EPWORTH LEAGUE PLANS INSTITUTE AT FALLS CITY

Falls City, July 29.—The Falls City Institute will hold its thirteenth session this year from August 2 to 9, inclusive, that is from Monday morning until the following Sunday evening. To it will come every Epworth League from Brownsville to The Dalles who can possibly get away for this summer week.

The institute buildings and grounds are situated in the city park on the outskirts of Falls City, which is ten miles west of Dallas. The town gets its name from the captivating falls in the Luckiamute river at this place. About $1000 has been spent on improvements this year. An addition has been made to the dining hall, and dirt courts will be ready as follows: two for tennis, two for volley ball and one for cro-

SENATORS PLAY LUCKENBACH AT SALEM SUNDAY

Next Sunday afternoon the Salem Senators are scheduled to play the Luckenbach ship company in the crucial game of the interstate league. The locals must win this game to be champions of the league. They are trying hard to get into shape for a win over the shipbuilders who have won over them twice so far this season. Salem has now lost three games and they must win Sunday or trust to the strong Albany team to help them out the following week.

If the visitors get a win over the locals next week they will still have one more game with Albany. Luckenbach must win all of the rest of their games to get a tie with the locals. One loss for the Luckenbach team and they are out of the race. The season is supposed to close with next week's games but there are a few postponed games yet to be played and will stretch the season over one week.

Barham or Abby will do the twirling for the locals. Barham was hit over the right eye last Sunday by a piece of a bat and it is not known whether he will be able to pitch or not. It is very likely that he will be able to be on the bench if needed. "Fricco" Edwards is more than anxious to win this game as he will be able to go out and get better independent clubs after the close of this season.

Several players will be signed with the Senators after the end of the interstate league schedule. Schackman, Blumberg and possibly some others are to be annexed. It is impossible for Edwards to sign them during the league playing season, after the first of July. Schackman played with the locals in one game so far this year but had to have special permission from the opposing club. If Bouton, Maples and a few of the other heavy hitters are in stride the locals will give the visitors plenty to think about.

There is always victory where there is unanimity.

MATHIS ESCAPES JAIL TERM FOR AUTO DEATH

Dallas, Or., July 29.—Following failure of a justice court jury to agree after about three hours' deliberation Tuesday in the case against Austin Mathis, on a charge of reckless driving, which resulted in the death of Dorothy Kyler at NeSmith station April 5 in an auto-train collision, Mathis pleaded guilty to a charge of exceeding the legal speed limit at a railroad crossing. He was fined $250 and costs by Justice of the Peace Coak.

Mathis put up a determined fight to avoid a jail sentence and after several months of delay the case was set for Tuesday. The costs will be exceedingly heavy, probably equalling the fine.

Nineteen witnesses, coming from points as far distant as Marshfield, Klamath Falls and Pasadena, Cal., testified in the trial. Many of the witnesses were rusty as to details of the accident due to the lapse of time and some who had come from considerable distance gave only a few words of testimony bearing on the case.

The defense sought to establish an alibi for Mathis through the introduction of testimony that a grease leak had rendered one of his brakes totally useless and therefore, made it impossible for him to control his car in the 90 to 100 feet where marks were visible on the pavement. Young Mathis, his father, Dr. Mathis of the Oregon Agricultural college and W. E. Kyler, father of Dorothy, took the stand as defense witnesses, in addition to others.

The prosecution sought to establish the element of high speed by testimony as to the skid marks, and of witnesses whom Mathis had passed a short time before the accident.

Oscar Hayter and Walter L. Toose Jr., represented Mathis and J. N. Helgeson the state.

Mariatt and the hostess, Miss Louise Ralls.

The Sidney-Talbot men's ball team closed the season here Sunday in a game with the Suzyaida nine. This was one of the best games of the season as it was played to decide the championship between the two teams. Each team had two games to their credit and much interest was shown in the final contest. The Sidney men were victors by a score of 7 to 6. It was a hard won game as Suzyaida has a splendid team. For several innings the score stood 4 to 4 and it looked as though it might result in a tie. The Sidney-Talbot people are justly proud of their old nine, they having played the entire season without being defeated by a single team. It is hoped here that the team will be re-organized next year.

Mrs. Mary Nye and Donald Nye went to Corvallis, Sunday, to visit little Evelyn Nye, who is convalescing from a major operation he underwent a month ago. He is reported to be almost well and the little fellow's many friends will be glad to see him about again.
