CHECK MENACE OF CUT WORMS ON LAKE LABISH

The cut worm menace that was threatening some of the Lake Labish crops, is now reported under control. J. O. Hayes, Jr., states that on his place which is situated near the northeastern extremity of the lake, they were exceptionally numerous near a patch of flax from which they had devoured all the tender weeds. Coming out on to the onions they ate down several rows before their advance could be checked. This was done by digging a trench, in the bottom of which, poison food for them was placed. The ground was also sprayed with kerosene.

His theory to account for their unusual numbers this year is that their natural enemy, the reddish fly, having reduced the number of the worms from year to year by preying upon them, had not sufficient food for the young flies and have migrated for the time being to other fields, leaving this district unprotected. As each cut worm moth can lay approximately 700 eggs and are supposed to complete the cycle of larva to moth three times in a season, they increase with startling rapidity when no check is placed upon them. He predicts that the abundance of food will bring increasing numbers of the flies which will swing conditions again to normal.

MACKABEN PLEADS NOT GUILTY RECKLESS DRIVING

Dallas, Or., July 27.—A plea of not guilty was made Saturday by Mackaben of Salem when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Coad on a charge of reckless driving. A railroad board of inquiry report placed the blame on the driver. Mackaben's case will be set for trial as soon as the case against Austin Mathis of Corvallis on a similar charge is disposed of. The Mathis case comes up Tuesday.

NEW BUILDINGS TOTAL $131,300 FOR SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—Much is being done at Silverton in the building line at present. A number of new homes are under construction as well as garages and other small buildings. Among the larger structures are the Webb warehouse near the railroad bridge, the city hall on Water street, the Inman building at the corner of Oak and First and the addition to the Eugene Field school building, the latter being made necessary by the burning of the Emerson school last winter. The weekly band concerts given in the Silverton park each Thursday evening by the Four-L band are taking the place of a chautauqua this summer and are supported by contributions from business firms and citizens of the city. Last year a free chautauqua of one week was provided by business men but it is believed that as many people are reached by the present plan of band concerts and the entertainment is not concentrated to a few days.
