Miss Vick Married Yesterday

One of the most beautiful weddings of the entire summer was the ceremony in the garden of the Charles H. Vick home at three o'clock yesterday afternoon when Miss Bertha Vick and Roy Jacobson were married with Rev. H. P. Pemberton reading the service. An altar of pink and white dahlias, gladioli, roses, asters and ferns made a beautiful background for the wedding party.

Before the ceremony Flora Victoria Hendrick sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Ruth Bedford played Mendelssohn's wedding march. One hundred and fifty guests were present.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of pearl satin. It was made with a sheer white and touched with silver. Her veil was full length and fastened with three strands of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Miss Hollis Vick, the bride's only attendant, wore yellow georgette and carried an arm bouquet of roses. Bert Eugene, the best man, served as best man. Little Harriett Marie Vick, a small sister of the bride, was an attractive flower girl. She wore pale pink tulle and carried a basket of flowers.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Tall baskets of pink and white asters and glad loll were placed about the living and dining rooms of the Vick home. Miss Beth Bedford received in the garden at the door. Assisting in serving were Mrs. B. W. Vick, Mrs. Oscar Melgaard, Mrs. Elmer Bosell, Miss Gertrude Hart man of Portland and Miss Ethel Bollier.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson left last night for the beach where they will be spending the next week. They will make their home in Salem as Mr. Jacobson is connected with the state highway department.

Mrs. Jacobson is one of Salem's most popular girls. She graduated from Salem high school and attended Oregon Agricultural college for several years. She is a member of Sigma Kappa, and is well known in musical circles as she is a member of the Schubert society. Mr. Jacobson attended O. A. C. and was graduated from the University of Minnesota. He is the son of J. J. Jacobson of Little Falls, Minnesota.

The P. E. O. sisterhood, a secret organization of women banded together for mutual help and pleasure, having for its objective education, welfare and cultural achievement, has a strong organization in Oregon and in Portland there are 11 chapters, all of which will resume their winter work during the coming six weeks, most of them in September.

The Oregon state chapter of which Miss Martha Grimby of Portland is president, will begin its work of inspecting the several chapters, September 9, when the annual inspection of the Forest Grove chapter will be made by the state organizer, Miss Bees Mickey of Portland. The state body is also concerning itself at this time with the convention of the supreme chapter to be held in Minneapolis, September 29 to October 2. Attending this convention from Oregon will be Mrs. W. J. Slinkins of McMinnville, first vice president of the state chapter; Mrs. Mary Logan of Tualatin, a past president, Mrs. Campbell of Oregon City; Mrs. Goeller of Kinamath Falls; Mrs. J. S. Patterson, chapter 6; Mrs. G. A. Poisson, chapter 10; Mrs. Hattie Surrie, chapter 11; Mrs. Charles L. Woods, chapter 12; Mrs. Charles H. Adams, chapter 2, all of Portland, and perhaps others, as the Oregon chapter is entitled to 12 delegates.—Oregon Journal.

Mrs. A. N. Moore returned Saturday from Gearhart where she was the house guest for three weeks of her daughter, Mrs. Robert C. Kinney.

Members of the Barbara Fritchew sewing club and all daughters of union veterans of the Civil war will be welcomed at a meeting of the club tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearl Hight, 434 Union street.

House guests of Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford over week end were Miss Carrie Fullerton of Minneapolis, and her uncle, Edgar Stevens of Scappoose.

Mrs. R. J. Eichelberger and daughter, Edna, who were guests for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laffar have returned to their home in Wallburg, Washington. Other guests at the Laffar home recently were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hopper and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winterman of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Halton Hjort (Della Amster) of Portland, spent the week end at the J. J. Miller home. Mr. and Mrs. Hjort were guests at the Wender-Powers wedding last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. S. W. Drake and family are spending their vacation at Newport.

Ceremony At Church Beautiful

The 20th annual convention of the Oregon parent teacher association will be held in Portland October 27, 28, 29, 30. The First Methodist Episcopal church, 12th and Taylor streets, because of its splendid facilities for conducting a convention, has been chosen, and the theme of the assembly is "The Home and School in Education."

An unusually large attendance is expected this year, because of the presence here of the national president, Mrs. Margarita Willis Rice. At the close of the opening session, Tuesday evening, an informal reception will be held at which members will be given an opportunity to meet Mrs. Rice. On Wednesday she will give an address, and further opportunity will be given to know her.

Through the courtesy of the Metropolitan council of parent teacher associations, a trip over the Columbia river highway and luncheon at Chautauier Inn is planned for the out of town delegates to the convention, and to the state board of managers.

The last evening of the convention is to be given over to surprises and has been termed "Specialty Night."

The silver cups offered by the city council to city associations and the silver cups offered by the state association will be awarded on the last day. One cup is to go to the association having the largest membership, and the other to the one having made the greatest percentage of increase over last year's membership. The state is offering medals to associations outside of Portland. Following are the convention chairmen, general chairman, Mrs. C. V. Ross, Portland, assistant, Mrs. W. T. Brice, president of hostess council; credential, Mrs. Glenn Fabrick, Medford; transportation, Mrs. R. M. Pogue, Portland; registration, Mrs. R. H. Sowers, Portland; publicity, Mrs. M. J. Coleman, Portland; resolutions, Mrs. Bruce Keeter, Ontario; information, Mrs. V. M. Tatt, Portland; conference, Mrs. D. B. Kelly, Portland.

Through the courtesy of the state department of public instruction a handbook of information on the Oregon parent teacher association is now being printed. The book was compiled by the publicity committee, Mrs. M. J. Coleman, chairman, and it is expected that the book will be ready for distribution during the convention in October.

Among the attractive pre-nuptial events given for Miss Bertha Vick who was married yesterday to Roy Jacobson, was the miscellaneous shower on Thursday evening at which Mrs. B. W. Vick was hostess. A number of lovely gifts were showered upon the bride-elect during the evening. During the refreshment hour Mrs. Vick was assisted by Mrs. George Vick, Miss Ruth Bedford and Miss Hollis Vick.

In the group were Miss Vick, Mrs. Alfred Vick, Mrs. George Vick, Mrs. Charles Vick, Miss Hollis Vick, Miss Emma Christensen, Mrs. Elmer Bosell, Mrs. Oscar Melgaard, Mrs. Charles Christensen, Mrs. George C. Will, Mrs. G. L. Bartlett, Mrs. Helen Stewart, Mrs. Sophia Vick, Miss Ethel Bollier, Mrs. Francis Almer, Miss Betty Good, Mrs. Harriett Vick and the hostess, Mrs. B. W. Vick.

Mrs. James Godfrey, Miss Emma Godfrey, Miss Mary Braun of Portland, and Richard Campbell of Portland, spent the week end at Devil's lake in the Siletz country.

The thirteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Maxine Clark was delightfully observed on Friday afternoon when Mrs. Ray Clark entertained in her daughter's honor. Pink and white color plans were carried out in the decorations and in the refreshments.

The guests were the Meses Maxine Clark, Edith Glasgow, Vera Mason, Zelma May, Dolly Morrill, Doris Ross, Mildred Clark, Jean Peterson, June Fitzpatrick, Marguerite Estudillo, Lorene Braden, Barbara Barham, Claudine Gillispe, Marguerite Harvey, Jewell Fitzpatrick, Vale Rogers, Loree Barham and Grace Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. W. A. Linton and daughter Miss Ethel Linton of Salem, motored to Portland Wednesday to meet Mrs. Linton's niece, Miss Madge Linton of Akron, O., who is touring the west. Later Miss Linton will return to Portland for a visit with her cousins, Mrs. Ralph Harris and Mrs. A. J. Lennon.

Chadwick chapter No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, will resume its regular meetings beginning tomorrow evening, September 1, at eight o'clock.

Some of Veterans auxiliary club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Remington at 891 north Winter street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Johnson spent last week at Pacific City.

Mrs. George H. Alden and her mother, Mrs. Arlette M. Page, arrived in Salem this morning. Dean and Mrs. Alden and Mrs. Page left Salem by motor nearly three months ago and toured the middle west, the east, going as far as northern Maine. They were en route home, and had reached Billings, Montana, when Mrs. Page became ill and she and Mrs. Alden took the train for Oregon. Mr. Alden is coming on in the car and will arrive in a few days.

Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Lucille Ross, Miss Mildred Jaeger, Franklin Launer and Byron Arnold were guests at a week end house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri in Corvallis. An additional guest of Mr. and Mrs. Petri was Miss Mae Herbert of Portland.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sun, 372 Marion street, yesterday when the daughter, Esler Sun, became the wife of Dr. Harold Lowe of Portland. There were a large number of guests, both Chinese and American. Dr. Ernest H. Shanks of the First Baptist church read the marriage service, using the double ring ceremony. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Miss Maxine Sun. Miss Lorraine Sun was ring bearer. After the ceremony dining refreshments were served. Out of town guests were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tyne, Berkeley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bauer, Berkeley, Calif.; Mrs. H. P. Chan, Oakland, Calif.; Albert Ding, Portland, Pa.; Miss Ding, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lowe, Portland; Mrs. Emily Lowe, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George Gary, Portland; Mrs. George H. Fong, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Lowe is a dentist in the city of Portland. After the wedding the bride and groom left by auto for their home in Portland.
