Miss Wyman Secretary of Y. W. Again

The announcement has been made by Mrs. John J. Roberts, president of the local Y. W. C. A. that Miss Marion Wyman, who resigned from the secretaryship several months ago to take up girl reserve work in southern California, has consented to return to the position of Salem Y. W. secretary. The news has been received with pleasure on every hand for Miss Wyman was largely responsible for the progress made by the local association in the last few years.

Miss Wyman came from El Centro, California, several weeks ago at the call of the Salem organization. At the present time she is in charge of the girl reserve camp at Taylor's grove. It is planned that early in September she will resume her duties as full time secretary.

The Stanard family on Sunday sent representatives from Oregon, Washington and California to attend their second annual reunion, held Sunday in the state fair grounds. Officers were elected as follows: W. O. Stanard of Portland, president; Elmer Stanard of Woodburn, secretary; and Miss Minnie Stanard of Portland, historian. It was voted to hold the next year's reunion at Brownsville, which is but three miles from the donation land claim of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stanard, pioneers of 1852. It was the descendants of this couple who met in Sunday's reunion.

The Stanards were joined by the Bishop family Sunday afternoon in an old fashioned "ding." The Bishops, who were holding their family reunion on the grounds, are descendants of Rev. W. R. Bishop, pioneer Linn county preacher and teacher, and father of Charles P. Bishop of Salem. Among those who came from out of the state to attend this were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Starr from Kansas City, Mo. Some of the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stanard who were at the Stanard meeting were W. O. Stanard and Miss Minnie Stanard of Portland; C. E. Stanard and H. A. Stanard of Brownsville, and Rev. Frank Stanard of Porterville, Cal. The families of these and grandparents and other relatives of the late pioneers were also in attendance.

Mrs. Charles Pearl, who has been the house guest since early April of her sister in law, Mrs. Russell Catlin, and her niece, Mrs. Frank Spears, left yesterday for her home in Springfield, Missouri. Mrs. Pearl and Mrs. Catlin returned last week from Seattle and Tacoma where they spent a month with relatives and friends. A number of informal affairs were given in Mr. Pearl's honor during her visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lamport last week and at their summer home at Neskoewin.

Almost immediately following her return home after nearly a year's absence in the east and abroad, Mrs. Charles McNary was again called east by the serious illness of her sister. She left Monday for Chicago. Mrs. McNary returned last week from a trip in England and on the continent.

Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby spent the past week end in Portland where she was the guest of her son, Herbert.

The missionary society of the Court street Christian church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon beginning at two thirty.

Mrs. George Waters and Mrs. Will Moore will motor to Portland tomorrow to be the guests at a bridge tea at which Mrs. J. Wallace McEachern will entertain in her home in Irvington.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Ward and three children, Billy, Donald and Charles, left on Monday for a ten day visit in Ashland with Mrs. Ward's grandmother, Mrs. Minkler. They will return to Salem and will go directly from here to one of the Tillamook beaches to spend the remainder of the month.

Miss Helen Ramsden has returned from a visit of several weeks in Roseburg where she was the guest of a Pi Beta Phi sorority sister, Miss Jean Vilm. Miss Ramsden will reenter Oregon Agricultural college in the fall.

Mrs. A. E. Pettit was hostess to the Young Mothers club in her home Tuesday afternoon. Roses, dahlias and baby breath were used for decorating the living rooms.

Members in the group were Mrs. Lee Barber, Mrs. Floyd Bacon, Mrs. J. H. Klinger, Mrs. T. A. McLeod, Mrs. C. T. McDonald, Mrs. E. J. Dietz, Mrs. E. R. Dimbat, Mrs. L. Haddleton, Mrs. K. Smith and Mrs. A. E. Pettit. Mrs. E. J. Dietz will be next hostess.

Allen Kafoury and Leo Kafoury are spending several weeks in a motor tour of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Complimenting Mrs. Burrill Adams with Mr. Adams will leave Salem very shortly. Mrs. E. C. Purvine and Mrs. Carl Armstrong were hostesses at bridge in the Armstrong home yesterday.

Dr. Purvine Back From Convention

The three Salem, Oregon, delegates to the national convention of business and professional women held in Portland, Maine, last month have returned to Salem. Dr. Mary B. Purvine arrived in Salem yesterday morning. Mrs. LaRue Rose came several days ago, and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith has been home a week. Dr. Purvine and her mother, Mrs. T. H. Bowerman who made the trip with her, visited relatives in central Maine, in Ohio, and Iowa before taking the Canadian Pacific for the Pacific coast.

A number of days were spent in New York city and during the time that Dr. Purvine was attending the Portland convention Mrs. Bowerman was the guest of relatives in New Rochelle, New York.

Interesting stories of convention are being told by Dr. Purvine and the other delegates. One of the outstanding features of the entertainment side of the week was the presentation of twelve Indian blankets to national officers. The Salem club purchased one of these blankets but the remainder of them were purchased by the Portland club under the direction of Miss Martha Gasch, one of the Portland delegates. The feature was planned by her. The first reports of the convention will be delivered to the Salem club at a meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium at eight o'clock tonight when Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith will address the club women.

On Wednesday evening, July 28, the women employes in the office of the secretary of state surprised Miss Alice Boock in her home on Hood street with a miscellaneous shower. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-to-be. Miss Boock, whose marriage to Glen Boock, will be an event of August 25th, has been a popular member of the force for the past eight years. In addition to present employes, several former employes were among the guests. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

The following were present: Misses Esther Erickson, Elvira Gould, Katie Reinhardt, Ola M. Vokel, Play Webb, Mrs. Doris Aufrance, Marguerite Myer, Mrs. E. Thornton, Cecile Knox, Vivian Lettingwell, Nancy Savage, Mrs. Harry Hutton, Gertie Cappe, Grace Thrapp, Verda Olmstead, Mrs. Irma Gorton, Myrtle Davis, Winifred Taylor, Mrs. Sam Burkhardt, Laverna Kantner, Marcella Caspell, Thelma Timman, Elizabeth Schottkofer, Mrs. Helen Culp, Charlotte Lindquist, Hattie Brown, Eulalie Lindsey, Catherine Vincent, Marjorie Mellinger, Mardette Heenan, Mrs. Lotie Robbins, Mrs. Kittredge, Violet Peters, Katherine Pugh, Mrs. L. Koser, Mrs. Perry, Minnie Salsfeld, Cora Kellington, Mimi V. Victor, Mrs. Richardson, Jessie Miller, Velma Rominger, Zenda Bush, Annabell Golden, Edith Welborn, Mrs. Bergman, Cleo Walker, Mrs. Ben Rider, Mrs. Floyd Gibson, Mrs. Russell Davenport, Mrs. Bertha Carlson, Mrs. Vera Barriek, Mrs. Beryl DeGuire, Mrs. Ethel Gronke, Mrs. Ben Waelke, Mrs. Maude Ramsey, Mrs. George Broyles and Mrs. M. Kaemir.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner are spending the summer at their home on one of the islands in Puget Sound.

Mrs. Karl Becke entertained at a one o'clock luncheon in her home yesterday honoring Mrs. Alfred McClintock (Edna Ackerman) of Wood, California, who is the house guest of Miss Annabelle Golden.

Covers were laid for Mrs. McClintock, Mrs. William Gosmer, Miss Dorothy Patterson and the hostess, Mrs. Becke.

Writers Give Varied Program

A widely varied and interesting program was given last night by a group of modern writers who gathered at the home of Perry Reigelman for an out of doors program and a picnic supper. Adding to the pleasure of the evening was the special guest, Dr. Han Leonhartberger, recently of Vienna, who at the request of the writers, told of conditions existing at present in the Austrian capital. He told of the revival of interest in music and art, conditions in the universities and described other cultural factors which have resumed their pre-war significance.

Albert Roy opened the program for the writers with a story entitled "The Mighty Good Cook." Mrs. J. C. Nelson followed with two poems, "Wander" and "Cortality." An essay which she wrote some time ago was read by Mrs. Blanche M. Jones. She called it "Just a Word." Another poem followed when Mrs. F. S. Barton read her "Enchanted Fields."

Miss Renska Swart read a poem, "Unfinished," and Perry Reigelman read a poem which he wrote some time ago as a tribute to Hazel Hall. He has named it "Caged." This poem received honorable mention when it was read last Sunday before a meeting of the Northwest poetry society at Gale's grove near Forest Grove. Mr. Reigelman also read another of his poems—"Life."

Mrs. F. G. Franklin spoke briefly on the proceedings of the meeting of the northwest poetry society at Forest Grove. Two poems, "Rocky Mountains" and "Beach Pines," were read by C. J. Lisle.

Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith presided. Special guests were Mrs. Murray Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McDonald. In addition to those contributing numbers last night the group included the following writers Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, F. S. Barton, J. C. Nelson, Mrs. Reigelman, Mrs. Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulos.

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Sternberg and family returned on Monday from Neskoewin where they spent the week end.

Of interest in Salem musical circles is the recognition which came to Dr. John R. Sites recently from Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, world famous contralto. Dr. Sites is an old friend of the prima donna and studied with her in conservatories abroad a number of years ago.

Mrs. Schumann-Heink was in Portland ten days ago. Dr. Sites spent one entire afternoon with her renewing old acquaintances. She gave two concerts in the auditorium at this time before a big meeting of the German-American musical societies of the northwest. Very recently Dr. Sites has received a large autographed photograph from madame.

Miss Myrtle Pelker has returned from a four days' visit in Ashland with friends.

Dr. F. G. Franklin is spending two weeks in Jefferson park at the foot of Mt. Jefferson with the Mazamas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop motored to Neskoewin yesterday and will return tonight. They are returning with a group of Salem boy scouts who have been in summer camp there.

Group of Matrons Whose Homes Face on Ewald Avenue in the Salem Heights Community were Hostesses at a Pot Luck Dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Stolze Friday noon.

Those present were Mrs. Hattie Sawyer, W. Pryor, Mr. and Mrs. Souder, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Landaker and son Madison, Mrs. Calvin Bressler and son Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clemens and children, Mr. and Mrs. Len Farlington, Mrs. C. Speaker and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Van Eaton and daughter, Erlena, and Mr. and Mrs. Stolze. Special guests were Mrs. Harry Raburn and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Galloway.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wilson of Salem Heights, was married to Harold McIntire, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McIntire, 140 Superior street, in the parsonage of the Leslie Methodist church by Rev. H. F. Pemberton on Monday morning. Only immediate relatives were present.

Both young people are well known in Salem and are former students of Salem high school. They will make their home in San Diego, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtie Crose were hosts last night at an eight cover dinner in their home on Lincoln hill.

Mrs. Charles Busby, Mrs. Paul Hancock, Mrs. T. W. Davies and Paul Davies formed a party that left by motor this morning for Neskoewin to remain until the early part of next week. They will be joined there by Mrs. Davies' daughter, Mrs. G. H. Taylor.

Last week Mrs. J. A. Bernard entertained as her house guest her sister, Mrs. A. F. Hendricks of Hillsboro. During that time they spent one day with their mother, Mrs. John Smith, at her home in Monroe and another day with a brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith in Sublimity.

Week end guests at the Bernard home were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Jones of Portland, and Harold Hertz of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley returned recently from a two weeks motor trip to Foley Springs and the Crater Lake district.

The masonic society of the First Christian church will meet in Marion Square at two thirty o'clock on Friday afternoon. A special program has been arranged for the outdoor meeting and mothers are requested to bring their children. A group of girls will entertain them at games and will care for them during the time that the program is being given.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt of Portland, motored around the Mt. Hood loop on Sunday.

A delightful affair of last week end was the swimming party at Hager's grove at which Mr. and Mrs. Claude Steusloff entertained members of their Man Jongg club.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dekebach, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Dorothy Steusloff, Mrs. William Bright and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Steusloff.

Among those motoring to Portland yesterday to witness the exhibition matches at the Waverly and Portland Golf clubs by some of the most prominent golfers in the world were Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. John Coughlin and Mrs. Ed Giltingham.

The Misses Charlotte and Eugenia Zieher had as their house guest last week end Miss Elizabeth Garrett of San Francisco. Miss Garrett, now a student at Smith college in Massachusetts, formerly attended the University of Oregon.

Miss Rhea Wilson will leave tomorrow for Seattle and other Puget Sound points to visit for ten days or a fortnight.

After spending several weeks at her summer home at Neskoewin Mrs. W. Carlton Smith returned early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bayes are spending this week in Newport.

After spending a week with her cousin, Mrs. Cordelia Hager, Mrs. Mary L. Newland left yesterday for her home in Portland.

FAILS TO SWIM ACROSS CHANNEL

London, Aug. 5.—(A. P.)—Lieutenant Colonel Bernard C. Freyburg, world war hero and holder of the Victoria cross, lost by a scant half mile today in his attempt to swim the English channel.

After battling the treacherous tides and currents of the channel for approximately 17 hours, during which at one time he was only 600 yards from the English coast at Point Hope, between Dover and South Foreland, he abandoned the attempt which began at Cape Gris-Nez at 8:25 o'clock last night and was taken aboard his accompanying tug.

Lieutenant Colonel Freyburg's gallant effort ended half a mile off the shore at Kings Down, between Deal and Dover. Previously, however, he was only 600 yards from Point Hope, but his great exertions had nearly exhausted him and the tide, turning, carried him out to sea again.

HELP FOR MOTHERS OF AILING DAUGHTERS

Mrs. Quigg and Mrs. Betton Tell in the Following Letters What Is Best To Do

DAUGHTER OF MRS. QUIGG

Royersford, Pa. — "My daughter was sickly from the time she was 15 years old, and when she was 15 she was irregular and also had severe headaches and pains in her sides and back. She was this way about six months before I began giving her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly although she had tried it before. It helped her very much. She is not bothered by headaches, backaches, or cramps any more, and has not missed but one day's work. We recommend it to other mothers with girls who have these troubles."

with girls who have these troubles."

—Mrs. QUIGG, 210 Main Street, Royersford, Pa.

Mrs. Betton's Letter

Ridgely, Md. — "I want to tell you how much good your Vegetable Compound has done my daughter. Before she started taking your medicine she was in a nervous, run-down condition, so that she could hardly sleep at night. She always had a pain in her side and sometimes cramps so that she would have to go to bed. She is a schoolgirl and was going to school only half the time because she was so weak and run-down she could not stand it to walk there some days. She was this way for three or four years. She had been reading your advertisements in the different newspapers and she noticed that some of the girls and women had suffered just as she had. So she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and is a lot better. With the first bottle everybody could see a big change. She can go to school every day and can eat just as much as any one else, when before she did not have any appetite. We have told others about the medicine, and you are perfectly willing for you to use these facts as a testimonial. We are also willing to answer letters from other women concerning the help my daughter has received from the Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. JOSEPH BETTON, Ridgely, Maryland.

Heart Throbs of Humanity

YOU see them every day, hundreds of men and women upon whose faces is indelibly written—a story.

A sad-eyed woman, alone on a park bench—watching the children dance gleefully.

Another woman pitifully alone, dying in a grim, white-walled hospital ward.

A girl, scarcely more than a child herself, gazing with tragic eyes at the baby she carries.

A careworn man in threadbare suit stopping to buy a blood-red rose.

A Tired tramp, edging into a 10c lodging house as though he were ashamed. "He has seen better days," you muse. He has. His story will astonish you.

Everywhere you see them and you wonder, and wish you knew the wonderful tales you instinctively know are there—beyond your reach.

These are the people O. Henry, best loved of American authors, knew and wrote about.

True Story knows them, too, and because it tells their stories in their own words it is the best loved magazine in America.

PERHAPS you remember the stories you heard at your mother's knee, true stories of things that really happened.

You did not know what there was about these true-life stories that thrilled you so, but you never ceased to wonder about life and to seek to widen your knowledge of it.

THAT is why you never tire of hearing and reading true stories. Truth is life, and every true story is a part of life, bearing its own intimate message to you straight from the heart of life.

In every issue of True Story Magazine there are from fifteen to twenty true, human tales each of which contains a thrill or a smile or a tightening of the throat.

That is why over two million earnest minded men and women go to the newsstands each month to buy True Story. That is why you will love True Story.
