Miss Boock Married Last Night

Miss Alice Boock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boock, was married last night to Glen Gorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gorton, with Rev. R. L. Putnam of the Bungalow Christian church reading the service. The wedding was one of the loveliest of the home weddings of the summer and took place at seven thirty at the bride's home on Hood street. Forty relatives and intimate friends were present.

Pink roses and lily were combined to make a beautiful arch before the large window at one end of the living room where the bridal couple stood. Before the ceremony Mrs. Harold White sang "Thine Own."

The bride wore an attractive gown of white satin backed crepe made with deep lace insertion. Her veil was full length and fastened with a wreath. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Albrecht Boock, the matron of honor, wore poude blue flat crepe. Her corsage was of sweet peas. Albrecht Boock, the bride's brother, served as best man. Two flays to be dressed in blue, Bobby and Wanda Boock, niece and nephew of the bride, preceded the bridal party. They carried baskets of pink roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Harold White, Miss Sara Henry and Mrs. Carl Boock.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gorton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boock, Bobbie, Wanda and Wallace Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gorton, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Gorton and daughter Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gorton, Mrs. Lucy Killiam, Mrs. Lydia Henry, Miss Sara Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and daughter Sara Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Hileman, Miss Ellen Rickert of Long Beach, California, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Halberg and sons Alfred and Raymond, Mrs. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. E. Crothers, Mr. and Mrs. Gynther Halseth, Mr. and Mrs. Landgraf, Mildred, Alice and Hertram Halseth, Wilford Landgraf and Marie and Ruth Landgraf.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton left this morning for a visit of two weeks at Mt. Rainier, Seattle and Vancouver, British Columbia. They will return to Salem and make their home at 395 south 23rd street. Mrs. Gorton was a member of the staff in the secretary of state's office for eight years. A number of prenuptial affairs have been given for her since, the news of the engagement was first made known. Mr. Gorton is in business here.

The sixteenth annual meeting of former Wisconsin residents was held last week at the state fair grounds. Following the serving of a picnic dinner a business meeting was held. Edward Dunnigan was chosen president, George Cummings, vice president, other officers, Mrs. Noyes, secretary and treasurer. A vote of thanks was given the outgoing officers, A. C. Bohmstedt and Mrs. P. T. Bouffleur for service rendered during the past four years.

The program for the afternoon included humorous readings by Mrs. Jennie A. group of songs by Loraine and Theodora Bouffleur, readings by Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. Ed Rose, Mr. Bunn, Mrs. Hofma, a poetic reading by Master Merle Harvey, and impromptu speeches by various members of the group.

It was decided to hold a mid-winter gathering. Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby left this morning on a two weeks' motor trip. They will visit the Tillamook beaches, take the coast road to Astoria, then highway to Portland. They will then cross the river into Washington and will go to Seattle, and here they will take the Canal drive into northern Washington and British Columbia.

The Portland Woman's Advertising club, at its closed members' meeting, at luncheon the noon at the Benson hotel, will vote on the question of its affiliation with a national organization. The members will decide whether to continue the club's affiliation with the national and state federations of Business and Professional Women's clubs, or to sever this connection and ally themselves with the Pacific coast association of Advertising clubs and the associated Advertising clubs of the world.

The question has been under discussion with the women's advertising club for some time, one group believing that the contact with the women's federation is of the greater service, and the other that the advertising phase of women's share in business will best be developed through affiliation with the larger advertising associations. The vote, it is thought, will be a close one, as up to a short time ago sentiment in the club was evenly divided.

Mrs. Ocean Jolly, president, will preside.—Oregonian.

Mrs. Elmo S. White and children are spending this week in Salem with Mr. White. During the time that Mr. and Mrs. White are having their home entirely remodeled Mrs. White and the children have been visiting friends in Portland.

Heiress Wins Her Freedom.

Mrs. Roderick Tower, who secured a divorce in Paris, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, of New York. The marriage of Joan Whitney to Tower, who hails from Philadelphia, was an event of the 1920 season. She is an heiress of millions.

Daughters Plan Year's Program

Plans for an interesting and instructive year's program have been made by the officers and committee chairmen of Cheeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The year books have gone to press and will be ready for distribution very soon. Mrs. Chester Clark is report of the local chapter and will preside at the first meeting in the new club year which will open with a no-host luncheon at the Gray Belle on Saturday, September 5.

The honor guest at the luncheon a week from Saturday will be Miss Anne M. Lang of The Dallas, vice president general of Oregon. Reservations for the luncheon should be made with Mrs. Elmo S. White not later than September 4.

Following the luncheon the group will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Byrd, 595 Court street. The program planned is a symposium with all past regents taking part. The subject will be "what the Daughters can do for Salem." Mrs. Byrd is chairman of the program committee.

On Constitution day, September 17, the local chapter will sponsor an open meeting at the chamber of commerce with patriotic talks making up the program.

Miss Bertha Vick whose wedding to Roy Jacobson will be an event of Sunday in the Vick home was honored at an attractive shower recently when members of the Schubert octette entertained for her. Miss Vick is a prominent member of the octette.

Arts League to Have Full Schedule

Officers and section leaders of the Salem Arts League met in council at the home of Dr. Mary C. Rowland, league president, last night to form plans for the year. A number of extremely interesting programs have been planned and section leaders have arranged for a series of interesting classes which will be open to anyone who has paid a dollar membership fee in the league.

The opening program of the year will be given on Wednesday evening, September 16, with Prof. M. B. Zane, member of the faculty of the art school at the University of Oregon, giving a lecture on applied design. He will illustrate his lecture with block patterns and other examples of design. Professor Zane gave a series of lectures on design here last year under the sponsorship of the extension division of the university.

The October meeting will be in the nature of a reception. Other programs for the year will include lectures on Japanese art, Indian art, and Chinese art. Otto Paulus was elected art director last night, to succeed Mrs. F. S. Barton who resigned. The complete officer list is as follows: Dr. Rowland, president; Charles J. Lisle, first vice president; Robert C. Paulus, second vice president; Mrs. John Lau, secretary-treasurer; and Otto Paulus, art director.

Section leaders follow: writers, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith; photographic art, Robert Paulus; civic art, Mrs. S. H. Van Trump; art in the making of civilization, Cornelia Marvin; story telling, Lola Belle Bollinger. Sections for which leaders have not yet been named are the interior decorating, dramatic art, sketching, and music. The photographic art section will meet regularly in the Gunnell Robb studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Styles and daughter, Maureen, have returned from a vacation of five weeks in eastern Washington. They were entertained for two weeks at Pullman and in Huntville they were the guests of Mrs. Styles' mother, Mrs. S. J. Hill. Walla Walla, Spokane and northern Idaho were also visited. House guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg are Mrs. D. J. McLellan and Dan and Sally McLellan of Bend.

AIRPLANE AND CAMERA AID CROP ESTIMATES

Columbus, Ohio.—Successful experiments with an aerial camera to determine if crops can be readily distinguished from high altitudes offer the means of supplementing the regular crop census every five years with a supplemental census every summer in the opinion of C. J. West, statistician of the United States bureau of agricultural economics here.

PHYSICAL TRAINING IS RARE AMONG GERMANS

Berlin, Germany.—Only 2 per cent of Germany's population apply themselves regularly to any form of sport, according to Theodor Lewald, under-secretary and president of the German committee for physical culture. Of the 5,000,000 members of sporting clubs he figures that only 20 per cent may be called active, that is, go in for regular training.

POLICE SUMMER COURSE LATEST EDUCATION FAD

Evanston, Ill.—Summer short courses in the theory and practice of law enforcement for police officers loom as the next development in practical education in American universities.

Northwestern University has offered its facilities to the International Association of Chiefs of Police for the holding next summer of a police school. S. J. Dickson of Toronto, Canada, president of the association, has named a special committee to pass upon the university's offer.

The university has proffered class rooms, laboratories, a faculty and dormitory facilities for 150 for the police school. The association may, if it desires, furnish all or part of the faculty.

SHIPBUILDING ON DECREASE

London, Eng.—The total new ship construction throughout the world for the quarter ended June 30, was 2,369,831 tons, as shown by Lloyds register of shipbuilding returns. The total is 27,000 tons less as compared with the previous quarter.

WOMAN'S SECRET OF BEAUTY

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dreaded ailments peculiar to her sex, which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expressions, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude, headache and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, the most successful remedy known to overcome woman's ills and restore health and beauty.—Adv.
