

CHURCHES

JASON LEE MEMORIAL M. E.—Corner North Winter and Jefferson streets. Take the North Commercial street car to Jefferson street. Thos. Acheson, pastor; Leroy Walker, assistant, in charge of the junior church. The public is cordially invited to join with us in the following services. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. fully departmentalized and providing a place for every member of the family. We are very proud of the way the Sunday school attendance has been holding up during the summer. With your cooperation we may even see an increase over the winter months. Public worship in the main auditorium at 11 a. m. with the pastor in charge. The junior church, designed for ages 8-14 meets at the same hour down stairs under the direction of the junior pastor. All adults who are interested are invited down to see what the young people can do. At 7 p. m. the Wesley and Epworth leagues meet separately for their regular devotional meetings. These services are of the open forum type and afford interesting and profitable discussion of young people's problems. At 8 p. m. all assemble upstairs for the Sunday evening evangelistic and song service. This is the community service. Come and bring your neighbor. Our midweek service is on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. This devotional and study evening has a place for every member of the family. We hope no gaps will be found. During the strenuous days of the summer we all doubly need uplifting power of the church services. The public is always invited to worship at Jason Lee.

To be sure of the "film of protection"

—ask for Veedol by name

WHEN you buy motor oil, it is not enough to say "Eastern". That covers a multitude of oils. Only when you ask for Veedol by name are you sure of getting the 50 years of experience in refining, the tremendous resources, the infinite care and skill which make possible the Veedol "film of protection".

Hundreds of thousands of car owners throughout the world have learned to insist on Veedol by name. They have found that the Veedol "film of protection" safeguards their expensive motors from deadly heat and friction.

You, too, will find that it is true economy to pay slightly more for Veedol—and a whole lot less for motor repairs. And remember—it costs less than one cent a quart to bring Veedol to the Pacific Coast. You pay for quality when you buy Veedol.

Take care to get Veedol and Veedol will take care of your motor.

Stop at the next orange and black Veedol sign. They are everywhere. Have your crankcase drained and refilled with Veedol. Put the "film of protection" on the job conserving your power, cutting your repair bills, increasing your motor's efficiency.

A Superb Aristocrat in Appearance A Giant in Performance

This is the OVERLAND SIX, the car which has established a new conception of motor car value.

In beauty of line, in richness of appointments, in its attractive finish, it is a car to be proud of.

In performance it more than meets every requirement you may put upon it.

In traffic it has the quick foot of a sprinter—ready at the touch of the throttle to take you to the head of the line.

On hills it has the power of a giant, until at the end of the day you wonder how such inexhaustible power can be encompassed in an automobile.

Arrange now to take your demonstration in this new and entirely different car.
