Homer Smith Garden Open Tomorrow

The Salem Garden club will be hostess tomorrow afternoon and evening to all the flower lovers of Salem at the Homer Smith gardens at 675 north Summer street. This will be the third time this year that the Garden club has secured for the public the privilege of viewing some of Salem's loveliest gardens.

In their garden Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith have secured an exceptionally fine collection of perennials. Especially attractive at this time are the monthbells and the Elizabeth Campbell phlox. They also have a number of beautiful hydrangea plants.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Smith and the members of the club Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. George G. Brown and Mrs. E. N. Gillingham will assist about the garden during the afternoon. A tea table will be laid in the pergola between the Smith and William McGilchrist, Jr., gardens. Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. Orris Fry and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., will preside from two to four o'clock. From four to six Mrs. F. M. Poorman, Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. Frank Myers will pour. Hostesses in the evening will be Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Miss Edith Hazard.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley and the Livesley children are at their summer home at Agate beach. Mrs. Livesley will return to Salem next Thursday to remain for a short time.

Mrs. George J. Pearce and her two daughters, Miss Helen and Miss Dorothy, are together at Cambridge, Massachusetts, according to word received by Salem relatives very recently. Miss Pearce joined them only last week in Cambridge after studying piano in New York for nearly two months. Miss Helen is attending Harvard university summer school. They had as their house guest last week end Dean Frances Richards of Willamette university who is enrolled at Columbia university in New York city during the summer session.

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Stevens returned Tuesday evening from Steevecote, their summer home at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport left yesterday for a motor trip to the Puget Sound country.

The women's society of the First Baptist church will have its regular bi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Willis at Hayesville next Friday afternoon. The program will open at four o'clock with reports from the northern Baptist convention held in Seattle recently. Mrs. Harry Harne and Mrs. Elma McAllister will give several duets and Mrs. Harne will sing a solo. The men of the church will join the group at six thirty for a picnic supper. All members of the church are invited. Cars will leave the church at 3:15 and 3:30 tomorrow afternoon.

The missionary society of the First Christian church and the Loyal Women's club will hold the closing meeting of the year in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon. The following officers will be installed at this time: Mrs. Ralph Cooley, president; Mrs. J. C. Perry, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Welch, secretary; Mrs. C. F. Helly, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Wood, literary secretary; and Mrs. C. F. Doane, librarian.

Hostesses at tomorrow's meeting will be Mrs. D. B. Simpson, Mrs. Stella Gabbert and Mrs. A. E. Wood. An interesting program has been arranged including several musical numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, Dr. and Mrs. Corydon Bloodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Utley and their homes guest, Mrs. Peter Norbeck of South Dakota, motored to Government camp at the base of Mt. Hood during the past week end. Mrs. Norbeck left on Monday for Washington, D. C. to join Senator Norbeck, senior U. S. senator from South Dakota.

Miss Ethel Wyckoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wyckoff became the bride of Leo Gronke, son of Mrs. Lena Gronke of Hayesville, at a beautiful ceremony performed at the Wyckoff home last Sunday afternoon. Rev. R. L.

Putnam officiated. The single ring service was used.

A color plan of pink and blue was carried out in the living room where the bridal party assembled. Ferns, tall baskets of deep blue larkspur and pink hollyhocks and pink gladioli with palms for a background were banked in altar shape at one end of the room.

Miss Dorris Allen played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. Following the ceremony Eugene Canning of Albany, sang "All For You." Mrs. Dwight Mercer of Lyons, accompanied him.

The bride wore a lovely frock of pale green satin back crepe made with touch of old lace. She carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and sweet peas. She also carried a tiny point lace handkerchief which was made by her mother more than forty years ago. The maid of honor, Miss Marcella Caspell, wore Canton crepe of the same color as the bride's frock. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Little Elsie Kout, in a little ruffled frock, was a dainty flower girl. Otto Gronke acted as best man for his brother.

A reception followed the ceremony and afterward the young couple left for a trip north. They will make their home at 365 south Seventeenth street after July 15.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gronke are well known among the younger people of Salem. Mrs. Gronke has been employed in the secretary of state's office for several years and Mr. Gronke is connected with Braithaupt.

The lawn at the C. P. Bishop home on Court street will be the scene of a pleasant affair tomorrow when the missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet there. Mrs. D. A. Hodges and Mrs. J. F. Blair will assist Mrs. Bishop.

The program hour will include a patriotic address by Judge George J. Brown and several musical numbers.

All members of the First Congregational church will be guests at a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller on south High street tomorrow evening with the women of the church the hostesses. A meeting of the missionary society will precede the picnic dinner which will be served at six o'clock.

Past Matrons will be hostesses at a picnic at Graber's park tomorrow afternoon with past patrons, and husbands of former matrons the guests. A picnic dinner will be served at 6:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen are motoring through Hood River valley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey of Forest Grove were the guests for several days recently of their daughter, Mrs. W. D. Clarke.

Mrs. Macon Bishop is spending the week in Roseburg where she is the house guest of her brother, Rupert Davidson.

Mrs. Ida M. Babcock returned early in the week from a fortnight's visit in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Maulding.

The United Artisans will hold a picnic at Spang's Landing this evening. All Artisans are asked to bring lunch and utensils for themselves, their families and friends. A pot luck lunch will be served, with hot coffee furnished. All are asked to meet at McCornack hall at six o'clock and cars will leave from there.

The Three Link club will hold its annual picnic in the camp grounds at the state fair grounds tomorrow afternoon and evening. A picnic dinner will be served at six thirty. All Rebekahs will be welcomed. Each will bring her own lunch basket.

In charge of the affair are Mrs. Evelyn Bremmer, Mrs. Edith McElroy, Mrs. Elsie Townsend, Mrs. Blanche Saunders, Mrs. Elijiah Fleener and Mrs. Madeline Nash.

Miss Pearl Jones of San Francisco, is the house guest for several weeks of her aunt, Miss Alta Jones.

WOMEN BORN 1873 TO 1881

Now Is the Critical Time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Help You Safely Through

Conroy, Ohio. "During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisement I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' And she took three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish." — Mrs. ELISIE ACKERMAN, Conroy, Ohio.

Consider carefully Mrs. Ackerman's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She tells of the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Golf Holds Interest of Matrons

Salem matrons continue to maintain their enthusiasm in golf despite the summer heat. The innovation of "ladies day" on Monday of each week has become most popular among the enthusiasts of the game, and on that day even those who do not play make it a point to motor out to the clubhouse for several hours of bridge or Mah Jongg.

Yesterday a number of matches were played off early in the morning. Mrs. John Farrar defeated Mrs. Paul Hendricks in the "besten eight" flight. A putting contest was held on the ninth green late in the morning and after lunch. In the beginner's division Miss Alta Jones was winner while in the experienced player's group Mrs. Edwin L. Baker made the best score.

Among those who played in the morning and those who came for the afternoon were Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Ed Gillingham, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Miss Alta Jones, Miss Pearl Jones of San Francisco, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. John Farrar and Mrs. Paul Hendricks.

In the state tournament which will be played off at the Rustala country club next week the Illabebe club will be represented by Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Ed Gillingham and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker. They will leave Salem on Sunday and will enter the qualifying rounds on Monday. The tournament will last all week. Mrs. John Caughill will go down with Mrs. Baker and they will be the house guests of Miss Nean West for the week. Mrs. Olinger and Mrs. Gillingham will be Mrs. Ralph Watson's house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page returned yesterday from the middle west. They spent five weeks with relatives and friends in Michigan, Iowa and Minnesota and returned home by way of the Canadian national railway. They also attended the Kiwanis national convention in St. Paul several weeks ago.

Friends of Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page will be happy to hear that she is recovering from her recent illness. She was able to be in her office today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. J. A. Baker spent several days recently at the former's summer home at Seal Rock.

The Salem Garden club will give its July garden at home in the gardens at the Homer Smith home Friday afternoon beginning at two o'clock.

AVALANCHE IS FILM FEATURE

It is seldom, even in pictures where one sees a gigantic avalanche come sweeping down a mountain, thousands of tons of snow and ice, boulders, earth, etc., and smashing in log cabins and sweeping down huge pine trees like they were toothpicks.

In Norman Dawn's genuine Alaskan drama, made on the Yukon river and called "Lure of the Yukon," such a sight may be seen while the spectacle is thrilling and awe-inspiring and a rare and wonderful sight to behold—few people realize the great effort in time and patience required to get the result.

In the first place, the cabins to be destroyed had to be built, as no one would allow his cabin to be smashed up just to amuse an audience. This item cost considerable money.

While on top of the cliff, huge amounts of ice and snow were gathered and set off with several thousand dollars worth of dynamite.
