Convention Delegate Gives Report

An informal report of the opening of the sixth annual national convention of business and professional women was given to the clubwomen of Salem last night when Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, recently returned from Portland, Maine, where the convention was held, related incidents of her trip before a meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium.

Miss Smith attended the opening session of the convention only as a complete schedule required her to leave Portland on Monday evening, July 13. For the remainder of the convention the Salem club was represented by Dr. Mary B. Purvine and Mrs. LaRue Ross who will give their reports at coming meetings. Following the business meeting last night the program opened with several piano numbers by Miss Gladys Lewis and readings by Miss Sylvia Woods. Miss Smith's talk followed.

"Portland, Maine, was literally seething with women, well dressed, well possessed, and attractive women, and one of the most unusual things about it all was to see the men standing on the side lines looking on," said Miss Smith. "They seemed unable to realize that women alone were holding this big convention."

Miss Smith related a host of interesting details of the convention city, convention headquarters, and the large municipal hall where sessions were held. She told of the entrance of the national president, Miss Adelia Trichard of Portland, Oregon, who has many friends here, and of the capable and dignified manner in which she filled the position of presiding officer. She described the beautiful gown worn by the representatives from the various states and told of the beautiful pageant closing with a portrayal of "the spirit of '76" which was presented by the Portland, Maine, club.

A brief sketch of her visits in Washington, D. C., New York city, Boston, Niagara Falls, and cities in Canada, and of her trip home was included in Miss Smith's address.

Mrs. Lewis Griffith and Miss Zoulenko left yesterday for Newport where they will be guests at the C. K. Spaulding summer home for the remainder of the week.

Their many Salem friends are anticipating the arrival either tonight or tomorrow of Mrs. George Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce after nearly seven months absence. Miss Helen Pearce will remain in Cambridge Massachusetts, where she is taking work at Radcliffe toward her master's degree, until the first of the year.

Mrs. Pearce and her two daughters left Salem early in January and visited in all of the larger cities of the Atlantic coast. Miss Dorothy Pearce studied music in New York for a number of months while Mrs. Pearce remained with Miss Helen at Cambridge.

Miss Eugenia and Miss Charlotte Zieher will leave shortly on a tour of Alaska.

Miss Carol Loeoe has returned from a vacation of two weeks in Portland where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Root. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Root entertained their guest at a week end at Columbia beach.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Forbes, Jr., will leave shortly for Seaside to spend several weeks.

After a ten days' motor trip to Vancouver and Victoria Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff and Herbert, Jr., have returned to their home.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves will return next week from Steevessote, the Steevens summer home at Seaside, where she has been for more than a month.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rosten and Mr. and Mrs. Averil Hussey left for Waldport where they will remain for two weeks.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Scheel for several days are Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schacht of Burlington, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Schacht have been attending buyers' week activities in Portland.

Family Reunion Sunday

Members of the Looney and Doty families met in the W-E Doty grove, on the banks of the Santiam Sunday, for a reunion picnic. The time was spent in conversation, games and swimming with a basket dinner served at noon.

It was decided to organize and make the reunion an annual event. N. H. Doty was chosen as president and W. E. Doty as secretary. The meeting will be known hereafter as the Looney-Doty reunion and will be held on the second Sunday of July each year.

Those present Sunday were Mrs. A. V. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Haestings, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Haestings and daughter Thelma, Joe Haestings, Chester Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Locke and Mrs. Alice McMan, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Looney and daughter Mary and Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Myrvell Looney and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Doty and baby and Mrs. Mary Looney of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Doty and daughters Arlene and Doris of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham and sons, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Needham and son all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Doty, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knight, N. H. Doty and Lindsey Doty of Jefferson.

More than fifty members of the home missionary and foreign missionary societies and the ladies aid of the Jaena Lee church met yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Scharff on Nebraska avenue for an all day, out of door meeting.

The home missionary society held the devotional at eleven o'clock. Mrs. J. W. Beckley, district secretary of temperance work, spoke briefly of her work and read extracts from a number of papers on the subject of narcotics. Luncheon was served at twelve at tables laid underneath the trees. A group of the members assisted Mrs. Scharff in serving.

During the meeting of the ladies aid following the luncheon plans were discussed and committees appointed to take charge of the restaurant which will be open at the fair grounds during estate fair week. After several musical selections the foreign missionary society gave a short play which emphasized the extension work of the society. Mrs. Emma Hocking took the part of the "chut in." Mrs. Henry Smith was the young business woman. Mrs. Phil Aspinwall was the young mother, and Mrs. Harry Carpenter the extension secretary.

Miss Beatrice Shelton has been motoring this week through central Oregon and over the McKenzie pass with a group of Eugene matrons—Mrs. Albert Murphy, Mrs. Laura Harris and Mrs. James Pearson. They visited Bend, Redmond, Prineville, the Ochocho and Tumalo dam districts, the Arnold ice caves, Belknap and Foley springs and were guests at the McKenzie river summer home of Prof. and Mrs. F. S. Dunn of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hofnoll have returned from a motor trip through California.

Miss Mary West spent yesterday in Portland.

Members of the woman's union of the First C. congregational church are asked to meet in the church tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs. Mark McCallister, president of the union, asks a full attendance as a number of important matters will come up for discussion.

Mrs. Josephine Stewart, head resident at the Phi Phi house on the Corvallis campus, is spending the week with Salem friends.

Forest City, Iowa.—"My first child lived only a short time and I was sick for a year after. When I bent over and raised myself up again I could not breathe with pain in my back. One day I was so bad that I had to leave my washing and get ready to go to the doctor. He gave me medicine but it did no more good than if I drank just water. Once when I had been in town a little while I saw a little book telling about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was left in my car. I have taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound and now I do all my housework and help with the milking and taking care of chickens and garden. Besides I have a fine baby girl eight months old, just the picture of health and I am feeling fine myself. Certo cannot fail you because it is the very element in fruit that makes a jelly—taken from the fruits themselves in which it is abundant. Some fruits never have this jelling property; it grows less in all fruits as they ripen. But Certo makes any fruit jell perfectly every time.

And you only need to boil your fruit one minute. That means that you make half again as much jam or jelly from your fruit and it is clearer-colored, finer-flavored than ever. Certo's short boil saves time,—saves fruit juice, flavor and color. Order Certo today from your grocer, Douglas-Pectin Corp., Granite Building, Rochester, N. Y.

More than fifty members of the home missionary and foreign missionary societies and the ladies aid of the Jaena Lee church met yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Scharff on Nebraska avenue for an all day, out of door meeting.

The home missionary society held the devotional at eleven o'clock. Mrs. J. W. Beckley, district secretary of temperance work, spoke briefly of her work and read extracts from a number of papers on the subject of narcotics. Luncheon was served at twelve at tables laid underneath the trees. A group of the members assisted Mrs. Scharff in serving.

During the meeting of the ladies aid following the luncheon plans were discussed and committees appointed to take charge of the restaurant which will be open at the fair grounds during estate fair week. After several musical selections the foreign missionary society gave a short play which emphasized the extension work of the society. Mrs. Emma Hocking took the part
