Head of War Mothers to Be Honored

Mrs. Marguerite N. McCluer of Kansas City, national head of the American War Mothers, arrived in Portland this morning from Denver for an official visit of the chapters of War Mothers in Oregon. Later in the week Mrs. McCluer will come to Salem. Plans are being discussed by the local officers for her entertainment and it is more than probable that Albany War Mothers will join the local group in her entertainment here.

A number of Salem War Mothers will motor to Portland this evening to attend the reception which will be given there in her honor.

The Salem chapter of War Mothers was the first one to be formed in the west. This is Mrs. McCluer's first visit to Oregon but she is well known to the local group through the official publication of the organization "The American War Mother."

The reception for Mrs. McCluer will be given at the headquarters of the Veterans' Sabre club in the new auto bus terminal building at Fifth and Salmon streets at eight o'clock tonight.

The committee in charge of the reception include Mayor Baker, City Commissioner Tatt and Phengley, George W. Joseph, Elton Watkins, Circuit Judge Morrow, Mrs. Helen Lamond, Mrs. J. W. Fields, Mrs. Florence Garver, Mrs. John Eubanks, Mrs. Mary Harper, Mrs. Rettedeh Salceba, Miss Madeline Stone, Harvey G. Starkweather and Charles A. Townsend.
