Bill Stanton of Roundup, Montana, wrote the Salem chamber of commerce about ten days ago for some information about the Willamette valley. He was sent the booklet "Come to Oregon" and given full information about Salem and vicinity.

He was so impressed that he at once headed for Salem and is here now looking for a farm. Mr. Stanton says he has six children and he feels this is the right kind of country for them.

W. T. Rafferty of Watertown, R. D., corresponded with the Salem chamber of commerce. He was also given complete information about Salem and sent the booklet "Come to Oregon."

Mr. Rafferty arrived in Salem about a week ago, saying he wanted to see the whole Willamette valley before deciding where to live.

PRISONERS WIN 12 OF 21 GAMES

The prison baseball nine has had a very successful season so far considering the time they have had to practice and keep in shape, according to figures compiled up-to-date. The convicts have played a total of 21 games, winning 12 and losing 9. Several of the games were lost in the early part of the season before they were in the best of shape. The prisoners have played several of the best teams available. They have played two 12-inning contests so far this year—one of them with the Willamette university and the other with the Assumption church nine of Portland.

The results of the games so far played this season follows:

Chemawa 15, O. S. P. 12; Salem All-Stars 9, O. S. P. 7; Waterfront Employees 4, O. S. P. 1; Willamette University 5, O. S. P. 6; 12 innings; Redland, Or., 1, O. S. P. 2; Sellwood Athletic club 19, O. S. P. 2; Mt. Angel college 14, O. S. P. 12; Robinson Co. 3, O. S. P. 13; Salem Wolves 13, O. S. P. 7; West Oregon Lumber Co. 8, O. S. P. 10; Woodlawn Athletic club 7, O. S. P. 8; East Side Mill 14, O. S. P. 4; American Legion of Salem 2, O. S. P. 7; Salem Wolves 3, O. S. P. 6; Albina S. O. S. P. 7; Stafford 2, O. S. P. 5; Salem Senators 5, O. S. P. 3; Silverton 6, O. S. P. 10; Assumption church of Portland 6, O. S. P. 7; 12 innings; Wentworth Irwin 5, O. S. P. 9; North Portland Athletic club 3, O. S. P. 10.

Winning 12 out of the 21 games thus far played gives the prisoners a percentage of .600. Six more games remain on the schedule for the convicts and they are expecting to end the season well above the 1500 mark. Three players—Hendricka, Johnson and Wilson—are holding 1000 per cent.

CREWS IS CONGRATULATED

Representatives of the securities commissioners of the 11 western states who were in session here Monday and Tuesday before adjourning yesterday noon congratulated W. E. Crews, Oregon corporation commissioner, on the fact that Oregon is freer of questionable securities than any other state in the union.

Determination was expressed during the session to rid the west of the high-powered salesman of fraudulent or questionable securities.

While several leading officials were unable to attend the session, most of them had representatives here.

The place for the 1925 convention is held in abeyance, but there is a movement to have it in Arizona.

SPECIAL TAXES DUE ON JULY 31

Portland, Or., July 22.—Corporations operating in this state are reminded by Clyde G. Huntley, collector of internal revenue, that they must file their capital stock tax returns and pay any tax due the government not later than Friday, July 31, in order to escape penalties for delinquency.

"The capital stock tax differs from the corporation income tax," explained Collector Huntley, "in that it is a tax for the privilege of doing business, and covers the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, which must be paid in advance. Under the new regulations, an extension in time for filing these returns and paying the tax can be obtained only in case of sickness or unavoidable absence from the state."

Collector Huntley also announces that July 31 is the last day special taxes for the ensuing fiscal year may be paid and escape a penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due by the following classes of taxpayers: Proprietors of billiard and pool halls and bowling alleys; autos for hire, brokers, including custom house, ship and pawnbrokers, cigar manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers in oleomargarine, and

What is the "Check" Seal?

- When you build or buy a home you want to know that the electrical installation is made by an electrical contractor who does complete electrical wiring, installs convenient connections for electrical appliances and uses standard wiring devices.
- When you need electrical appliances, you want to select an electrical retailer who sells quality electrical merchandise.

The "Check" Seal identifies such contractors and retailers for you. Before you build or buy, insist on "Check" Seal electrical wiring. When you need electrical appliances or equipment buy where you see the "Check" Seal.
