PLANS ARE LAID FOR COMMUNITY FAIR THIS FALL

Silverton, Or., July 24.—Preliminary plans for a community fair such as was held last year were discussed at a meeting held in the Silverton chamber of commerce rooms last night. The meeting was called originally for the purpose of learning if a fair was desired by the people of the city and surrounding country. As the sentiment was favorable a number of decisions were made. The general committee will be the same as last year. Charles Johnson will be chairman. He will be assisted by George Hubbs, real estate dealer, and by Ernest Starr, who will be secretary of the fair.

Dates of the fair will be September 10, 11, 12. Premium lists and other information concerning the fair will be available about the middle of next week. Much interest was shown in the fair of

BOY KILLED IN LOGGING CAMP

Silverton, Or., July 24.—Verle Henry Hay died at the Silver Falls Timber company camp Wednesday noon as a result of his left chest being crushed by the logging machine. The young man had been employed at the camp but a short time, about ten days. He had been laid up for several weeks because of a bad cold. He was born at Silverton on July 30, 1908.

Funeral services will be held from the Silverton undertaking parlors this afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. J. A. Bennett officiating. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hay, four sisters and four brothers survive. Interment will be in the Silverton cemetery.

POLK PREPARES FINE EXHIBITS FOR STATE FAIR

Dallas, July 24.—Unless some cow, bronco or wandering milk goat rids the Dallas chamber of commerce rooms Polk county stands ready to again take the state fair banner on county exhibit. Mrs. Winnie Braden, secretary, who has a number of state fair honors to her credit, has been busy since late spring gathering together materials and has transformed the club rooms into a veritable haymow and granary combined.

Grains, grasses, flax and forage, everything in fact that grows here will be shown and selected and are now being assembled and stored away until time to begin preparing the Polk county booth at the fair. These will be used as the back ground and decorations with other exhibits to be selected at the Polk county

MACABEN HELD FOR AUTO CRASH

Dallas, Or., July 24.—A. Mackabeen, driver of the automobile in which three persons were seriously injured July 16 at Derry station in a collision with a freight train, was arrested Thursday in Salem on a Polk county warrant charging reckless driving and other violations of the motor vehicle law. Mackabeen will appear before Justice of the Peace Coon on Saturday to plead.

The complaint was sworn out by Sheriff T. B. Hooker and prepared by District Attorney Helgeson. Mackabeen was not taken into custody but his attorney agreed to produce him whenever wanted.

SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., July 24.—Trinity church Dorcas society met at the Carl Benson home Tuesday night with an average number of members in attendance. Preceding the usual routine business two interesting talks were given by Rev. and Mrs. George Henriksen. Rev. Henriksen spoke of the Women's Missionary Federation convention at Minneapolis in June and Rev. Henriksen talked on the evolution trial at Dayton. The society was entertained by Miss Marie Tingstad. Mrs. Adolph Haugen and Mrs. Carl Benson.

The A. O. Nelson home on Oak street is under quarantine for diphtheria. Ruth, the youngest child, has been having a sore throat for some time and it was learned last night that she had diphtheria. She is not very sick at present. It is probable that other cases will develop as there have been a number of cases in and near Silverton recently.

A large piece of glass with which Will Hubbs was working Wednesday slipped and cut two fingers of one hand so badly that stitches in each finger were necessary to close the cuts. Mr. Hubbs has long handled glass in his work at the Hubbs planing mill but says it is the first time he has had an accident in several years. The glass was very heavy being five feet square and intended for a store window. The injury, though painful, is not considered serious. Word was received Thursday morning by Will Hubbs that an uncle to him, a Mr. Davis of the Dallas, was to be buried at the Dallas today.

While working in his barn Tuesday morning K. O. Rue was crowded against a wall by a horse with the result that his chest was injured. Although not definitely known it is believed that a bone was cracked as Mr. Rue has had more or less pain since the accident.
