

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

NEWS FROM NEARBY VALLEY POINTS

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

SCHOOL TO OPEN AT FALLS CITY SEPTEMBER 14

Falls City, Or., Aug. 24.—Both grade and high schools will begin September 14. There will be a number of changes in the teaching personnel this year. Fred J. Patton, a graduate of Willamette university, will be superintendent of schools. Mr. Patton taught in the high school at Enterprise last year. Mr. Patton will be athletic advisor and coach. Mrs. Mabel Hatch will be assistant principal. Mrs. Hatch has taught for several years in the Falls City high school.

The department of home economics will be in charge of Mrs. Phyllis Palmer Patton, who had this department last year. Miss Dorothy Ostrander of Portland, a graduate of the University of Oregon, will have charge of the English department. Miss Ostrander was also a member of the high school faculty last year.

The grade school will have as principal, Mrs. Kate G. Boyd from Portland. Mrs. Boyd is a graduate of the Idaho State Normal school with a life diploma in the state. Mrs. Boyd served as superintendent of Owyhee county, Idaho. She has also taught in Oregon.

The other teachers of the grades are Mrs. Eunice W. Logan, who has taught several years in the grades here; Mrs. Frances Spuretra of Monmouth; Miss Dorothy Cooke of Monmouth; Mrs. Jessie Moyer, who for many years has taught here; Miss Pauline Jolca, another successful teacher, and Miss Ina B. Graham, who will again teach the primary grade. Miss Graham has taught the primary grade continuously for fourteen years and has been principal of the grade school most of those years.

J. C. Frink will be janitor of the high school again this year and J. H. Gottfried has been elected to serve as janitor of the grade school and Victory hall.

Drackets hold a new electric oven at any height desired on a wall and leave the floor beneath it clear.

WIFE OF SUPREME COURT JUSTICE PASSES TO REST

St. Helens, Or., Aug. 24.—Mary E. McBride, wife of Thomas A. McBride, chief justice of the Oregon supreme court, died in the hospital here at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning. She had been ill for several months with a malady which two operations failed to relieve. Mr. McBride was at the bedside.

Mrs. McBride was the daughter of George and Anna Merrill, and was born August 10, 1854, in Columbia county, Oregon. She was married to Justice McBride in 1875 and was the mother of George McBride of Portland and Mrs. May McBride Newton, who lived with her parents at Deer Island.

Mrs. McBride became a member of the Christian church at St. Helens in 1876. She resided

NATIVE OF POLK PASSES ON

Portland, Aug. 24.—I. M. Simpson, native son of Polk county, dropped dead Sunday afternoon as he was stepping into his automobile at east Fifty-first and Multnomah streets. Mr. Simpson was 67 years of age and a native of Airle, Polk county. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Simpson, were among the early pioneers of the Willamette valley, settling in Polk county in 1853.

Mr. Simpson served several terms as county commissioner and represented Polk county one term in the legislature. Besides his farming interests, he was identified with the First National bank of Monmouth. For the past five years he had been making his home at 605 east Fifty-eighth street north.

CAR TURNS OVER; GIRL IS KILLED

Newberg, Or., Aug. 24.—Miss Mildred Berg, 18, of Dallas, Or., died in the hospital here Saturday afternoon from injuries received when a motor car in which she was riding skidded and turned over in the ditch on the highway nine miles north of Newberg about 7:30 p. m.

Three other occupants of the automobile were not severely hurt. They were Mrs. Peter Berg, mother of Mildred; Mrs. Temperance Day and Kenneth Day, her son, all of Dallas. The party was going toward Portland with young Day driving. There is a dangerous curve at the point where the accident occurred. The car was being driven at an excessive rate of speed, it was said.

BROOKS

Brooks, Aug. 24.—Thursday afternoon a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. Lizzette Gobin in honor of her 88th birthday. Dainty refreshments were brought by those attending and also several much appreciated little gifts. The time was spent mainly in listening to the accounts and stories told by "Grandma" in her quaint English of her girlhood days in and around the settlement of St. Louis.

A. L. Wamble who has been managing the store at Brookside, left Thursday for Falconer, N. Y. He intends to drive through, having equipped his Ford with an express body and many conveniences for the long trip. His wife and small daughter accompanied him.

The Ladies' Community Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. B. P. Ramp. Sewing and quilting occupied the afternoon.

UNIVERSITY TO HONOR CAMPBELL

University of Oregon, Eugene, Aug. 24.—As a tribute to a great life spent in service to the state, the proposed fine arts building at the University of Oregon will be dedicated to Prince L. Campbell, late president of the university. It was announced today by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, member of the board of regents.

It is hoped to bring the structure, which is to be erected in the name of art and beauty, to reality soon; and for the procurement of funds the all Oregon 1925 exposition will be given October 5-10 at the civic auditorium in Portland.

Years ago in a discussion of plans for the new quadrangle on the university campus, it was mentioned to President Campbell that the regents wanted to dedicate one of the new buildings to him some day because it was he more than anyone else who made

ALFONSO GETS LIGHT ON CAR

Paris, Aug. 24.—(A. P.)—Recently says the Cri De Paris, a tall man, elegantly dressed, swung himself upon the platform of a street car in Bordeaux and took out a cigarette. His lighter failed to work, whereupon a fellow passenger politely gave him a light from his own cigarette. Then the two men entered into conversation on the personal topic, the high cost of living.

"I suppose you are a manufacturer?" said the workman.

"No, I have no business," replied the other. "I have an old house, which descends from father to son."

"Things are going well?" asked the workman.

"Why, they might go better," replied his vis-a-vis.

The tall man, says the Cri De Paris, was Alfonso XIII, king of Spain.

Callouses

Quick, safe, sure relief from painful callouses on the feet. At drug and shoe stores.

Dr. Scholl's Zinco-pads Put one on—the pain is gone.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS ITEMS

SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Murvin Prather left Friday for Ontario, Or., where she will join her husband who is farming there.

Mrs. Gertrude Cameron attended the wedding of a cousin at Vancouver, Wash., Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. Floyd Ingram and Mrs. Harvey Mason spent Friday at Portland visiting relatives. Mrs. Mason will leave for her home at Sacramento, California, in the forepart of this week.

W. G. Mills, wood carver, is making souvenirs from pieces of the airplane wreck which occurred at Silverton two years ago.

G. C. Ditchman ran a rusty nail into his right hand while at work at the Silver Falls Timber company mill Thursday.

Miss Cora Sater and her mother, Mrs. O. Sater, are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater near Mt. Angel.

Silverton people have acquired the habit of spending Sunday at Champee. Every Sunday a group of Silverton picnicers motor up to the historic camping grounds for the day.

Justice Linn and Everett Reese are working at Longview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Hens Norgard are on a motor trip to Eureka, Mo.

H. O. Qualter and A. G. Anderson are on a business trip to southern Oregon this week.

Mrs. Charles Meyers and children are vacationing at the coast. Hop picking will begin in the Harding and Hitzelger yards this morning.

W. W. Gaines, chief of police at Silverton, has returned from a two weeks' vacation at Newkwin. During Mr. Gaines' absence, J. A. Fuller acted as chief of police.

The Silverton Business Men's league passed a resolution at a recent meeting favoring the removal of all signs out of use.

Miss Marquerite Connell of Shanghai, China, will visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Welch of Silverton for a month.

Mrs. Welch met Miss Connell at Seattle, Friday, when she arrived on the S. S. President Madison. Miss Connell is a niece of Mrs. Welch.

one thousand seating capacity. The tennis will be provided with new steel lockers. Under the new arrangement the exits are more convenient and accessible. A. H. Elliott was contractor in charge of the work.

Mrs. Archibald Peckham of San Francisco is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Guise.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fagan and little daughters drove to Moro, Or., last week-end, returning Tuesday of last week accompanied by Mrs. Fagan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Young with whom they plan a trip to the coast the latter part of the week.

Miss Irene Forsythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Forsythe, graduated with the August class at the Moody Bible institute, Chicago, and is planning to go to Africa as a missionary. Miss Forsythe is now with her parents and Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Achor at Lake Wallawa. The party will return to Woodburn, September 1.

Little Kenneth Tweedle, the eight months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubert Tweedle, who died at Stayton, Or., August 11, was buried at Belle Pass cemetery Thursday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. D. J. Gillanders from Hill's chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine McCord, Miss Elizabeth and Blaine Jr., went to Portland Sunday, joining Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ronald for a trip over the Mt. Hood loop.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Guise and sons, Warner, Jack and Russell attended the wedding of Mr. Guise's niece, Miss Louella Patton, to Carl Charleton in Salem, Thursday. Mrs. Guise assisted in receiving guests and pouring coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ely of Kerry, Or., and their little son, Donald, and baby daughter, Jean, are guests of Mrs. Ely's sister, Mrs. L. S. Muechel.

Miss Gladys Adams and brother, Harvey, and relative guests returned Tuesday from a week's outing at Ocean Beach.

BRUSH COLLEGE

Brush College, Or., Aug. 24.—A community picnic supper will be held at the picnic grounds Wednesday evening, August 26, at 6:30 p. m. A simple supper is planned with a watermelon treat as a special feature. Everyone welcome.

The Twilight club met at the home of their new leader, Mrs. Utley, Thursday evening. About twenty members were present. After a short business meeting the evening was spent in singing and other amusements. Mrs. Utley is a very able leader and the young people are congratulating themselves on their good fortune.

The Brush College Helpers entertained their husbands and families last Wednesday with a picnic supper. After partaking of the delicious supper they gathered around the bonfire and a nice program was rendered, followed by a fire-side story which everyone took part in. It caused much merriment. The husbands expressed their appreciation of the nice time prepared for them by the ladies of the club.

We had Miss Moore, a former teacher of Brush College, with us Sunday. She addressed the Sunday school, telling about her work in various parts of the United States as deaconess in connection with the Methodist church.

Sunday evening, Captain Hall a minister from McMinnville, held services at Brush College.

Bob Lehman and Delbert Harritt, members of the boys' abey club, are getting their lambs ready for the fair. Bob Lehman has purchased some valuable ewes from Mr. Doerfler just recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Centers of Illinois, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Centers parents, the Van Clantens of this neighborhood, have returned to their homes. Ed Van Stanten accompanied them.

The young people of the neighborhood will miss the presence of Miss Virginia Page in their activities this winter. Miss Virginia is now on her way to New York to spend a year with her aunt in New York city.

The lady members of the grange met Thursday afternoon at the F. C. Ewing home and stripped grain in preparation for the Polk county fair.

The new playground prepared for the young folks by Mr. Sherwood is much appreciated. The four swings and the trapeze bars were kept busy Sunday afternoon which was the opening day of the playground.

GERVAIS

Gervais, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Geo. W. Brown who has been visiting at Seaside for sometime returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Portland visited at the home of Mrs. H. Dowd on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. L. P. Gleason is visiting in Portland with her daughter, Miss Juanita Gleason.

Mrs. J. Mills has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Freshweiller were in Portland this week on business.

Helen Brower who has been

MARION

Marion, Or., Aug. 24.—J. S. Slyter, Clarence Slyter and Don Osburn left Saturday by auto for Newton, Kansas, where they will spend the winter.

Orval Doerfler came down from the logging camp Thursday for a brief visit.

Miss Annie Thomas of Eugene is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Overholser this week.

Miss Richards, sister of Mrs. Sam J. Thomas, who has been visiting here the last week, left for her home in Los Angeles, Saturday morning, making the trip via Seattle and Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fennell and infant son, Delbert, of Lebanon were visiting in Marion, Friday.

Mrs. M. A. Barber was shopping in Salem, Saturday.

The baby show at the community club meeting Friday evening was very much enjoyed by all present as was also the entertainment given by Miss Ida Doerfler and pupils of Stayton.

FALLS CITY

Falls City, Or., Aug. 24.—The Genia theater has been leased for one year to Chain Theater Operators and will be under the management of C. E. Greene and Ray J. Stumbo of Salem and their present plans are to have twice a week shows, and they have installed a machine to use the changed electric current.

Threshing is just about all finished in this vicinity. On account of the fall grain freezing both crops were harvested about the same time.

The lumber and timber is on the ground ready to begin work on the new span of the railroad bridge at Blackrock that was recently burned and which was just temporarily built so as to run the logging train over.

Mrs. Sam Stevenson has discontinued her boarding house at Blackrock and they are moving down to camp 2, east of Blackrock.

Misses Froda and Natalie Munyon have arrived from Portland to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Munyon at the Falls City bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. Babe Fisher have

SALEM AFTERNOON AND NIGHT SAT., AUG. 29

1600 PEOPLE 1009 MENAGERIE ANIMALS

RINGLING BROS BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS COMBINED

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

100 DOUBLE-LENGTH R.R. CARS FORMING TRAINS OVER 1 1/2 MILES LONG

5 MASSIVE WOODEN RINGS 6 STAGES

ORIGINATING and STUPENDOUSLY PRESENTING THE WORLD'S BIGGEST CIRCUS FEATURES.

350 PERFORMING HORSES INTRODUCING 150 IN A SINGLE DISPLAY

5 HERDS OF GIANT AND BABY ELEPHANTS 100 CLOWNS

800 INTERNATIONALLY FAMOUS MEN AND WOMEN ARENIC STARS

DOORS OPEN AT 1 and 7 P.M. — PERFORMANCES AT 2 and 8 P.M. Down Town Ticket Sale (on Circus Day only) at PATTON BROS. Book Store, 340 State St.

STOP ITCHING SKIN

Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid, Gives Prompt Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Soon after the first application of Zemo you will find that irritations, Pimples, Blackheads, Eczema, Blisters, Ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear. Zemo is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. It is a non-greasy, disappearing liquid that may be applied during the day. Trial bottle 35c, large size $1.00. Zemo Ointment is recommended for use at night—50c. Zemo Soap, antiseptic and healing, 25c. All Druggists.

WOODBURN

Woodburn, Or., Aug. 24.—Mrs. Mary Cooke Forman, assistant dean of girls at the Phoenix, Arizona, high school, was the guest of Mrs. R. L. Guise and Mrs. L. S. Muechel, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Forman was accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Dorothy Cooke and Mary Forman. Mrs. Forman and Mrs. Cooke were students at the summer session at the University of Oregon and have since been visiting in Portland and vicinity. Miss Cooke, a sophomore at Reed college, will remain in Oregon for the winter, but her mother and sister are now driving through California to their home in Arizona.

The Woodburn schools will open Monday, September 14. The three school houses have been set in order with newly varnished desks and thorough cleaning. The East Side grade school has been newly painted and extensive remodeling of the high school gymnasium is nearing completion. The old galleries have been torn out and banks of seats built on each side which will provide room for about

FLY TOX

Kills Mosquitoes

KILLS FLIES, MOTHS MOSQUITOES BEES, WASPS, BEETLES, ANTS

Developed at World's Scientific Industrial Research Institute. Will not stain. Pleasant odor. Harmless to humans and animals.

Your Grocer or Druggist

SALEM AFTERNOON AND NIGHT SAT., AUG. 29

1600 PEOPLE 1009 MENAGERIE ANIMALS

RINGLING BROS BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS COMBINED

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

100 DOUBLE-LENGTH R.R. CARS FORMING TRAINS OVER 1 1/2 MILES LONG

5 MASSIVE WOODEN RINGS 6 STAGES

ORIGINATING and STUPENDOUSLY PRESENTING THE WORLD'S BIGGEST CIRCUS FEATURES.

350 PERFORMING HORSES INTRODUCING 150 IN A SINGLE DISPLAY

5 HERDS OF GIANT AND BABY ELEPHANTS 100 CLOWNS

800 INTERNATIONALLY FAMOUS MEN AND WOMEN ARENIC STARS

DOORS OPEN AT 1 and 7 P.M. — PERFORMANCES AT 2 and 8 P.M. Down Town Ticket Sale (on Circus Day only) at PATTON BROS. Book Store, 340 State St.

SILVERTON WOMAN BURIED

Silverton, Or., Aug. 24.—(Special.)—Mrs. John Weltzheimer, who died at her home at 300 James Avenue on August 20, was buried from the Jack & Ekman mortuary Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Robert Wales, who was killed at camp in the early part of the week was buried at Bethan cemetery Saturday morning. All attempts to find relatives or friends of Mr. Wales failed.

working in Salem returned home last evening to visit.

Mrs. Ida Schwab left Thursday for a few days vacation at Foley Springs.

Mrs. E. J. Harding who has been confined to her room for some time, is recovering nicely.

Miss Edith Reppnow and Mrs. Clark of Woodburn were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Cutsforth motored to Hubbard Thursday evening on business.

Marie Goldade, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Goldade, died Friday night at one of the hospitals in Salem. The death was caused from some poisoning.

BILIOUSNESS

Stick headache, sour stomach, constipation, easily avoided.

An active liver without calomel.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

Never sicken or gripe—only 25c

EIKER'S GUARANTEED USED FORDS PRICED RIGHT THE BLUE FRONT Liberty and Ferry

Phone 121

BISHOP'S BROADCASTING

Newest Fall Fashions

Two Pant SUITS

They're Here—They're New—They're Different. There is more value crowded into these suits than you have ever seen. Both single and double breasted styles. New wedge-shape shoulders, easy fitting. New colors.

$30.00 $35.00

$40.00 $45.00

Men's and Young Men's

Never in our thirty-five years of merchandising have we equalled our efforts of this Fall. Nearly three thousand suits for you to select from. Hundreds of O'Coats. Wonderful new fabrics, styles far above comparison with previous years. Let us show you.

A Store Worthy of Your Confidence

Bishop's

CLOTHING—WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Established 1890