Convention Lures Local Folk to City

Salem has been almost deserted this week. Fathers and mothers and sisters and brothers who were not at the beach or in the mountains—made Portland their objective. There they frolicked with the thousands of Elks from all parts of the nation and saw wonderful parades and listened to music by "forty eleven" bands. As a result the calm which enveloped society last week became even pronounced during the past seven days.

The week opened auspiciously, however, with a most delightful affair when Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer were hosts at a ten table bridge party in their home. The event celebrated their third wedding anniversary.

The privilege of entertaining a woman well known in forty eight states was accorded Salem this week when Mrs. Margaret McCluer, national war mother, spent a part of Wednesday and Thursday as the guest of the Salem chapter of War Mothers. A reception in Willson park, a luncheon at the Gray Belle on Thursday, and a motor tour to all the state institutions surrounding the city were among the affairs given for her.

Picnics, large and small, swimming parties, and informal matches at the country club continue to occupy Salem families. The matchless days, a bit warm perhaps at midday, but always delightfully cool in the evenings, are being enjoyed to the fullest.

Honoring Mrs. A. H. Hurley of Seattle, who is the guest for several weeks of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hurley, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson entertained informally at tea in her country home at Kola yesterday. A few of Mrs. Hurley's most intimate friends were bidden to the affair.

Mrs. H. H. Ollinger, Mrs. E. L. Baker and Mrs. Ed Gillingham will return tomorrow from a week at the state golf tournament on the Tualatin country club course. They represented the Illahee club in the tournament. In the qualifying rounds Mrs. Edwin L. Baker turned in a score which put her in the championship flight. Mrs. Ollinger was in the third flight, and Mrs. Gillingham in the fifth. Mrs. Baker remained in the tournament until Thursday.

Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley came in during the week from their summer homes at Agate Beach and spent a short time in Salem before going on to Portland for the Elks' convention. They will return to the coast for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. Kitty Graver and Miss Priscilla Fry will leave next week for their summer home at Neekowin where they will spend a month. Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Eugene, and her children are there this week.

Mrs. Martin Ferebethian who is spending several months with relatives in the east will return to her Salem home about August first. On her return she will visit in Kent, Ohio, and Colorado Springs, Colorado, where Mrs. Ferebethian formerly served as Unitarian minister. Mrs. Ferebethian has been singing in the Stone Methodist, the Union churches in Meadville, Pennsylvania, and in one of the Christian Science churches in Pittsburgh. She was also one of the soloists at the grand lodge rites of the Order of the Eastern Star in Erie, Pennsylvania, recently.

The Sacajawea camp fire girls met Tuesday evening at the home of their guardian, Mrs. R. M. T. Hester. A picnic supper and watermelon feed was enjoyed in the back yard, after which the monthly ceremonial meeting was held. At this meeting the rank of wood gatherer was conferred upon Thelma Davis, Elizabeth Clement and Edith Clement, they having completed in a most satisfactory manner the work required for the rank. Guests at the council fire were Miss Helen Davis and Miss Florence Brown.

The Sacajawea camp has the following members: Helen Barrett, Elizabeth Clement, Edith Clement, Thelma Davis, Vivian Clement, Wilda Plesner, Doris Godsey, Frances Laws, Marjorie Lenz, Mildred Mulkey and Grace Rhodes. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Lainsen were hosts at a delightful picnic on the lawn surrounding their home on Fairmount avenue on Thursday. A special guest was Mrs. S. L. Spurrier of Pasadena, California. Mr. Lainsen's aunt, Mrs. C. L. King, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Flora Holley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lainsen and the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lainsen. A picnic dinner was served at six.

Betrothal Announced At Dinner

The engagement of Miss Gladys Battelle to Harold Farrington was very cleverly announced at the country house of Mrs. Leonard Farrington in Salem Heights at the hour of six thirty o'clock on Wednesday evening at a four course dinner. The secret was given away by tiny slips of pink paper with the name of the betrothed hidden in dainty fruit drop baskets filled with fruit drop flowers.

The rooms of the Farrington home were attractively decorated with pink and white crepe streamers, pink and white sweet peas and cosmos with ivy and ferns twined among the flowers.

In the evening the bride elect was showered with handkerchiefs. Music and games were also enjoyed.

In the group were Miss Gladys Battelle, bride-elect, Misses Alberta St. Clair, Vera Battelle, Caroline Clemens, Ruth Swafford, Margaret St. Clair, Neva Stolchese, Mrs. Hobert Smith, the hostess Mrs. Leonard Farrington and Mrs. Harry Rayburn who assisted her.

LOS ANGELES CHINESE THEATER AMERICANIZED

Los Angeles—A revolution in the presentation of Oriental dramas as by the invasion of western customs has been noted at a Chinese theater here. An American jazz orchestra has replaced an aggregation of native stringed instruments and Chinese girls are chosen to play feminine roles in preference to male impersonators.

The little theater on the fringe of Chinatown offers a further innovation prompted by western influence by the installation of real scenery, backdrops and wings, to relieve the strain on the Americanized Oriental's imagination, formerly occasioned by the lack of "atmosphere."

MADE A NEW WOMAN OF HER

That is What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Jenkins

Middleport, Ohio. — "I am going through the Change of Life and I am taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the troubles that come at that time. I got so run-down I could scarcely do my work and I keep a rooming house and have a family of eight to take care of. A friend told me about the Vegetable Compound and it has made a new woman of me. I keep it in the house all the time now and won't be without it. My weight got down to 90 pounds and now it is 124 pounds. I give the Vegetable Compound the praise and hope that women will realize the good in it." — Mrs. MYRA JENKINS, 533 North Front Street, Middleport, Ohio.

Over 200,000 women have so far replied to this question, "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 88 out of every 100 of the replies say "Yes," and because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women it should help you. For sale by druggists everywhere.
