Week Is Quiet One In Society

"Calm—a cessation or absence of that which causes motion, agitation or disturbance" says Noah Webster. The word might well have been designed as a description of the state of Salem society during the past week.

Beach and mountain homes are occupied and quiet house parties there are the rule. Salem was practically deserted last week end and Salemites observed Independence day in a variety of places within a radius of several hundred miles.

Early in the week before the coming of the oppressive heat the country club was popular both in the morning and in the afternoon. One of the loveliest weddings of the year was the garden wedding of Miss Mabel Marcus and Earl R. Cooley of McArthur, Cal., in the Marcus garden at their country home on Wednesday.

Outstanding among the events of the coming week will be undoubtedly the ten table bridge party at which Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer will be hosts in their home on Monday evening. The event will celebrate their third wedding anniversary.

Dr. L. F. Griffith and his daughter, Miss Ruth Griffith, motored to Neokwin yesterday. Miss Griffith will remain for a number of days as the house guest of Mrs. Prince Byrd with her children. She is domiciled in their summer home for several months.

Mrs. F. P. Talkington and Miss Cora Talkington will arrive home tomorrow after a visit of five weeks in San Francisco with Mrs. Talkington's brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Sulder.

Several friends and neighbors of Mrs. Anna Underwood surprised her at her home on Front street on Monday afternoon to honor her eightieth birthday anniversary which was an event of July 5. A delightful social hour was followed by the serving of refreshments. A special feature was the cutting of the birthday cake by the honor guest. The big cake was frosted in white, decorated in pink roses and bore the inscription "Happy Birthdays" and "Eighty Years."

In the group were Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Stella McEneaney, Mrs. St. Clair, Mrs. I. T. Moore, Mrs. Henry Hendrickson, Mrs. J. Davis, Mrs. George O'Neil, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Flehborn and Mrs. Ida Keene.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller on south High street was the scene of a pleasant gathering in the afternoon yesterday and last night when members of the First Congregational church gathered for their annual picnic.

Thirty members of the missionary society met in the afternoon and covers were laid for 160 at the picnic dinner served at 6:15. The girls of Mrs. M. McCallister's Sunday school class served. Assisting Mrs. Miller as hostesses were Mrs. E. L. Donnell, Mrs. H. W. Broes, Mrs. Vera Shattuck, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. Robert Fleming and Mrs. Mark McCallister.

William McGilchrist, Sr. acted as toastmaster and called for responses from Dr. Kantner, Rev. Charice Ward and Dan J. Fry, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Miss Kitty Graver and Miss Priscilla Fry have returned from a month's trip into the interior of Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson (Mildred Apperson) are spending several weeks at the Apperson summer home at Neokwin. They will come to Salem for a visit with Mr. Robertson's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, within a week or ten days.

Mrs. George William Gray of Long Beach, California, and her two daughters Prudence and Georgiana, are spending the summer months with Mr. Gray's mother, Mrs. Charles A. Gray, at her home in Independence. Mrs. Gray (Claire Jones) is the daughter of N. L. Jones of Brooks, and spent her girlhood days in Salem. She has many intimate friends among the younger matrons of Salem. She will be the inspiration of a number of informal affairs during the coming weeks. Last week Mrs. Gray attended the Jones family reunion at Brooks.

Robert Bishop has returned from Portland where he spent the past month and will make his home with his grandmother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielsen, for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. A. Caldwell entertained the Needlecraft club in her home on Tuesday afternoon. The living rooms were attractively decorated with sweet peas and roses. Tea was served at five o'clock.

Heiress to Wed

Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, heiress to one of the greater fortunes in the country and member of one of the best known families in the world, will be married July 25 to Frederick Cameron Church, Jr., of Boston, Mass. The wedding in the Vanderbilt mansion in New York will be held with pomp and ceremony not common in this generation.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. C. Clark and Miss Clara LaMoine Clark motored to the chauntiqua at Gladstone park today to attend the meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs in their new headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills will spend the week end with Mr. Mills' family at Springbrook near Newberg. A special guest at the Mills home at this time is Mr. Mills' sister whose home is in Washington.

Mrs. Alice Nuttall has as her guest for several days this week her brother, Dr. H. S. Doolin of Somerset, Kentucky. Dr. Doolin was with a group of friends who were touring the west. They enjoyed a trip to the beach and deep sea fishing trip before starting south. Just twenty-five years ago Dr. Doolin visited his sister here. He came west by way of Yellowstone national park, Idaho and the Columbia highway. They will return by way of Salt Lake city.

Miss Mary Findley left this week for Geneva, Glenn, west of Denver, Colorado, to attend one of the international schools of religious education which will be in session throughout the summer. Other schools are at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, and at one of the lakes in New Hampshire. Only assistant pastors and trained religious workers are eligible for entrance to one of these schools. Miss Findley will remain for two weeks and will return for the Epworth league convention at Falls City.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding plans to return next week to the Spaulding summer home at Agate beach after spending the past week in town. Mrs. Lewis Griffith and her young daughter will spend August at Newport.

Golden Wedding Celebrated

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Phillips was celebrated by a two day celebration and family reunion at the home of one of their sons, Don Phillips, at Sanctuary Lake, Washington, last week end. Beginning on Saturday, July 4, and until Sunday evening members of the Phillips family gathered to honor them. A "wedding" dinner was served at noon Saturday, and the younger members of the group enjoyed swimming and boating on the lake.

Since their marriage fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have lived on their farm east of Sublimity. Seventy three of the seventy eight years of Mr. Phillips' life have been spent in the Sublimity district. With his parents he crossed the plains from Missouri at the age of five years. Mrs. Phillips is 68 years of age. Ten of their eleven children were present at the reunion last week end.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips and children, Marian, Jan, Georgia of Cooke, Washington; Cora E. Phillips of Prescott, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper W. Miss Julia K. Webster, president of the Salem club of business and professional women, left this morning to attend the first meeting of the recently elected state executive council of the Oregon federation of business and professional women which will be held this afternoon in the Portland club rooms on the third floor of the Oregon building.

Members of last year's council as well as the new members will meet jointly to hear reports of last year's activities and to decide whether the next state convention shall be in Astoria or Roseburg. Miss Louise Hacker, Oregon federation president, will also announce the personnel of the standing committees for the year. The revised constitution will also be presented.

The Salem club will be represented at today's meeting by Miss Webster only. Dr. Mary B. Purvine member of last year's executive council, and Mrs. Lattie Ross, Salem representative at large, are in the east to attend the national convention of the federation which will be in session in Portland, Maine, next week.

Miss Pearl E. Griffith and Lewis H. Bittner, both of Salem, were married in Portland last Saturday at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Frank Brown. The ceremony took place in the living room beneath an arch of roses and ferns with Rev. Skaggs officiating.

The bride wore cream colored satin made with pearls with a full length veil fastened with rose-quet. She carried a shower bouquet. The only attendants were Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Malaga. Mr. and Mrs. Bittner will be at home in Portland after July 21.

Miss B. F. Tobin Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"For six or seven months I was tormented with a troublesome irritation of the skin, especially on my face, and a few large pimples broke out, mostly on my chin. The pimples used to swell up to a large, red lump, which itched and was painful. I was embarrassed as my face, besides the pain, looked and felt out of proportion. I tried different remedies with no marked change. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in three or four days I could see an improvement. I continued the treatment and in three weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Bernice F. Tobin, 950 Sunbury Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., Apr. 13, 1925. Make Cuticura Soap and Ointment your every-day toilet preparations and have a clear, sweet skin, soft, smooth hands and a healthy scalp with good hair. SENATORS PLAY WEST LYNN NINE HERE TOMORROW

Tomorrow afternoon the Salem Senators are scheduled to meet the West Lynn nine on the Oxford park diamond. The game promises to be a fast hard fought contest as the visitors have a strong aggregation and are coming down to get the best of the locals. The Senators have won over them twice before this season but neither of the scores were large.

The locals lead was diminished to a great extent by their loss last Sunday but they are determined to get in and play ball this week and hold on to their top position. The Senators must win all of the rest of their games if they expect to have much chance, if the Portland club of the Pacific coast league is able to get Kallio it would make a big difference.

Bill Ashby will start on the mound for the Senators. Ashby has been going good lately although he has before the end of the game. The game tomorrow will start at 2:00.

Tomorrow afternoon the Oregon state prison baseball team will cross bats with the strong Wentworth Irwin team of Portland on the prison diamond. The game promises to be hard fought as the visitors have a strong team and are coming in hopes of taking the prisoners into camp. With Foster on the mound for the prisoners it will be one of the best games of the season if there is anything to do with it. The prisoners have a strong team also and the game ought to be a thriller.

The United States Bankers nine and the Knights of Columbus were victors in the two twilight league games played last night. The bankers won by a score of 6 to 2 over the Grotto and the Casey were winners over the ONG by a score of 6 to 1. The ONG-Knights game was a scoreless game.

Both games were hard fought but no exceptional fielding or hitting marked the game. Next Wednesday, the Casey are scheduled to meet the Bankers nine in what is expected to be one of the best games of the season as those teams are in second and third places.

Mill City Or., July 11.—Baseball fans of Mill City will get to see their home team in action here for the first time this season Sunday when they meet Turner on the local grounds.
