CAPITAL TAKES LAST VIEW OF COMMONER

Bryan's Body Reaches Washington and Lies In State; Crowds of Former Associates See Him

Washington, July 30.—(A. P.)—At the chance where many times he sought God's guidance in his public service, William Jennings Bryan received a parting benediction today from the people of the national capital.

Brought here from Tennessee, where he died Sunday, his body was taken just before noon to the New York avenue Presbyterian church to lie in state until noon tomorrow. Then, after a short religious service, it will be entombed at Arlington with military honors.

Crowds Pay Tribute

Long before the bronze casket reached the little red brick place of worship, nestled in a triangle where New York avenue meets H street in the downtown district, reverent crowds had gathered to pay tribute to the commoner.

While they waited, another group had filed before his bier and looked upon his serene features as he lay for a little time in an undulating parlor in another part of the city.

Special details of police were placed about the church to divert traffic and to guide the continued procession that tramped in at the door and past the silent figure at the altar. Half of the top of the casket had been removed, and

HELEN WILLS VICTORIOUS OVER MRS. MALLORY

Seabright, N. J., July 30.—(A. P.)—Helen Wills overcame Mrs. Mollie Mallory today in the semi-finals of the women's singles in the Seabright Invitation tennis tournament. The California girl and national champion took only 26 minutes to beat her rival by scores of 6-1, 6-0.

It was the most decisive triumph Miss Wills has ever scored over Mrs. Mallory in the few years they have been rivals for national honors.

The champion opened with a whirlwind attack that gave her the first four games in quick order. She was momentarily checked when Mrs. Mallory won the fifth game on her own service but the Berkeley girl quickly regained her stride and took the next eight games in a row.

Two other Californians battled for the right to oppose Miss Wills in the final round, with Miss Mary Browne of Santa Monica gaining an advantage over Miss Elizabeth Ryan, who comes back after a long stay in E. stand.

BORAH HOLDS WORLD COMING A DESPOT

Idaho Senator Sees Ambitious and Presumptive Effect To Establish Judicial Tyranny

Boise, Idaho, July 30.—A more ambitious and presumptive effort to establish judicial despotism was never conceived than the international court operating under the league of nations, which America is being urged to join, Senator Borah told Boise laborers at a meeting at the labor temple here last night. The chairman of the foreign relations committee of the senate said he felt so strongly on the matter that "if I had to tender my resignation in the senate or vote for this court as it now stands, it wouldn't take me one minute to resign."

"I believe this court is dangerous. The men urging it are not telling you the truth about it. If they were I would leave it to the people for a vote without opening my mouth.

"I do not want it thought that I am opposed to a world court in general. I have been advocating a court for several years. A world court could be created which it would be safe for us to join, and which would help promote the cause of peace. I do intend to bring up changes in the present plan when it comes before the senate—I mean the plan of joining the league's court with the Harding-Hughes reservations.

"Labor feels that courts should not make their own laws. Some court now establish principles of law out of the statutes. It is planned to create a court to render decisions while operating under law.

"In the proposed court, you do not elect the judges, you cannot recall them; you cannot appeal from their decisions. This is practically judicial despotism. Here would be eleven men, the judicial body of the world, who may render decisions with no law to govern them. A more ambitious and presumptive effort to establish judicial despotism was never conceived."

LOCOMOTIVE KILLS AGED PROSPECTOR

Roseburg, July 30.—William H. Padeley, aged 80 years, an old prospector, who has spent many years in various parts of Oregon seeking mineral property, was accidentally killed yesterday evening at Glendale, when he was struck by the locomotive of second section of southbound Southern Pacific train No. 11.

Padeley and an aged companion have been batching in a cabin about two miles north of Glendale along the railroad right of way. Yesterday evening he started from the cabin to a spring, across the track, and on his way apparently misjudged the speed of the approaching train, and was struck by the pilot. His body was crushed and was rolled about three rail lengths, before it was thrown to one side of the track. Death was evidently instantaneous.

Coroner Ritter made an investigation of the accident but did not deem an inquest necessary. The body is being shipped to Eugene. A daughter, Mrs. D. P. Harris, resides at Glendale, but the family resided for a number of years in Eugene.

Widow To Write Memoirs of Bryan and Public Career

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 30.—(A. P.)—The Chattanooga News in a story published today says the memoirs of William Jennings Bryan will be written by his widow.

The story says: "At the time of his death Mr. Bryan had started on the framework of his recollections. He had intended to devote to the writing of this chronicle of American life for the past half century, the rest of the summer and fall, and in fact all the time up to his leaving for the Holy Land in February of 1925.

"He had dictated in the rough to his secretary, W. E. Thompson, the first drafts of six or seven chapters of the memoirs. Thompson now has these on yellow type-written sheets. The headings include such copies as the great commoner's childhood and youth, the Chicago convention of 1896, the Baltimore convention of 1912, his work with peace treaties while he was secretary of state and one or two other incidents in his busy life.

"These guide posts for his memoirs, for, according to Thompson they were more of a framework, giving the general trend of events, rather than the detailed particularized account the commoner had expected to make by amplifying the first draft, were among the material which Mrs. Bryan will have at her disposal for her task.

BARE PLOT OF KIDNAPPERS TO CAPTURE MARY

Los Angeles, Cal., July 30.—(A. P.)—Yesterday's colorful scenes in the trial of three men accused in the attempt to kidnap Mary Pickford, film actress, changed today to the dull drab of legal testimony.

There was no craning of crowded necks to see the actress and her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, both of whom testified yesterday and only a fair sized gathering of spectators heard John J. Hill, deputy district attorney give his evidence.

Hill, who conducted the grand jury investigation of the charge against Adrian Wood, Claude Holcomb and C. Stephens, said that Wood and Holcomb both waived their rights and asked to be permitted to tell their stories to the grand jury.

Hill then recounted what he said was the gist of Wood's testimony before the grand jury that Louis Geck, said to be the police informer in the plot, with Stephens approached Wood to enlist his services in a kidnaping plot.

The first prospective victim discussed was a grandson of E. L. Doherty, Sr., oil magnate; next was Jackie Coogan, juvenile film actor and the plans eventually centered on Mary Pickford.

Wood, according to Hill, said he bought a pistol and it was decided that if Fairbanks interfered in the kidnaping of his wife he was to be "put out of the way."

BREAK IN MAIN CANAL OF HOOD RIVER DISTRICT

Hood River, Or., July 30.—A break in the main canal of a system of the Hood River irrigation district has carried a great volume of red silt into Hood river and the stream was muddier yesterday than any old time resident had ever seen it. Fishing in the river below the break, one of the worst in the history of local irrigation, was spoiled for the time. The canal where the cave in occurred was on a precipitous hillside.

Crews of men were rushed to repair the break and it was thought that service in the district, which covers the Oak Grove section, will be restored tomorrow.

FORD OBSERVES 62ND BIRTHDAY

Final Public Tribute To Bryan Asked By Pierce Proclamation

In a proclamation issued by Governor Pierce today, the people of Oregon are requested, during the funeral hour of William J. Bryan tomorrow to lay aside their business affairs and join in appropriate commemoration of his life. The proclamation follows: "Bryan is dead. The great commoner is gone. Our nation has lost a great statesman. The common people have lost their great leader. No more will his silver-tongued oratory delight and instruct the countless thousands who listened to his stirring addresses.

"His life among us for over 30 years was one of inspiration and leadership. His record is without a blemish, and his achievements for the betterment of his fellow-man have been surpassed by no statesman in all times. His passing came at the crowning point of his life's efforts, in a victorious defense of the faith of his fathers.

"It is fitting that our citizens should pause to consider the wonderful life of this great man and unite in honoring his memory. I, therefore, request all our citizens to lay aside their business affairs during the hour of his funeral, from 3 to 4 p. m., Friday, July 31, 1925, and join in appropriate commemoration of the life of this great citizen."

BANDITS ROB HOTEL IN WILD WEST FASHION

Two Robbers and Clerk Dead, Two Captured, Two Women Injured In Gun Battle For $10,000.

Chicago, July 30.—In movie thriller style a robber crew mowed and blasted with pistols and shotguns invaded the exclusive "Drake" hotel in Chicago's "gold coast" at tea time yesterday, engaging scenes of killing and sanguinary gun fighting that extended subsequently for a hour over North Side boulevard.

When the spectacular fray was over of five robbers, two were dead and one captured, a clerk killed, two women had been injured; two robbers had escaped with $10,000, one of the escaped holdups was found and one previously arrested confessed fully.

The robbery was staged within a stone's throw of the residential mansions of Chicago's 400, while hundreds of guests thronged the lobby and heavy traffic crowded adjacent Michigan avenue. A dozen policemen were within call.

Terrorized Employees.
For fifteen minutes the residential mansions of Chicago's 400, while hundreds of guests thronged the lobby and heavy traffic crowded adjacent Michigan avenue. A dozen policemen were within call.

One of them a full blooded Cherokee Indian employe from the hotel, terrorized employes in the lobby and on the mezzanine floor and had crammed the loot in a black satchel when their retreat was cut off by James McGurrid, house detective.

Summured by an excited guest, the detective confronted the robbers and began firing with two pistols. While guests ran for cover amid whizzing bullets the robbers returned shot for shot with the detective retreating through an entrance. Policemen attracted by Both men then drew guns from their pockets and Holms fired, Dunn related.

Five shots entered the body of the victim, which was found lying on the floor. A pistol, unloading and declared by officers to be unused was found near. One shot entered Holms heart.

Young Holms was believed to be married.

REFeree GIVES K. O. TO ROBERTS

San Francisco, July 30.—Sport writers here today credited Referee Joe Gorman with administering the knockout last night in the boxing combat in which Frankie Campbell, San Francisco light heavyweight, was declared winner over "Race Horse" Roberts of Oakland.

As the reporters described the affair, Campbell had been leading for several rounds and in the ninth floored Roberts for a count of nine. In the tenth, the final round, Roberts, still groggy, decided to endure the prescribed three minutes through one prolonged clinch. The referee, balked in verbal and physical efforts to separate the men, finally gave Roberts a terrific tug. The Oakland brawler went whirling through the air and landed outside the ring. The referee then counted him out. Roberts, badly bruised made no effort to climb back.

The hall was in uproar. Fans rushed the ring. Somebody threw a bucket of water at Roberts in an effort to revive him, but it landed on the referee. Two State boxing inspectors ruled that it was a valid knockout, and will so report to the California athletic commission.

Lakeview Road TO BE IMPROVED

Portland, Or., July 30.—The Quartz valley section of the Klamath-Lakeview highway will receive attention from the state highway commission one year sooner than was expected. The highway commission has decided to have the right of way cleared and grubbed this fall and winter so it can be graded next spring.

The commission on September 15 will offer for sale $2,000,000 worth of long term refunding bonds to retire short term 6 per cent bonds. The new issue will bear a lower rate of interest.

Frank Loveless and S. P. Chandler donated to the state a tract of nearly two acres for a park on Crooked creek, 16 miles north of Lakeview. The gift was accepted by the commission.

DRUNKEN ROW ENDS IN KILLING LONGVIEW MAN

According to Dunn's story, Hollis left the room and Holmes started going through Hollis' pockets. Hollis returned and a scuffle followed in which Hollis attempted to put Holmes out of the house.

EVOLUTION SUIT STOPPED

Washington, July 30.—(A. P.)—Washington's evolution suit was withdrawn today by the attorney of Loren H. Wittner, the government clerk who filed it.

Wittner as a taxpayer tried to prevent payment of salaries to persons responsible for the teaching of scientific subjects in the public schools which he said were in disregard of the Holy Bible. The government, questioning his right to sue as a taxpayer and raising other objections to his bill of complaint, had filed a motion to dismiss the case, which was to have been argued tomorrow.

The lawyers said they would draw up another complaint, more free of objections and probably would name another man with Wittner as a plaintiff.

Polk County Court Members Must Refund Mileage Expenditures

Dallas, July 30.—Earn Hart and William Hiddell, Jr., were forced to refund amounts collected for mileage as county commissioners during the year 1923 and three months of 1924, by decision of Judge Ramsey here this morning. The sums will amount to $723 in Hart's case and $786 in Hiddell's case.

Suit had been brought against the two commissioners in the name of Vera Gooze, et al, seeking to force refund to the county of per diem and mileage prior to March, 1924. The court ruled that the per diem had been legally received and that the defendants were entitled to retain the money so received. Had they been required to return the per diem the sum would

PIERCE VETO BRINGS TEXT BOOK CRISIS

State Situation In Snarl As Contracts for Books Have Expired and Publishers Refuse More.

The state text-book situation possibly has been thrown into a snarl as a result of Governor Pierce's veto of a bill that passed the 1925 legislature empowering the state board of education to enter into contracts with publishers at the best possible prices, which were to be no higher than prices in any other state. In an effort to clarify the situation the governor has called a session of the state text-book commission in Salem next Monday, but there is some doubt whether he has a legal right to call the commission together, since apparently none of the conditions exist that empower him to summon the body.

Contracts Expired.
Formerly all the text-books used in Oregon schools were changed or renewed every six years, but because of the burden this placed on school patrons a law was enacted in 1922 which provided that one-third should be changed every two years. Under the old law all the books would have been subject to change June 1, this year. Under the 1923 act, one-third were changed on last November, effective June 1, this year, leaving the contracts on the other two-thirds to expire at the same date. But the law of 1922 also provided that contracts for books unchanged should continue. However, the publishers refuse to continue at the old prices that have prevailed for the last six years.

State Superintendent Churchill, as a result, had a bill introduced (Continued on Page Four)

Trenton, N. J., July 30.—(A. P.)—Mrs. E. Carl Ziegler, wife of the Methodist minister and banished kleagle of the Ku Klux Klan, who was arrested recently in El Paso with Miss Margaret Roberts of Trenton, today filed suit for divorce, alleging infidelity.

The court requested Mrs. Ziegler to file an affidavit stating there had been no collusion between herself and her husband in the suit. This action was taken because of her announcement yesterday that she would obtain a divorce to save Ziegler and Miss Roberts from prosecution under the Mann act.

United States marshals held warrants for the arrest of the couple on charges of conspiring to violate the Mann act and Ziegler also is held in $100 bail at Redbank, N. J., on charges of embezzling $1000 in Klan funds.
