SALEM—THE PLAYGROUND OF THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY

Salem's streets are wide and can never become sunless canyons, even in its tallest skyscraper days, like some of the big eastern cities. And good sunshine helps sanitation as well as comfort.

Tourists will find good hotels, good roads, excellent chances to camp and every convenience and comfort at Salem and vicinity. They will and can enjoy the finest cherries and other fruits they ever "eat" when here in season, and strawberries just naturally love this country and its people.

Salem is right on the Pacific highway, that extends from Canada near Vancouver all the way to Mexico—one of the most splendid as well as extended drives in the world. There is scenery along the way that can satisfy the most extravagant ambition and use up thousands of exclamation points—of large size!

Summer visitors from the east and south who desire solid comfort in hot weather, can be sure of real ease in this region. They can have almost any temperature they desire, either at the mountains or by the sea. They can enjoy themselves in the midst of stately scenery that alone is enough to provide inspiration and noble memories.
