Woman's Club Sponsor Story Hour

The Salem Woman's club, at the invitation of the playground board which includes in its personnel Fred Erickson, C. A. Kells and Mrs. La Moine Clark, has assumed charge of the story hour for children up to the age of nine years at the children's playground during the remainder of July and throughout the month of August.

Mrs. Roy Burton opened last week's program on Monday in such a pleasing manner that not only the little girls, but also the boys have arranged to join the group for this period in the afternoon's program. On Tuesday Mrs. W. H. Byrd delighted her youthful audience with her stories, and on Wednesday Mrs. A. L. Wallace won for herself a place in the hearts of all the young listeners. Mrs. Grant Bonnell was surrounded by a large group of eager children on Thursday and on Friday Mrs. Ray L. Farmer was in charge of the hour. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, chairman of the public health committee, which is the pioneer group for this phase of the club's work, closed the first of the successful weeks at the playground with an enjoyable group of stories.

The story hour of this week will be sponsored by the institution committee of the Salem Woman's club of which Mrs. Frank Erickson is chairman. Mrs. Paul H. Acton will be today's story teller and the following women will be in charge throughout the week: Tuesday, Mrs. S. M. Endicott; Wednesday, Mrs. R. K. Ohlberg; Thursday, Mrs. Frank M. Erickson; Friday, Mrs. J. C. Nelson and on Saturday, Mrs. E. E. Fleber.

Judge Peter D'Arcy and his sister, Miss Teresa D'Arcy, spent the week end in Portland. While in that city Judge D'Arcy attended a meeting of the Oregon Historical society of which he is one of the directors.

Miss Lillian Shain, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stearns, and who is their guest for the summer, spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley returned to Salem last week and after several delightful weeks in their summer home at Agate Beach. They left the city by motor this morning for Seattle where they will attend the Knight Templar convocation, returning the latter part of the week.

The members of the J. S. club enjoyed a delightful day at Taylor's grove on the Clatsop yesterday. Fishing and swimming provided the entertainment for the day. At noon a delicious picnic dinner was served.

Members in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busby, Mr. and Mrs. W. Davies and Mrs. Lena German. Additional guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Bivers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Major Dennis, Mrs. G. H. Taylor, Darwin Bivers and the Messrs. Lorane Kinzer, Lavette Keene and Harriet Kinzer.

The general aid society of the Jason Lee Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church. The central circle will have charge of the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor and young daughter, Barbara Jean, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, have gone to Neskowin for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren and son, Peery, are on a motor trip to Mt. Rainier. Wolcott Buren will join them later from Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Max Pace entertained at their guests last week end a party of Portland friends. Among those who motored up were Mr. and Mrs. George Weber, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Mathilda Jensen, Miss Bertha Cronk, Nat Higgins, Arthur Voight and Thomas McDonough.

Preparing this rich summer breakfast

QUICK QUAKER cooks in 3 to 5 minutes
No hot kitchens, no muss, no bother

HOW you feel in summer depends on how you eat.
Start the day with oats... with the "oats and milk" breakfast doctors urge.

You'll feel better. You'll keep cooler. Your energy will not drain away so fast.
Get Quick Quaker. It cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. No hot kitchen, no muss or bother.

Start tomorrow. See how much better you will feel.

All that Quaker flavor is retained in this Quaker Oats. Quick Quaker cooks faster. That's the only difference.

Foreign Travelers In City

Interesting visitors in Salem last week were Little Billy of New Zealand, a clever illiputian and though twenty eight years old is only thirty one inches tall, and his travelling companion, Captain Patrick O'Hay, a truly fighting Irishman and a veteran of nine wars under the British and American flags. While in the city they renewed acquaintances with Mrs. F. E. Shafer and her son, W. Earl Shafer, who were boat companions of Little Billy on their voyage from New York to New Zealand in 1923.

Before leaving Salem last week they were the honor guests at a breakfast given by Mrs. Shafer and her son. They will continue their tour of the United States by automobile and their itinerary includes all of the American cities of interest. The travellers remarked that the scenery of the Columbia river highway was the most beautiful they had seen since leaving New Zealand and that they were particularly fascinated with the Oregon country.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Morley and family left last week end for an outing to be spent at Falls City. They plan to attend the Epworth League convention which opens there the first of August.
