Writers Entertain Tuesday

Mrs. Blanche M. Jones entertained the writers' section of the Salem Art League at her home on South Cherry street Tuesday evening. Japanese lanterns of various hues were strung through the beautiful enclosed terraced garden to the creek bank, making a lovely setting for the meeting. An elaborate picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock at which the members of the section and their families were guests. Charles J. Lisle acted as chairman of the meeting in the absence of the club leader, Grace Elizabeth Smith, who is in Portland, Maine. Mr. Lisle read written greetings to the members from Miss Smith, and also several articles from eastern newspapers which featured the Salem woman and her interesting work. An article appearing in last week's Boston Globe was unusually interesting.

Mr. Lisle's contribution to the evening's program was a short story, "Bonanza's Last Battle." Gertrude Robinson Rosa read two poems, "A Scarlet Feather" and "You Need Not Love Me, Dear, When I am Dead," a sonnet.

Ruth Fargo gave a talk about two books, commenting upon "The Skyrocket," a tale of Hollywood by Mrs. St. John, and "Lazarus," a lovely translation from the French by Eric Sutton. Mrs. F. S. Barton gave a quatrain, "Release." Interesting additions to the program were Professor "G. Franklin's two short articles, "Defense Day" or as he called it "Do the People Want a Goose Stop Pay" and "Bryan and the Bible." A short story, "Experience with Chickens" was read by Mrs. Jones. She also read an article entitled, "Legal Punishment."

FORMER GERMAN CONSUL IS HELD AS EMBEZZLER

Portland, July 23—(AP)—Clement J. Pape, former German vice consul here and resident manager of the Shanghai building company, who was arrested Tuesday at Grants Pass charged with embezzlement of between $60,000 and $70,000 from the company, declared when brought here today, that he had been made a scapegoat.

"This is the result of blackmail, intimidation and malicious persecution," he said at the county jail, where he is held in lieu of $50,000 bail. Pape was found by officers working as a laborer in a rock quarry near Grants Pass. He said shortage of funds had forced him to take that employment as a means of livelihood.

He said his trouble resulted from an attempt to cover up unfortunate speculations by an officer of the company, who he said is a wealthy resident of Shanghai. Pape declared that several times he had been promised immunity if he would agree to admit that he had stolen the money that the company is short.

Pape denied charges that he had been extravagant and had squandered money on a woman.

WANTS PART OF MONEY FOUND IN DEAD LETTERS

Washington, July 23—(AP)—A resident of Tomahawk, Wis., has written Postmaster General New as follows:

"I read in the newspapers that thousands of dollars are found in the dead letters. I'm just thinking as the owners of a large sum are unknown, I trust that it is God's will that I could have a small part of this—only 60 or 70 thousand dollars. I surely thank you unpeakable for the kind favor by sending me a bank draft within 10 days. May the dear Lord bless us more and more at all times."

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Mrs. Miles Was Miserable a Long Time—Owes Final Recovery to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dover, Ohio.—"After my last baby was born I was up and around again, but I was sickly all the time and did not know how to get my work done. I had washed a heavy carpet and I think that was the cause of my troubles. I went to several doctors, but their medicines did not do me any good. I asked what the trouble was, for I could hardly walk and always had such pains in my left side and then in my right side. He told me I had inflammation that caused it. I had one of your text-books and was reading it and I thought I would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After four days of taking it I began to feel better, so I took three bottles without missing a dose. That helped me more than any other medicine I had yet taken and I always have it handy now. It surely did put me on my feet again."—Mrs. JAMES MILES, 419 Cherry Street, Dover, Ohio.

Never Another Failure—never a re-cooking

One minute's boiling is all your Jam or Jelly needs

NO longer a trying task! Just add Certo to the fruit when you make your jam or jelly, and every glass jells perfectly every time.

For Certo is the element that makes fruit jell—taken from the fruits themselves that are rich in it. Some fruits lack this jelling property; it grows less in all fruits as they ripen. But with Certo no fruit can fail to jell.

And it needs only one minute's boiling. Certo's short boil saves the fruit juice, saves the flavor and color that you lost in the old long boiling down. You make half again as much jam or jelly from your fruit—and it is lovelier, more delicious than ever. Order Certo today from your grocer. Douglas-Pectin Corp., Granite Bldg., Rochester, N. Y.

Just boil your fruit hard for one minute and add Certo!
