

LOCALS

Marriage licenses have been issued to John Turnbull and Marion Hope Gilmer, Salem; Anton S. Schaffers and Mary Ann Golds, Mr. Angel, Gordon H. Mundy and Pearl Ietta Clark, Milwaukie, Or.

Dance tonight Crystal Gardens. 181

Word reached Salem yesterday of a reunion of the Parker family held last Sunday on the banks of the Molalla river. There were 54 members of the family present, coming from all parts of the Pacific coast. The number included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parker of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Higgins of Salem, Mrs. G. G. Wacker of Independence and Mrs. Sarah Farnsworth of McMinnville. The reunion was the largest ever held by the Parker family, which stages a reunion every year.

Terwilliger undertaker phn 724

Kenneth McCormick of Salem took a trip to Portland and Vancouver yesterday.

Dance Fri. Crystal Garden 180

Guthrie has taken out a permit at the office of recorder for the construction of a new high rise building at 170 south High street, ding will be of concrete, rises high and will cost $100,000. W. H. Henderson has been given a permit for the construction of a new building at 211 Miller street, 12,000.

Can salmon, extra quality deep sea troll fish at 1.

Guthrie, local theater has purchased the quarter on Lincoln street between Cosick and Liveboys on Clifftop hill, for building a handsome residence. The property came of the most slightly the Fairmount section.

Used furniture, phone 511

resourer C. O. Rice and wife returned from Newburgh, osteopath. Or bid Illian was fined $100 in court yesterday and sentenced to serve 10 days in city jail for driving his automobile while he was intoxicated. John Guy forfeited $100 bail on a similar charge. Guy was arrested about a week ago.

Try Garret Improvement Shoppe for a marcel that stays, 413 G. W. Bldg. Phone 187.

Philip Davis and D. Jackson, trustees who were at work in the potato garden at the state penitentiary, escaped this morning. Warden A. M. Dalrymple reported.

Davis was received May 28, 1922, from Willamette county to serve seven years for larceny, and Jackson was received December 6, 1924, to do two years for forgery.

G. R. Golding, teacher of banjo, guitar, mandolin, ukulele. Appointments accepted from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. Sat. 294 N. Church St. phone 178.

William S. Levens, state prohibition commissioner, left voluntarily last night for Klamath Falls where he was indicted by the grand jury yesterday on a charge of larceny of a revolver. Levens said he believed his endorsement of E. L. Elliott for the Klamath county had incensed a faction opposed to Elliott and may have inspired the indictment. Also a statement made by him that Klamath Falls was the worst town in the state for violations of the prohibition law, he believes may have had something to do with it.

Wetland roost, marshmallows toasted or corn on the cob at Woodland park, best quality sold on the ground. 181

Best Toehand has started proceedings against T. N. Hoodich and others to foreclose on liens for labor on property in Highway addition.

State for Woodland park 9, m. 182 id Mrs. R. C. Haseltine, J. D. Darnell, of Odes returned Wednesday short trip. They motored en to Chehalis where they visited friends and relatives, then returned to Salem.

he Jeweler, Salem.

dams has filed complaint in court seeking to enjoin and Otto J. Wilson in a with Silverton pavement Main street between Eureka streets. Adams id, Carl McTrayner, Mr. Martin F. Bidwell, H. J. Rank H. Marlowe, J. K. H. Perkins, J. E. Edwards, W. Matthews, P. Murphy, W. A. Parks, John M. Ives City, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Children, Pendleton, on, Ross McIntyre, Twin id, M. P. Farick, Baker, Douglas Deaton, Lou Mrs. Helen Darnick, Miss McDonald, Miss Lydia San Francisco, Mr and Mrs. Henry E. Miller.

Bligh Arrivals

claims that an agreement was reached whereby excess dirt and gravel from the street, not used in the improvement could be used by abutting property owners, but that it is threatened to remove the dirt from the street by his property a distance away, and he asks that an injunction be issued forbidding this.

Dance every Fri. Crystal Gardens. 181

The annual camp meeting of the Evangelical church will be held at Jennings Lodge beginning August 4. Prof. J. S. Stamm, B. D., will be one of the main speakers at the convention, which will close Thursday, August 12.

Aug. 1st to dance at Stayton Sat. Aug. 1st given by community club. 181

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Sayre of Silverton were in Salem yesterday.

Dances, DuBois' dance tonight Crystal Gardens. Gents 50c, ladies 25c. 181

V. J. Frink of Newport was in this city on private business Thursday.

Closing out sale stamped goods, threads and fixtures. The Petite Shop over Busick's store. 181

W. Yunker of Suver was in Salem this morning.

Stamped goods reduced, closing out the Petite Shop. 181

The new school house, planned to be built at Bethel, four miles east of the state penitentiary, may not be constructed, it was indicated this morning, due to the fact that no bids have been received from contractors. It had been planned to spend some $4000 on the new school building, and have it ready for use by next fall.

Want used furniture, phone 75.

Mrs. M. F. Ford of Independence was in Salem yesterday.

Get a business of your own. The Petite Shop is closing out everything for sale. Over Busick's store 181

Mrs. H. G. Mutchler visited in Salem this morning. She is a resident of Stayton.

Big dance, Happy Canyon, Mill City, Sat. night. Dinner dance Sunday evening, music by Thomas Bros. 7 piece orchestra. 182

Manley Strayer, son of State Senator William Strayer of Baker, arrived in Salem last night, and will leave again tomorrow. He was a freshman in the Willamette law school last year. He stated that in his opinion there is no likelihood of his father running for United States senator in the coming election. William Strayer ran for the democratic nomination against Milton Miller and was voted out by a hair's breadth.

Have your car greased all over and the oil changed on our new overhead rack S. Com'l at Owens, The Harrison Station. 182

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kibbey of Brooks were in Salem this morning.

Try Hyslop and General gas, bus station, N. Capitol at Market, S. Com'l at Owaga. Complete service. 182

Mrs. J. C. Henderson was in Salem today. Her home is in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Billson of Lebanon were in Salem today.

Mrs. E. Wilbanks of Forest Grove was a Salem visitor this morning.

Miss Ruth Daugherty of Salem expects to leave Sunday for the coast, where she will spend a two weeks' vacation. It is understood that she will spend most of her time at Rockaway Beach.

Births reported to the city health officer this morning include the following: A girl, born on July 26 to Mr. and Mrs. William Adams Schuky, and named Alice Pauline. Mr. Schuky is a stage driver living in Salem. A girl, born on July 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Creed Taylor Wilfay. Mr. Wilfay is a local nursery man. A boy, named in the report, was born on July 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn McKinstry. A boy, named Ernest Clark, was born on July 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ernest Harrison. Both Mr. McKinstry and Mr. Harrison are Salem auto mechanics.

Roy A. Klein, state highway engineer, has left for Washington, D. C., to attend a meeting of the joint committee on interstate highways, of which he is a member. He will return in about 10 days.

Wish to exchange work with first class paper hanger or painter. Phone 263. 181

Bert Moses of Ashland, author of "Sap and Salt" passed through Salem today enroute to meet Jessie Whitburn of New York, who was famous as "angel" for Walter Pierce in his campaign for the governorship in 1922 by putting up on spending money and limiting on spending most of it himself.

Witburn, who made a fortune in advertising and patent medicines, had a summer home at the head of Ashland creek.

Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. Eugene of the First Christian church of Salem, will return to Salem tomorrow from a trip to the coast.

In Blackmail

The hunt by Edward W. Brown, New York millionaire, to find a companion for Dorothy Browning, his adopted daughter, was temporarily abandoned while he alleged police in capturing an alleged blackmailer, who according to police demanded $50,000.

The case of Roy Able, who was arrested by the police on charges of possession of intoxicating liquor, reckless driving and driving while intoxicated, has been partially transferred to the justice court. In the latter court only the charge of possession was charged. It is said only about a pint of liquor was found in his possession. Whether the other two charges are to be pressed in police court has not been determined.

The Salem Lions this noon voted to have no meetings during the month of August. Today's evening was the last until the first Friday in September; on the evening of which a ladies' night banquet will be held.

Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Chambers returned yesterday from a motor trip to Vancouver, B. C. On the trip they visited the national park. Returning from Vancouver they attended at the Knights Templar convalesce at Skagit. Rev. Mr. Chambers will occupy his pulpit on Sunday as usual.

Mrs. Glade Burnett sang "Morning" and "When I'm With You," at this noon's luncheon of the Salem Lions club.

Old familiar hymns and the psalms to the words of hope he penned his unfaltering faith made up his program. There were frequent words of prayer and a brief personal tribute by his pastor, Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, who also had been chosen to commit his dust to earth at Arlington.

Accompanied by the deep tones of the massive pipe organ, set high over the church entrance, a mixed quartet sang as the opening prayer, "Lead, Kindly Light, a Guide."

"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," the congregation's favorite. As the voices filled the church with soft melody, Mrs. Bryan entered. In the wheel chair which has served her so long in her affliction she was taken tenderly down the aisle to a place close to the casket. Beside her walked Kelse Rice, a Chattanooga police officer, who guarded the casket during the service. She was dressed in black without a mourning veil and carried a small bouquet of orchids in her lap.

Remained seated in the wheel chair, Mrs. Bryan kept her gaze intently upon the face of the pastor as he read the opening scripture lesson and pronounced the invocation.

The funeral address began amid a great hush. In a soft, even voice Dr. Rice, the pastor, called one for the "three fold splendor" of his upright life, his love of man and God, and his great faith.

Outside, the rain fell in a steady downpour. Thousands stood about the church under dripping umbrellas. Far away across the Potomac another crowd already was gathering on the rain-soaked hillsides of Arlington. Above the grain the hazy spread of an army tent fly had been stretched to shelter those immediately at the graveside.

The regulars from Fort Myers, who were to make up the military escort were garbed in heavy raincoats. A rumbling thunder storm, distant at first, but creeping closer from the south, threatened later trouble. On a sudden salvo sounded like the crack of a rifle, a three-inch gun blast above the burial plot by the storm center drilled slowly by.

The troops carried their colors shrouded in black, rain proof casings and there were mourning wreaths of black wound around the drums of the military band. The men carried no arms. The officers' salutes had knots of black at the belts.

The funeral services lasted an hour. Throughout Mrs. Bryan sat leaning slightly forward, listening intently to every word. Her son sat with his arm around her and now and then as tears welled to the eyes of the brave woman, he patting her gently. Charles W. Bryan, the brother, sat next, with his wife beside him. Further along in the family pew the tiny great granddaughter, still asleep in her mother's arms.

When the pastor came to his parturition with his concluding sentence, "God bless and hallow the heritage and memory of William Jennings Bryan," the widow bowed her head and tears overflowed.

(Continued on Page Eight)

101 At Pendleton

Pendleton, Or., July 31.—The thermometer rose to 101 at 1:30 today, the highest for two weeks, with a falling barometer storm were predicted by the local government weather observer.

Sam Holbrook Dead

Portland, Or., July 31.—Samuel C. Holbrook, 45, who was a prominent baseball player of the Multnomah amateur athletic club some years ago died here today. He served in the Second Oregon volunteers in the Spanish-American war, being the youngest member of the regiment.

To Reappoint Gordon

Swampscott, Mass., July 31.—(A. P.)—President Coolidge expects to reappoint Preston Gooden to United States attorney for the District of Columbia.

RIO GRANDE ON FLOOD RAMPAGE

El Paso, Texas, July 31.—(A. P.)—Swollen by heavy rains the Rio Grande today threatens El Paso and valley farms with damage from overflow.

Advices from points along the Rio Grande north of here indicate that a flood said to be the largest since the completion of the Elephant Butte dam, is sweeping southward.

As a result, city and county reclamation service officials are meeting here today in a hastily summoned conference to devise a plan to avert property damage.

The crest of the flood, advices say, passed the Percha diversion dam, 55 miles south of Elephant Butte and was being augmented by high waters from the vicinity of Hatch and Rincon, N. M.

The river on the Mexican side of the dike below Juarez gave way yesterday, American officials were advised today. Several hundred acres of farm lands were flooded.

SALEM MILK PRICES BOOSTED

On account of the long extended period of hot weather, and lack of rain for over forty days, with the resulting decrease of available green pasture necessary for cheap milk production, a rate in the Salem retail prices of milk is announced.

Leading milk distributors state that in order to retain a sufficient supply for Salem requirements it is absolutely essential to maintain a higher level of prices for producers.

Distributors announcing a price of 12 cents per quart and 7 cents per pint effective August 1, 1925 include Mead Linn Dairy, Salem Sanitary Milk Company, the Fairmount Dairy and other dairies.

SUNLESS DAY FOR COLORFUL CAREER'S END

(Continued from Page One.)

under the folds of an American flag, lay in the midst of a great bower of flowers. His widow and his nearest relatives were grouped close about him.

Old familiar hymns and the psalms to the words of hope he penned his unfaltering faith made up his program. There were frequent words of prayer and a brief personal tribute by his pastor, Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, who also had been chosen to commit his dust to earth at Arlington.

Accompanied by the deep tones of the massive pipe organ, set high over the church entrance, a mixed quartet sang as the opening prayer, "Lead, Kindly Light, a Guide."

"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," the congregation's favorite. As the voices filled the church with soft melody, Mrs. Bryan entered. In the wheel chair which has served her so long in her affliction she was taken tenderly down the aisle to a place close to the casket. Beside her walked Kelse Rice, a Chattanooga police officer, who guarded the casket during the service. She was dressed in black without a mourning veil and carried a small bouquet of orchids in her lap.

Remained seated in the wheel chair, Mrs. Bryan kept her gaze intently upon the face of the pastor as he read the opening scripture lesson and pronounced the invocation.

The funeral address began amid a great hush. In a soft, even voice Dr. Rice, the pastor, called one for the "three fold splendor" of his upright life, his love of man and God, and his great faith.

Outside, the rain fell in a steady downpour. Thousands stood about the church under dripping umbrellas. Far away across the Potomac another crowd already was gathering on the rain-soaked hillsides of Arlington. Above the grain the hazy spread of an army tent fly had been stretched to shelter those immediately at the graveside.

The regulars from Fort Myers, who were to make up the military escort were garbed in heavy raincoats. A rumbling thunder storm, distant at first, but creeping closer from the south, threatened later trouble. On a sudden salvo sounded like the crack of a rifle, a three-inch gun blast above the burial plot by the storm center drilled slowly by.

The troops carried their colors shrouded in black, rain proof casings and there were mourning wreaths of black wound around the drums of the military band. The men carried no arms. The officers' salutes had knots of black at the belts.

The funeral services lasted an hour. Throughout Mrs. Bryan sat leaning slightly forward, listening intently to every word. Her son sat with his arm around her and now and then as tears welled to the eyes of the brave woman, he patting her gently. Charles W. Bryan, the brother, sat next, with his wife beside him. Further along in the family pew the tiny great granddaughter, still asleep in her mother's arms.

When the pastor came to his concluding sentence, "God bless and hallow the heritage and memory of William Jennings Bryan," the widow bowed her head and tears overflowed.

(Continued on Page Eight)

101 At Pendleton

Pendleton, Or., July 31.—The thermometer rose to 101 at 1:30 today, the highest for two weeks, with a falling barometer storm were predicted by the local government weather observer.

Sam Holbrook Dead

Portland, Or., July 31.—Samuel C. Holbrook, 45, who was a prominent baseball player of the Multnomah amateur athletic club some years ago died here today. He served in the Second Oregon volunteers in the Spanish-American war, being the youngest member of the regiment.

To Reappoint Gordon

Swampscott, Mass., July 31.—(A. P.)—President Coolidge expects to reappoint Preston Gooden to United States attorney for the District of Columbia.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BILL PASSES COMMONS

London, July 31.—(A. P.)—The unemployment insurance bill was passed by the house of commons today after a labor motion to reject it was defeated by a vote of 263 to 98. The measure was one of the most important projects announced in the recent budget presented to parliament by Chancellor Churchill.

CHERRY CITY MILLS ABANDON BUILDING PLAN

P. W. Gilmer, manager of the Cherry City Milling company, whose mill burned to the ground on the evening of Sunday, July 12, announced this morning that the company will be doing business again about August 5 of this year. The August 5th new location, which will be occupied for an indefinite period, is the building formerly occupied by the Ryan mill company, a block and a half west of the site of the mill which burned down, and on the opposite side of the railroad track. It is not planned to rebuild for a number of years.

Definite computations of the loss sustained in the fire, announced today for the first time, place the value of machinery and buildings burned at $58,660, and the value of merchandise consumed in the flames at $40,000, the total loss being $126,660. Insurance amounted to $82,000. Salvage of machinery and feed amounted to some $1500, according to Mr. Gilmer. Two hundred and fifty tons of feed were salvaged, he stated, the cost of digging it out and placing it in new sacks being nearly equal to the price of the feed. Gilmer says that the few hundred dollars realized from the sale of salvaged feed went to the insurance company.

The new location of the mill was originally built for factory purposes. There is already room to place three cars on the siding in front of the building and a new addition is being built at the east side to enable trucks to approach the mill and unload.

For the present the company will not erect a flouring mill, having arranged with the Crown mill at Portland to back their brand of flour for them. Nearly everything else made at the former building will be now being installed which will make graham and pancake flour. The plant will be finished in 90 days.

80 MEN FIGHTING TO CONTROL SKAGIT BLAZE

Olympia, Wash., July 31.—Revised by freshened winds, a forest fire set by lightning several days ago southeast of Lockport, Skagit county, is assuming serious proportions. It was reported to the state forestry office this morning by Dunson McKay, district warden of Skagit county. A crew of eighty men is working to control the blaze while additional forces will be put on as soon as possible.

The fire is burning over a scattered area about two miles long. It was reported to George C. Joy, supervisor of forestry, who estimated that it had probably covered an area of 600 acres.

SHIPPING BOARD TO SELL SHIPS TO FORD

Washington, July 31.—(A. P.)—The shipping board was advised today by Attorney General Sargent that it had authority to sell 200 vessels for scrapping to Henry Ford as recommended by President Palmer of the Fleet corporation.

The ruling was requested at the suggestion of Commissioners Benson and Thompson. No action on the sale is probable before next Tuesday.

New Apollo Infant

Indianapolis Ind., July 31.—(A. P.)—James P. Barton, Post Doctor, today became national secretary of the American Legion, succeeding Russell Greigson, Marion Ind. Greigson resigned as Marion field director of the American War Mothers Memorial.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the many friends for their help and sympathy during the time when we lost our dear Harry and for the beautiful flowers—Mrs. and Mrs. G. F. Hunt and family. 181

For Information About Railroad Trips Phone 727

OREGON ELECTRIC

WOODRY Buys Furniture Store Summer and Norway Phone 511

L. T. Dick and L. M. Hum CHINESE MEDICINE CO. 420 and 426 State St.

This wonderful Chinese remedies which will cure any human ailment including: headache, stomach, kidney trouble, male and female, if ill consult us at once. Delay is dangerous. Established 18 years in Salem, Oregon. Phone 283

BE CAREFUL ACCIDENTS IN SALEM THIS YEAR THIS WEEK

Automobile driven by W. A. Bonney of Norfolk, Va., and Alex. Stain, 1229 E street, collided at Capitol and E street, Bonney car was hit broadside by the other. No one was reported hurt.

The automobile of E. N. Pease, 704 North Commercial, was parked near his home it was bumped in the rear by a car driven by H. Froy of Salem.

John Schaeffer, 624 South 15th street, and S. N. Kalso collided at Mill and White at the corner of Mill and White at Salem drove his car into a street car at Liberty and Commercial. Damage was slight.

MODOC TIMBER TRACT IS SOLD

Portland, Or., July 31.—Completion of the purchase of the Modoc Lumber company's property in Klamath county, by the Forest Lumber company, a Louisville corporation, was announced in Portland today by R. B. White of Kansas City, Mo., one of the executives of the purchasing company. Conclusion of the deal was reached nearly a month ago, according to L. B. Menefee of this city, who with J. G. Goldthwaite controlled the property. The consideration paid was in excess of $500,000. The property conveyed included approximately 500,000,000 feet of pine timber on the Klamath Indian reservation, a 40-acre mill site at Chiloquin and part of a sawmill, the main structure of which was destroyed by fire early this summer. A new and larger mill will be built immediately. The purchasing company has eight sawmills in the southern states and maintains an extensive sales agency at Kansas City.

PLEASANT HILL CHURCH OBSERVES 74TH BIRTHDAY

Eugene, Or., July 31.—Members of the Pleasant Hill Christian church will celebrate the 74th anniversary of the founding of the church Sunday, Elijah Bristow, one of the earliest settlers of Lane county, built the church in 1851. It is believed to be the oldest in the Willamette valley.

The church built by Bristow was also used as a school house until 1875. In that year a chapel was built and this was used until 1913, when the present church building was constructed.

SEATTLE PAYS TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF BRYAN

Seattle, Wash., July 31.—At high noon today Seattle turned on all its electric lights. This was the moment set for the beginning of funeral services in Washington, D. C. for William Jennings Bryan. At the same time also in tribute to Bryan, the street car stop-

At the THEATRES TODAY

OREGON CHICKIE with Dorothy Mackaill, Hobart Bosworth, GRAND Conway LeMar and Barbara La Marr in "The Heart of a Siren"

JAILED FOR THREATENING LIFE OF PRESIDENT

Tampa, Fla., July 31.—Norman Klein, known also as Norman Kulley and George Kelley, is under arrest here charged with violating a special act of congress, protecting the life of the president of the United States.

Klein, taken by agents of the department of justice, is being held incommunicado on specific charges of writing letters to President Coolidge threatening his life.

Department of justice agents said today that Klein had been under observation here for three months. He was traced here after a chase that led all over the country.

NINE TONS OF LOGS YIELD OF TWO ACRES

It is reported that Elmer Minch on the Slough road gathered nine tons of loganberries from two acres this year, the best so far heard of in this section.

Many loganberry growers had considerable difficulty with pickers during the recent harvesting of the crop, as there was a ten-

Died

LUNDMARK—Susan Lundmark died on July 30 at a local hospital at the age of 79 years. The remains are at the chapel of the Salem mortuary. Announcement of funeral services will be made later.

Crow—Mrs. Elizabeth Crow died in Long Beach, Cal., July 29th, at the age of 24 years. She is survived by her widow, Mrs. Leon Grant Crow of Long Beach, Cal., father and mother Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne, brother, Kenneth, and sister, Agnes Bayne, all of Salem and sister, Mrs. Florence Clagson of Portland. Or. The body will arrive in Salem Saturday afternoon and will lie in state at the North funeral parlors from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Sunday. Funeral services will be held at the Congregational church at 5 p. m. Sunday, Aug. 2nd. Rev. Charles E. Ward will have charge of services. Interment will be in the City View cemetery.

RITCHEY—Mrs. Lora Ritchey, wife of Henry D. Ritchey, died at the residence 6 miles east of Salem on the Silverton road. Funeral services will be held from the Rigdon & Son mortuary, 2nd. Interment in Pioneer cemetery. Rev. Mathew in charge.

NYE—At the residence, 1500 Perry street, July 30, Mrs. Alice R. Nye, a resident of Jefferson, age 67 years. She is the elder of Philip Wagner of Etateada, A. P. and J. A. Wagner of Tidewater, I. N. Wagner of Laurel, Or. Mrs. Esther Neal of Monmouth, Mrs. N. E. Ward of Waldport, Mrs. C. E. Bruce of Portland and Mrs. D. P. German of Oregon City. Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Saturday, Aug. 1, from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment in TIOF cemetery.

Capital Ice & Cold Storage Co. Prompt service deliveries. Order early. Phone 280. "We never close"—560 Trade street. Ask driver for our book on "Frozen Desserts"

Roth Grocery Co. Special Prices by Assorted Dozens

Mrs. Mariam H