The meager sum of $275 appropriated by the city council for care of the city jail this year is exhausted and is overdrawn which accounts for the fact that City Recorder and Police Judge Poulsen is not handing out jail sentences to some of the offenders that come before him. Poulsen was criticised recently for his failure to give jail sentences to some violators of the prohibition law and his frequently allowing others to forfeit bail without trial. Poulsen replied to the criticism, saying that he favored jail sentences, but that the city is without money to maintain the jail and care for the prisoners.

ASTORIA PASSENGER TRAIN IS DERAILED

Portland, Or., July 30.—Passenger train No 25 en route from Portland to Astoria with a large crowd of summer vacationists, was derailed at Pyramid, 25 miles east of Astoria yesterday afternoon. The engine, baggage car, smoker and one coach left the rails but remained upright on the ties.

Little real damage was done and nobody was injured.

The track was blocked until noon today, delaying traffic and necessitating transfer of passengers and baggage around the blockade.

BOY RIDING HORSE ACROSS STREAM DROWNS

Eugene, Or., July 30.—Harvey Jones, 12, son of Jacob Jones, who lives on Mosby creek, near Cottage Grove, was drowned yesterday while attempting to ride a horse across the creek, according to word received here.

The reports stated that the boy fell off the horse when in midstream. It is believed that the horse, in swimming, kicked the boy after he had fallen into the stream.

Other small boys at the scene ran away after the accident, and the accident would have been unknown at the time except for the arrival of a brother of the Jones boy. He could not swim, so called for help. A grappling hook, improvised from a rake was used, and the body was recovered 45 minutes after the boy had been lost from sight.

Six Persians were killed. The scene of the trouble is at the head of the Persian gulf near the Mesopotamia - Persian frontier.

POLITICAL SPORTSMEN DENOUNCE MR. FINLEY

Medford, Or., July 30.—Resolutions were made public today by the Jackson County Game association "condemning in the strongest possible terms, the appointment of W. L. Finley as member of the state game commission, and denouncing in unmeasured terms the removal of Captain A. E. Burghduff, Matt Ryckman and Otto Jones, each of whom we know to be able and honorable men and true sportsmen."

The resolutions proposed "that the sportsmen of the state organize at once" to secure legislation at the next session of the legislature, to take the game commission out of the hands of "unworthy politicians," and "lodge it in the hands of sportsmen."

The resolution was passed at a special session, and is signed by Paul Scherer, as president, and R. W. Clancy, Floyd Cook, State Representative R. P. Cowgill, Chris Gottlieb and Mose Barkdull, the latter being democratic county chairman.

WIDOW TO WRITE MEMOIRS OF BRYAN AND PUBLIC CAREER

commoner passed through Chattanooga Wednesday morning en route to Arlington with the bier of her husband, she told friends that she intended to give her attention to these memoirs as soon as conditions permitted. She said she would be aided in the writing by her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Owen and the latter's husband, Major Reginald Owen. Mrs. Bryan is a gifted writer and for many years assisted her husband in his literary endeavors. She is the author of the biography of Mr. Bryan which introduces the collected volume of his speeches. She is also the author of the account of the Baltimore democratic convention of 1912, as throughout their married life she was in intimate touch with the innermost details of her husband's political career; with the train of thoughts leading to his notable political decisions, with his significant conversations and with his correspondence and files.

"It is likely that her work will be done at Marymont, the Bryan home at Cocoanut Grove, near Miami, Fla."
