

CHEESE SHOWS ADVANCE; EGG MARKET WEAK

Portland, Aug. 14.—Another advance is shown in the cheese market with all Oregon makes up another cent today. Light production with increasing orders are the bullish factors at this time.

Today local wholesalers are quoting Tillamook triplets at 29 cents with loaf at 31 cents. Melowest triplets are up to 29 cents loaf at 30 cents. Other Oregon loaf cheese is firm at the 27 cent level while triplets sell at 25 to 26 cents according to quality and quantity lots.

Easier tone is shown in the local butter market with standard cubes off 1/2 cent on the exchange, being posted at 48 cents. Other bids unchanged.

Further weakness is shown in the local egg market with firsts posted a cent lower on the exchange at 24 cents. Current receipts, too, are weaker at 23 1/2 cents with other grades holding steady.

Not enough country dressed meats are arriving on the street to make a market. Occasionally a fancy calf comes in and sells promptly at 17 cents with the few choice light hogs offered, bringing 20 cents. Demand is brisk for choice stuff.

MILLS BUYING WOOL ONCE MORE, MOHAIR DULL

Boston, Mass., Aug. 14.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"There is more business being done on Summer street, although it is not generally distributed. Several of the larger worsted mills have been buying wool rather keenly, however, especially of Australian origin. Some sales of domestic territory fleece wools also have been made, mostly at prices which show perhaps a cent a pound reduction over last week. The trade is feeling more optimistic over the increased business, which evidently reflects much better business in the English market and especially in worsted lines.

"There is little change in the for eign market for the week. Bradford is quiet, the strike continuing."

The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Scoured hair: Oregon, eastern No. 1 staple $1.25 to $1.30; fine and fine medium combing $1.15@1.20; eastern clothing $1.10@1.15; valley No. 1, $1.10@1.15. Mohair: best combing 75¢@80¢; best cording 65¢@70¢.

REGISTRATION FOR POULTRY

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 14.—Decision to adopt a system of registration and certification was made by the American Poultry association in convention here. Provision was made for the standard breed fowls, champion individuals and productive fowls, based upon records made in exhibitions and in egg-laying contests. A prediction that the United States will face an egg famine was made by L. E. Helfner, secretary of the Iowa Poultry Breeders' association. He based his prediction on government figures that indicate that the increase in consumption of poultry products is not being met by breeders and farmers. The average farm family consumes 154 pounds of eggs a year, which averages about an egg every day for two people, he reported.

CANNERS QUIT BUYING PRUNES, MARKET SAGS

Canneries, after feverishly buying prunes for a season, have reached their requirements and have shut off buying, according to general reports. Canterias paid as high as $40 a ton this year for this fruit.

As a result, a number of growers who had figured on selling a good share of their crop to canneries, have been looking around for some place to drop them for green shipment. Difficultly has been found, however, in making arrangements for this shipping, as apparently there will be no shipping of green prunes in any quantity out of here.

It is taken for granted that Young & Wells will not attempt to handle any green prunes here this year, although no announcement has been made to that effect. If any green prunes were to be handled by the firm unquestionably steps would be taken toward that end, but from all indications it would be impossible to pick up enough green prunes here this year to make out any sort of a deal worth while.

O. E. Brooks, who managed the black cherry pool, is packing some green prunes at the Pacific Fruit & Produce company, but these are all for local shipment, about five tons being handed up to the president of the company's even though he doubts if he would be able to make up an entire car here, and what prunes are shipped from the produce company no doubt will be entirely for local handling by the company's own branches which are sprinkled all over the northwest.

CANNERS GRAB BLACKBERRIES

All local canneries are said to be showing some feverish activity in the Woodburn district in the search for evergreen blackberries, which are in great demand. The Woodburn district is the center of the evergreen industry. Deliveries are coming in good to Baker, Kelly, McLaughlin or all kinds of blackberries, that firm handling them for barreling at the Salem Fruit union plant. Canners are expected to pack all of the evergreens they can get hold of. The crop in the open spaces is reported to be short, although it is said to be good where the berries were protected.

WHEAT DROPS 3 TO 4 CENTS

Chicago, Aug. 14.—The wheat opening, 2 to 3 cents down, September $1.62 1/2 to $1.63 and December $1.60 1/2 to $1.61 1/2, was followed by a further drop which carried September to $1.62 and December to $1.59 1/2. After opening unchanged to 1/2 off, September $1.63 1/2 to $1.63 1/2, the cash market recovered about the same as yesterday's finish. Data started at 1/2 to 1/2 cent lower, September 41 to 41 1/2 and then made rallies. Hog values higher tended to steady the provision market. The wheat close was unsettled 3/4 to 4/8 net lower, September $1.60 1/2 to $1.60 1/2 and December $1.59 1/2 to $1.59 1/2.

CONFESSES TO KILLING WIFE

Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 14.—(A. P.)—Judson C. Wells, 48, a night watchman and deputy sheriff, under arrest here for killing his wife, is alleged to have confessed to the police that he beat and killed her to death in their home on Pine street while five children, boarding with the couple stood about crying.

The quarrel started after he and his wife drank whiskey.

When he fired a shot to frighten her she taunted him with being a "damned poor shot" and then he began striking her. According to the police, he knocked her down at least six times. He is charged with manslaughter.

Supplementary articles were filed by the Carlisle Sales company, changing the name to J. C. Smith Lumber company. Women's Specialty Shop, Inc., Silverton; Incorporators, W. C. Peer, Leo L. Gear, Ralph A. Coan; capital, $5,000.

PEAR CANNING STARTS MONDAY

The Pacific Canning & Packing company in West Salem contemplates starting its run on pears next Monday, expecting to put up a large pack, probably the largest pack of any kind of fruit since the new concern opened. All of the pears will come from southern Oregon, where W. F. Drager, president of the company, has been buying them in quantities.

The concern also expects to put on a rather heavy run of prunes, although no prunes will be bought, the crop handled to come entirely from stockholders in the organization. Some apples will be packed, but just to what extent is not known yet.

MILDRED ROGERS QUEEN OF PORTLAND ROUND UP

Penelton, Or., Aug. 14.—Mildred Rogers, native daughter of Umatilla county, whose great grandparents crossed the plains in a covered wagon and came into Umatilla county over the Old Oregon Trail, was chosen queen of the Roundup for 1925, according to announcement made today by the Roundup board. Two attendants were also named, Miss Mary Clarke and Miss Catherine McNary, both of Penelton, while two more attendants, one of Portland and one of Walla Walla will be announced later according to the board.

Miss Rogers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rogers, prominent residents of the county, and is an accomplished housewife. She graduated from Oregon Agricultural college this spring.

CHECKS UP PAYROLL AS LEG IS BEING AMPUTATED

Stockton, Cal., Aug. 14.—While physicians amputated his left leg below the knee last night, Norman J. Bundy of Sacramento, general superintendent of construction for the Stockton city hall, checked up his payroll, in order that payment to his workmen might not be delayed. Bundy's leg was mangled when he fell from a scaffold.
