off poisons through the tender skin.

S.S.S. purifies the blood. It aids Nature in creating new red-blood-cells by the million! Blood-cells that send new rich blood coursing through your system. Red blood that drives away eczema—drives away pimples, blackheads, boils and rheumatism, too. An increase in red-blood-cells means added strength, added vitality and renewed vigor. Because the medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable, it may be taken with perfect safety. Start taking S.S.S. today and watch it rout that annoying, skin destroying, health undermining army that holds your system in its grasp! Learn again what it means to enjoy peaceful, restful nights of slumber.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Blindfolded!

Out of the horror and agony in her heart Mary sends to the girls and women of America this message—"Before you marry any man, know his family, his reputation, his antecedents, and do not take his word for it." Because she too easily believed a man who said "I love you" she underwent a terrible ordeal that no girl should be called upon to face.

MARY dreamed of love as all girls do and dreamed of the time when her Prince Charming would come.

That's how it happened that when Calvin Brower came into her life, breathing sweet promises, whispering tender endearments, her innocent heart was captivated, her head completely turned so that when he asked her if she would marry him she answered "Yes" although she hardly knew him.

Blindfolded she took the vital step that to every girl is the greatest event in all her life. Blindfolded she started with him upon that terrible "honeymoon" which in a few short weeks turned her from a carefree girl into a gray haired, sorrow stricken woman.

You will find her amazing true story in the August issue of True Story Magazine under the title "Know Your Husband." Told in her own words, every detail, incident, episode recounted just as it actually happened (except for the names which of necessity had to be disguised) "Know Your Husband" is different from any other story you ever read although many a sad-faced woman could tell a similar tale if she only had the moral courage to bare her heart as Mary now bares hers for the first time.

Read her story as told by herself so that you too may know life as she learned it and be glad that you do not have to pay for the knowledge as she had to pay.

"I thought I loved him! Tell me, you who laugh in faint derision at this simple statement—tell me, have you always been able to distinguish dross from pure gold? Must a girl's mistakes always be submitted to the arbitrament of merciless justice? I thought I loved him!"

—From "Know Your Husband" in True Story for August

"The Difference in Men"

When Mary got her first job as a stenographer, she thought all men were gallant—and she regarded her handsome boss as a kind of god. Hypnotized by his personality, she saw no wrong in going with him to cabarets, shows, dances and on long country drives. Read what happened. A thrilling true-life narrative.

"The Test of a Woman"

If another woman were in love with your husband, would you want to know it—and do you think your husband could have real affection for someone else—and yet remain absolutely true to you. One of the most absorbing stories we ever printed is this one told by a young wife and revealing one of the most difficult situations a woman was ever called on to face. Don't miss it!
