RIFFS FACE OFFENSIVE BY TWO NATIONS

France and Spain Reach Agreement To Finish Moroccan Campaign Jointly.

Paris, Aug. 1.—(AP)—If Abd-el-Krim, leader of the warring Riffians in Morocco had rather fight than negotiate for peace, the French and Spanish are ready to accommodate him. This was the effect of a statement made today by Premier Painleve of France.

The premier declared that the French marshal, Petain, and General Primo de Rivera, head of the Spanish military directorate reached an agreement at their recent conference in Morocco for joint Franco-Spanish operations against Abd-el-Krim "if he prefers to fight rather than to negotiate."

M. Painleve intimated the combined offensive will take place soon. This is supposed to mean the French desire to finish the Moroccan campaign before the rainy season which commences in October and during which military operations will be almost impossible.

PRIZE BEAUTY WON LOVE OF BALLPLAYER

New York, Aug. 1.—The love of Hugh McQuillan, pitcher of the Giants for "Miss Bronx" the winner of a beauty contest representing that borough of New York, is described in affidavits which Judge Crosey of Brooklyn has under consideration in separation proceedings brought by Mrs. Nellie Tracy McQuillan of Worcester, Mass.

McQuillan haunted his love for the prize beauty, Miss Helene Goebel, in his wife's face, says an affidavit by Miss May Tracy, sister of the complainant filed yesterday.

The affidavit quotes McQuillan as saying to his wife "I cannot be happy with you. Let me have my freedom so I can marry this girl. She is the only one that can make me happy. I will pay you a certain sum at regular intervals."

Mrs. McQuillan filed an affidavit saying that Manager John McGraw told her last winter that her husband had been spending his nights with some woman in the Bronx.

"It appears to me," the affidavit goes on, "that my husband is still a member of the New York Giants only because the club is at present poorly equipped with good pitchers."

The pitcher deposed that his wife deserted him, taking a check for $4400, his share of last year's world's series money, and leaving him penniless.

ROAD DETOUR NEAR OAKLAND IS ABANDONED

Roseburg, Aug. 1.—Following the county court's condemnation of the detour provided around the work on the Pacific highway at Oakland, traffic is being permitted over the road where the work is in progress.

Yesterday travel was routed over the old Goodrich highway, turning off about four miles north of Oakland, and going over Cole hill and into Oakland through Old Town. This detour was about five miles long and over a rough and dangerous road, which has been practically abandoned; tourists were cut out of about four miles of paved road.

The obstruction, which the contractor claimed necessitated the detour was only 150 yards in length, and the county court last night ordered that some easier way around be provided. As a result of this action cars are being allowed through today and it is expected that a short detour will be arranged through an adjoining field.

The work is being done at the north approach of the new Oakland bridge and overhead. A steam shovel is being used to dig out dirt for the fill and the heavy trucks hauling the dirt keep the highway blocked much of the time.

HALT SALE OF LANE TIMBER

Eugene, Ore., Aug. 1.—By a court order issued yesterday by Judge Charles E. Wolverton in the federal court of Portland, Sheriff E. Frank Taylor of Lane county is restrained from holding a sale of the assets of the Coast range lumber company scheduled today.

The court order is in a bankruptcy petition of Crane and company, Link-Belt Messes and Gottfried and the Pacific Cordage company, all creditors of the Coast range concern.

The federal court order also holds that any property of the company in the hands of the sheriff and shall not be removed. The assets of the lumber firm are approximately $150,000. The petition of the creditors states that the county taxes for which a forced sale was held last Saturday, are not due until 1926 under the federal bankruptcy act. The sale last week was held for approximately $14,000 for back taxes, slated for today was to claim of the county for 60 due on taxes for

FLOOD CREST OF RIO GRANDE AT EL PASO

Dikes Surrounding City Holding But Farms Suffer Overflow; Juarez Dikes Give Way.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The crest of the flood in the Rio Grande reached El Paso late today. Dikes surrounding the city are holding but fear it is expressed that farms in the lower valleys would suffer from overflow.

Dikes on the Mexican side below Juarez gave way but the erection of several small new channels, it is believed, will divert force of the water from two sharp bends where pressure was the greatest and will avert serious damage.

Crews are working feverishly under direction of L. M. Lawson, project manager of the reclamation service, strengthening weak spots in the dikes along the Rio Grande river near El Paso as a precaution against the flood.

Sacks, shovels and lanterns have been obtained from Fort Bliss, and Brigadier General Joseph Caster, officer in command, has offered the use of soldiers and trucks.

Arroyos at Hatch and Rincon, N. M., above El Paso, were still feeding heavy heads of water into the Rio Grande late today, reports said.

A washout on the Santa Fe rail road at Florida, near Deming, N. M., delayed a passenger train. When the fire washout had been repaired a second occurred, further delaying the train.

MARKER OF WOOD SHOWS BRYAN GRAVE

Stone Memorial for Bryan Planned Later; Broken Family Circle Still in Washington.

Washington, Aug. 1.—A simple wooden marker, set aside the withering clusters of blossoms that hid his grave, alone marked the last resting place of William Jennings Bryan in Arlington national cemetery.

Just over the hillcrest stand the row on row of white headstones above the soldier dead who lost their lives in France. Closer about the more imposing monuments of the officer dead with whom he keeps his last encampment and all about are the signs of the orderly reverence care with which the nation surrounds the last sleep of those it has called to its service.

Plan Stone Memorial

One day a stone memorial will be erected to tell in graven lettering that the commoner lies here on this peaceful slope. But it is yet too soon for the stricken widow, the brother, the children and the grand children of the dead to have made their plans for that permanent testimonial to their love.

The broken family circle was still in Washington today, gathering again the threads of every day things of life to which they must turn back.

Other members of the family planned to leave tonight for their homes. Former Governor Charles W. Bryan expected to go direct to Omaha and prepare to fill the lecture engagements he has made for the weeks ahead. Those of them who could planned to stay on a day or two with the mother.

Widow Cheerful

After the last service at the grave late yesterday many of the old political and personal friends of the commoner left for their homes and others boarded their trains today. There was no definite step taken among them toward a memorial to the dead leader, nor is it likely that the question will be opened until Mrs. Bryan has indicated her wishes.

The widow appeared well and cheerful today after a night's restful sleep and it is considered probable that she would leave for Florida with her household tonight. William Jennings Bryan, the son, will accompany her.

"Mrs. Bryan continues to be a marvel of resolution, of faith, and trust," Walter E. Thompson, the Bryan secretary, said. "She is deeply grieved, but is sustained in a wonderful way in her sorrow by her faith. She is quite cheerful."

Today a group of the faithful friends and attendants of Mrs. Bryan in her hours of grief visited places of interest in the city as guests of the bereaved woman.

KEARNS CLAIMS STILL MANAGER

New York, Aug. 1.—(A. P.)—Significance was attached today to the expected visit to New York next week of Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, in connection with the publication of the text of the Dempsey-Kearns contract covering the heavy-weight champion's ring affairs.

Under this contract Kearns is exclusively empowered to make matches for Dempsey until it expires on August 3, 1926. It is still in force, as it is assumed to be, and Dempsey is to fight Harry Wills, his negro challenger, around July 4, 1926, as he has announced. Kearns must do the necessary signing, possibly next Tuesday, when the New York state athletic commission is slated to dispose of the Dempsey-Wills situation.

Although Dempsey and Kearns are understood to have a further agreement whereby ring profits are split fifty-fifty, the contract, to comply with New York boxing laws provides that the champion receives two-thirds and Kearns one-third.

The contract was executed here August 3, 1923, a few weeks prior to the Dempsey-Firpo battle.

IDENTIFY HAYES AS ROBBER OF EUGENE HOTEL

Pat Hayes, confessed holdup man, was identified in the county jail yesterday by the clerk in the Eugene hotel who he held up. Local officers failed to secure the name of the visiting clerk.

When the clerk was taken into the jail corridor Hayes was called to the crated door.

"Did you ever see this man before," Sheriff Bowser asked Hayes. Hayes eyed the visitor for a few moments.

"Well, yes, I guess he does look a little familiar," said Hayes, as half a grin appeared on his face.

The Eugene hotel clerk did not hesitate, but stated unquestionably Hayes was the man who held him up. The robber was unmasked at the time of the holdup.

Hayes recently signed a written confession before Special Agent Maurice Courty of the Southern Pacific and Deputy Sheriff Sam Burkhardt, in which he admitted the Eugene holdup. It is probable Hayes will be taken to Eugene for trial. He is held here on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

BRITAIN FEELS RELIEVED OVER AVERTING STRIKE

London, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Notwithstanding that the financial assistance which the government is to give to the mine owners will add, according to unofficial figures something like 10,000,000 pounds sterling to the country's budget, there is a great sense of relief that a miners strike affecting more than a million men has been prevented.

Strike notices had been issued several days ago to take effect at midnight last night, and the carrying out of the threat was averted only by the last minute offer of the government to give financial aid to the mine owners to enable them to maintain the present wage scale. The agreement carrying the present scale of wages, was to have expired at midnight and it was a new agreement proposed by the mine owners to supersede it with its clauses involving decreased wages and a longer working day that brought the strike threat.

Under the arrangements made yesterday to prevent a strike which would have caused one of the worst industrial calamities in recent times, the miners will remain at work receiving the same wages as they did under the old agreement, and remain in the pits the same number of hours each day as at present. The government will grant financial help to the owners until May 1, 1926.

If in any month the wages paid to the men exceed the recognized ratio of division between wages and profits are lower in any district, then the wages payable at the minimum percentage under the agreement the exchequer will make up the deficiency. In any month in which the estimated average profit of a district in which intervention is payable exceeds fifteen pence per ton, the excess will be used in the reduction of the amount of the intervention.

Yesterday's victory for the miners, for they regarded it as such, has brought joy to the entire labor world and the labor leaders attributed it to the solid support given to the miners by the trade union movement.

BREAK RECORDS FOR CONSTRUCTION

The Salem building record for July exceeds by $27,050 the record for July of 1924, according to statistics compiled today at the office of City Recorder Paulsen.

The record for July, this year, shows a total of $189,730 and for last year $162,700. Of the total for the month just closed $175,420 represents construction of new buildings and only $13,000 repairs to old buildings. A new concrete theater on High street is to cost $50,000 and $70,000 goes into the construction of new dwelling houses.

In July a year ago the amount going into dwellings was $75,500, or slightly more than the amount for July of this year.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT SENTENCED FOR FORGERY

Hillsboro, Ore., Aug. 1.—R. F. Robinson, who for many years was superintendent of Multnomah county schools, was today given a suspended sentence of one year in jail and a fine of $1000 following his conviction March 9, of being "implicated in uttering checks" on the Sherwood bank for which he had no funds deposited. Robinson was given until October 1 to adjust his account with the bank. Execution of the sentence was made contingent upon the character of the report made to the court on that date.

PARTNERS OF LANGLEY FINED $10,000 EACH

Men Indicted With Kentucky Dry Leader For Liquor Conspiracy Plead Guilty.

Washington, Aug. 1.—(A. P.)—Ben L. Moses and Harry Sattler of Pittsburgh indicted last year with Representative Langley of Kentucky on charges of conspiracy to illegally withdraw liquor, pleaded guilty today in the District of Columbia supreme court.

They were sentenced to serve two years each in the penitentiary but were placed on probation for that time. A fine of $10,000 each was assessed, and they were allowed a week in which to raise the money.

Congressman Langley, who was re-elected after conviction on similar charges is at large on appeal. Last month he was arrested at Washington for intoxication, which offense has frequently landed him in jail, although he was one of the original advocates of national prohibition and had the support of the Anti-Saloon League.

VISCOUNT KATO AGAIN PREMIER

Tokyo, Aug. 1.—(A. P.)—Viscount Taki-Arira Kato, reappointed premier today after he resigned, but the cabinet because that body could not agree on a tax program for Japan has reorganized his cabinet by restoring to their places all ministers with the exception of three recalcitrant seiyukai party members. The new cabinet probably will be installed tomorrow.

Reports today say the ousted seiyukai party has combined forces with the seiyuonoto, thus obtaining a large majority in the diet. Observers believe this means Premier Kato will be forced to dissolve the diet in December and will then call the first election under the new law giving the honor to his own, million new Japanese.

All parties fear the election in prospect owing to the uncertainty of the outcome with the new voters playing a part.

Premier Kato is expected to carry on his present policy of financial abridgement and curtailment of the national budget.

Last of French Troops Leave—Essen Rejoices—Poles Expel Germans From Silesia.

Essen, Germany, Aug. 1.—(A. P.)—At 12 o'clock last night all church bells were chimed here to observe the official termination of the occupation of the Ruhr by allied troops, which began early in 1923. Flags were flown throughout the city and the inhabitants rejoiced.

Paris, Aug. 1.—(A. P.)—Official announcement was made this morning that French evacuation of the Ruhr is complete; that not a single French soldier remained in the mining and industrial basin after midnight last night.

The entry of the French forces into the Ruhr took place January 11, 1923. It caused much ink to flow and entire pages of the newspapers were devoted to the report of the operations designed to bring about payment by Germany of her reparations obligations.

The evacuation which has been going on for the past month, however, has been totally ignored by the French press.
