Tortured for years by varicose veins Trouble entirely healed by Resinol

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22:—"I had suffered from varicose veins for 2 1/2 years and had doctored continuously without results as I could not keep off my feet. The pain was so great that I could not sleep and I cried at night until I was completely exhausted. My hair was turning gray and I thought I would lose my mind. Last summer my son had a sore on his chin and Resinol healed it, so I decided to try it myself. In little less than a week I obtained relief and in six months time the trouble was entirely healed. I cannot tell you how thankful I am—I am the happiest woman in the world and I owe it all to Resinol." (Signed) Mrs. Gussie Newman, 2424 Orchard St.

"Vindicated"

WILDA BENNETT

Wilda Bennett, famous musical comedy actress, announced that she had been "completely vindicated" when she was informed that Mrs. Harriet M. Frey had dropped the $100,000 alienation suit she brought against the stage favorite and had returned to her Louisville, Ky., home, to contend herself with suing her husband, Charles Conrad Frey, son of the noted horseman, for divorce. Attorney, however, later said that Mrs. Bennett had been too optimistic, and that the suit was technically not dropped, but "postponed."

Why Was She So Awkward?

Upsetting the glass of water was but one of a series of embarrassing mishaps that convinced Mrs. Brown that something was wrong. Things simply were not where they seemed to be. Her eye specialist showed Mrs. Brown that her biconvex lenses contained a treacherous doubling and displacement of objects, and that it was her lenses that had caused the trouble.
