Wedding At Church Beautiful

One of the most beautiful weddings of the year was solemnized last night in the First Christian church when Miss Trieta Wenger, daughter of Mrs. Alice Wenger, and Trevor Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Powers of Monmouth, were married with Rev. J. J. Evans reading the service. More than three hundred guests were present for the wedding and the reception following.

Floral sprays of vine maple formed an attractive background for the tall booklets of psalms placed before the altar. Seven tall cathedral candles were placed before a solid bank of flowers. Mrs. Frank Zinn presided at the organ. Before the ceremony she played the attractive march from "Love's Coronation." During the ceremony she played softly Tchaikowsky's Andante Cantabile, and as the wedding party went to the reception room she played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Before the ceremony Mrs. Lee Dawley of Olympia, Washington, sang "Love's Coronation." Preceding Mrs. Dawley a quartet composed of Mrs. Theo Rich, Miss Helen Rich, Carl Eggimann and Theo Rich, sang "Because."

The bride was lovely in a gown of embroidered net over ivory satin. Her veil was embroidered with pearls and caught with orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a long string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner and bride's roses.

Miss Margaret Evans was maid of honor. She wore an attractive frock of green voile over baronet satin trimmed with silver. She carried an arm bouquet of lavender aster and peach colored snap dragons. The bridesmaids were Miss Reba Powers and Miss Melba Robinson. Miss Powers wore peach voile over baronet satin and Miss Robinson orchid voile over the satin. They also carried aster and peach colored snap dragons, and wore touches of silver in their hair. The tiny flower girl, Pauline Roth, wore yellow and carried a basket of rose petals.

Karl Wenger, the bride's brother, served as best man. David Rich and Sam Rich were ushers.

Many baskets filled with deep pink gladioli were arranged effectively in the parlors of the church where the reception was held. The serving table was particularly attractive with a centerpiece of gladioli. Mrs. Ed Given, Mrs. Charles Austin, Mrs. Dudley Taylor and Mrs. George E. Brown cut loaves. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Josephine Broes, Alice Putnam, Frances Plov, Mildred Case, Violet Hesse and Leolyn Barnett.

During the reception Miss Virginia Whisler sang "Carissima," and little Barbara Jane Powers, violinist, played the Sextette from Lucia.

Mr. and Mrs. Powers left last night for Mt. Rainier where they will spend a week. They will make their home here as Mr. Powers is connected with the highway department.

Mrs. Powers was a student at Willamette university during the past year. She was elected for the girls' glee club and she is a member of Delta Phi. Mr. Powers was graduated from Willamette with the June '25 class.

Following the mid-week service at the Court street Christian church tonight the Loyal Volunteer band will sponsor an all church social with number of Stanyon volunteers additional guests. Miss Grace Farnham, who is the guest for several weeks of her sister, Mrs. O. D. Wenger, will give a short talk. Miss Farnham will leave next week for Japan. She will serve as a missionary in the Yoteuya mission. A number of gifts will be showered upon her during the evening.

Mrs. T. G. Bligh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bligh and little Margaret Ann Bligh, spent yesterday in Portland.

Miss Currie Married Tuesday

Miss Helen Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Currie, was married Tuesday at high noon to Frank Alm, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alm of Silverton, with Rev. C. E.
