

SOCIETY and CLUB NEWS

Edited by Rosalia Keber, Phone 81

Autumn to Have Many Weddings

Brides-elect, out of town guests and school girls were the luminaries of Salem's social circles during the past week. With almost no exceptions all of the affairs centered in a charming and entertaining quiet or an equally charming bride-to-be. The younger girls who will leave within a few short weeks for the schools and colleges of their choice, came in for an equal amount of attention.

One of the most feted of the fall brides is Miss Luella Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, whose marriage to Ellie Carl Charlton, will be an event of the near future. A number of affairs were given for her this week.

Picnics and swimming parties lost in popularity this week with the falling temperature. A number of hostesses who had planned picnic suppers, garden luncheons, and short motor trips to some of the beautiful spots close in were able to carry out their plans as each afternoon the sun appeared after cloudy, even rainy, mornings.

Interest in the coming months is focused largely upon a number of prominent Salem girls who are planning autumn weddings. Some of them have been announced, others will not make known their plans until they announce their exact wedding dates. There are rumors, however, of early fall weddings in some of the best known families in the city.

Miss Zella Hobson was hostess at a delightful luncheon in the Gray Belle on Wednesday honoring her house guest, Miss Ella Himes of Seattle. Covers were laid for Miss Himes, Mrs. John A. Carson, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and the hostess, Miss Hobson.

During the afternoon several hours of bridge were enjoyed at the Hobson home. High honors went to Mrs. Clifton Irwin. Miss Himes left yesterday for her home in Seattle.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd and their house guest, Miss Marie Emge of Austin, Texas, left on Thursday for Crater Lake.

Mrs. H. D. Chambers and her daughter, Myla, will leave Salem on Tuesday for a trip east. They will travel via the Canadian Pacific to Chicago making a stop at Banff and Lake Louise. From Chicago they will go to Kalamaison and Grand Rapids, and Cleveland, Ohio, Port Huron, Mich., and New York state. They will travel via boat to New Orleans, La., and attend the sessions of the general convention of the officers of the Y. W. C. A.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Caughill are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard who motored up from their home in Los Angeles.

Miss Marie Churchill returned on Wednesday from a month's tour of southern California and northern Mexico. She visited friends in San Francisco for a time and returned from there by boat.

Miss Gladys Currey called from San Francisco on Thursday for Honolulu where she expects to remain for a year. Before returning to the states Miss Currey will go on to Australia. A number of affairs were given for her before her departure from Salem last Sunday.

Twenty five members of the Loyal Women's club of the First Christian church met at the church parlors on Thursday afternoon for their regular monthly business and social meeting. During the program Mrs. T. C. White gave a reading.

Hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. C. S. Stone, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. C. J. Hull, Mrs. Mark Ellis and Mrs. C. S. Doane.

Mrs. L. F. Griffith left several days ago for Neekowin to join her daughter, Miss Ruth Griffith, who is spending several weeks at the Griffith summer home there.

Mrs. S. L. Spurrier has returned to her home in Pasadena, California, after visiting for several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Fred Lainsone, Mrs. Flora Holley and her brother, G. L. King.

Affairs Given For Mrs. Chapin

Mrs. Louise Chapin, charming San Francisco matron who was the house guest of Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. W. A. Jones during the past fortnight, was the inspiration of a number of attractive affairs during her visit here.

Wedding Date Told At Luncheon

At an attractive one o'clock luncheon yesterday at which Mrs. Louis Lachmund was hostess in her home, Miss Luella Patton announced her wedding to Ellie Carl Charlton to take place on Thursday, August 29. The news came as a surprise to the group as it was thought that the wedding would be an event of late fall.

The members of the Young Mothers' club entertained their husbands at a picnic at Hager's grove on Wednesday. Mrs. P. R. Pearson and daughter, Gladys, of Long Beach, California, were special guests.

In the group also were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Klingor, Mr. and Mrs. Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McCloud, Mr. and Mrs. K. Smith, Velma, Genevieve and Kenneth Barber, Norma Bacon, Juanita Klingor, Billy and Ray Pettit, Edward Dietz, Shirley, Leland and Randall McCloud and Glenn Smith.

A health program will be given at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the hall on south Commercial street Tuesday afternoon beginning at two thirty. Speakers will be Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. J. A. Carson and a representative from the Marion county health demonstration group. This will be a silver tea meeting also for the benefit of the children's farm home at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pennington and daughter, Miss Marian Pennington of Santa Ana, California, who have been visiting Salem relatives this summer, returned last night from a ten day motor trip to Crater and Diamond lakes and the Oregon caves. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whittig and Miss Katharine Hartley.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones of San Francisco, who are motoring through to Glacier national park, will visit in Salem for several days at the home of Mrs. Blanche M. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Lainsone of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were the guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lainsone at their home on Court street.

Mrs. C. L. King spent several days of this week in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Beck.

Mrs. Ralph Cooley entertained members of the Willing Workers class of the First Christian church in her home on north Summer street yesterday afternoon. Following a business session a short program was given consisting of local solos by Mrs. Guy Nelson and Miss Doris Hamby and readings by Mrs. Charles Ruggles and Miss Guinevere Wood. Mrs. B. W. Maey was in charge of the program and Mrs. C. A. Lewis of the refreshments. Thirty members of the class were present.

Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Springer and son, Dick, are vacationing this week in the McKenzie river country.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron S. Brunk and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roes will leave today for a week's vacation at Neekowin.

Miss Lucille Ross, prominent Salem musician, who returned home recently after studying at Chicago for two years, has accepted a position on the music faculty at Willamette university.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hixon left today for Seaside where they will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hoover and son, Theron Hoover, and Miss Florence Gilbert spent this week on a motor tour to Crater Lake and eastern Oregon. They will return tomorrow.

Miss Lucille Anderson was hostess at bridge and dancing in her home recently honoring the birthday anniversary of Karl Nuton. Her guests included Miss Nancy Thibelen, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Dorothy Livelyer, Karl Nuton, Jack Spong, Wayne Elkin, Henry Thibelen and Ivan White.

Miss Patton Honor Guest At Shower

One of the most attractive pre-nuptial showers ever given a Salem bride-elect was an event of Wednesday evening when Mrs. Ralph White and Mrs. Armin Berger entertained in honor of Miss Luella Patton. The affair was given in Derby hall and tall art baskets and bowls of pink and white gladioli were used in numbers about the room. A color plan of pink and white was carried out.

Miss DeSart To Be Wed Tomorrow

Miss Echo DeSart will be married tomorrow to Fred Turner. The ceremony will be a quiet one in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. DeSart, on Center street. Rev. J. J. Evans, of the First Christian church, will perform the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride's only attendant will be Miss Lucille Anderson and Howard Holt will serve as best man. The bride will wear white with a veil and orange blossoms and Miss Anderson will wear a lavender georgette and taffeta frock. After the wedding the young couple will leave for Portland. They will make their home near Mill city.

Miss DeSart was graduated from Salem high school in June. She is a member of the T. N. T. club. Mr. Turner is a former Salem high school student. He has a position with the Hammond Lumber company at Mill City.

Two hundred members of the Burns club and their families met at the fair grounds on Thursday for the annual Scotch picnic. The group left from Church street shortly after noon and games and various contests were enjoyed during the afternoon. Bagpipers in full uniform lent a touch of color to the scene.

A picnic lunch was served at six and the evening was spent with old Scotch songs and dances. Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., was chairman of the day. Wm. McGilchrist, Jr., was lunch manager and John Marr took charge of the amusements.

Included in the group were delegations from Carlton, Stayton, Albany, Dallas and Silverton. The Carlton group extended an invitation to the club to hold the next picnic at Carlton.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dally, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Purvine, Miss Elsie Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. William Esch, Chet Bigwood, Lloyd Claggett, Charles Claggett and the hostess, Miss Reta Claggett.

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Miss Grace Snook, playground director, estimated that seven hundred and thirty children have attended story hour since the women's club took charge several weeks ago. They will continue until the closing of the playground on August 29.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Dally (Dorothy Esch) Miss Reta Claggett entertained at three tables of five hundred in her home on Thursday evening. High score was won by William Esch.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. J. V. L. Hillpot and daughter, Hester and Jane Hillpot, will leave on Tuesday for a three months' visit with relatives and friends in the east and south. They will stop in North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and will spend a number of weeks in Chicago. They will return by the southern route.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Dr. and Mrs. Chalmers George left last night for a week end at Coquille in the Coos Bay country.

Story Hour Proves Popular

Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, president of the Salem Woman's club, has announced that the story hour at the children's playground during the coming week will be in charge of the calendar committee of which Mrs. W. E. Kirk is chairman. As Mrs. Kirk is spending the summer in Idaho Mrs. W. D. Clark will be acting chairman, and will arrange the story hour programs for the week.

Story Hour Proves Popular

During the past week Mrs. Lorraine Clark and her legislative committee were in charge. Miss Ola Clark told stories to the playground children on Monday, Wednesday and today. Mrs. Lorraine Clark entertained them on Tuesday. Mrs. Ray L. Farmer on Thursday and Mrs. T. W. Creech on Friday.

Story Hour Proves Popular

DODGE BROTHERS TYPE-B SEDAN. Its exceptional comfort is commented on by everyone who drives it. Doctors, tourists, salesmen, and all who find it necessary to spend eight, ten and twelve hours on the road at a time, are particularly emphatic in their praise. The fact is, that with its admirable spring suspension, deep seats and generous lounging room, the Type-B Sedan delights the most exacting seeker after restful transportation. $1095 f. o. b. Detroit, $1315 delivered. BONESTEELE MOTOR CO. 474 S. Commercial Phone 423. Includes an illustration of a Dodge Type-B Sedan and a man sitting in it.

Never Before a Value Like This. $850 for the ESSEX COACH. The largest sales of 6-cylinder cars simply reflects the general recognition of greatest car value. But it is important to note how this position of leadership gives Essex advantages in continually improving value to the buyer—because of volume economy, and because of the utmost refinement of workmanship through concentration on practically one model—the Coach. Built on the famous Super-Six principle, the patents which account for Hudson's famous reliability, brilliant performance and long life, are responsible for the same qualities in Essex. It is the easiest riding and steering Essex ever built—the finest in performance, appearance and workmanship. We believe it is the most economical car in the world to own and operate. Now it holds the greatest price advantage with the finest quality Essex ever offered. Includes an illustration of an Essex Coach.

Cuticura Promotes Permanent Hair Health. Shampoo with Cuticura Soap, with light applications of Cuticura Ointment when necessary, tend to free the scalp of dandruff and minor eruptions, and to establish a permanent condition of hair health. Includes an illustration of a woman's face.

WAS NOT FIT TO DO HER WORK. Dreadful Condition of Mrs. Fullerton's Health Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Includes an illustration of a woman's face.