From the Gray Belle the group went to the home of Mrs. W. H. Byrd on Court street where the first meeting of the new year was held. Mrs. Chester C. Clark, the new chapter regent, presided.

Following a regular business session a short symposium was held with four honorary regents of Chemeketa chapter taking creation of a memorial to the wife of Russell Catlin, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. James Heltzel.

Miss Lang gave a brief talk to the chapter members on the need of a new auditorium at Memorial Continental hall, the official building of the organization in Washington, D. C. The chapter will take definite action toward assisting in the raising of funds for this purpose at a later meeting. Mrs. James Davis, who is state chairman of the Caroline Scott Harrison memorial committee, told of the plans for the erection of a memorial to the wife of President Harrison who was also the first president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Definite action for this memorial fund will also be decided on later.

In addition to those attending the luncheon more chapter members attended the meeting at Mrs. Byrd's home in the afternoon.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley will accompany her daughter, Miss Dorothy Livesley, to Portland tomorrow where Miss Livesley will register at Helen's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Denton and Mr. and Mrs. J. Fry, returned from their week end at Neokwin at the Fry summer home.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Olinger of The Dalles will return tonight from a visit of several days at Seaside and Gearhart.

The birthday anniversary of Robert Bishop was observed on Friday evening when his uncle, Carl Gabrielson, entertained at a line party at the Oregon and supper party at the Gray Belle in his honor. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, Miss Dorothy Livesley, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Katherine Slade, Miss Helen Rudolph, John Creech, Henry Thielson, William East, Robert Bishop and Carl Gabrielson.

Miss Dorothy Jane Hall of Seattle was the guest over the week end of Mrs. Brazier C. Small.

Miss Zella Hopson, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Hopson, has returned to Seattle to resume her work in the public schools there.

Willamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will hold a stated communication, the first of the season, in the Masonic Temple tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. W. H. Lytle is the guest in Portland for several days this week of Senator and Mrs. Robert M. Stanfield.

Miss Kathryn Gunnell returned yesterday from San Francisco where she attended a convention of Pacific coast photographers.

The young married people's society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting Wednesday evening, September 9, in the church parlors. A dinner will be served at six thirty with a program following.

Mrs. Frances Cornell of Jefferson has returned to her home after spending the greater part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. George Griffith.

Miss Anne M. Lang of The Dalles, vice president general from Oregon of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was the house guest over the week end of Mrs. Henry B. Thieleen.

Picture Billed For New Heilig Opening Tells Story of West

"THE THREE MUSKETEERS" IN "THE IRON HORSE" A WILLIAM FOX SPECIAL

Numerous histories of the building of the new west, telling of the first continental railroad, record colorful incidents of that achievement which have been faithfully re-enacted for the screen in the William Fox special "The Iron Horse." As an instance, there is a detailed record in "New Colorado," by Hayes, of an attempt by Indians to lasso a train. The incident is shown in the picture as clearly as it occurred.

"The graders and track layers often had to fight their way and there is a tradition current of an attempt to stop an express train," wrote Hayes. "It is understood that a lariat was stretched across the track."

Miss Flora Rlyand and Ray Crittenden were married at eleven o'clock on Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gray with Rev. Charles Ward reading the service. Only a few intimate friends and relatives of the young couple were present.

The bride wore an attractive frock of dark tulle embroidered in green and with a hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden left Saturday afternoon for Mt. Rainier national park. They will be at home after Thursday at the Colonial apartments here.

Mrs. W. C. Hawley was the guest for several days last week at the Geesendorfer country home at Knox Butte near Albany.

Mrs. F. W. Launer, Miss Beulah Launer and Franklin Launer were the guests for several days last week in Albany of Mr. and Mrs. Barkely Newman.

Members of the Jolly Dozen club were the guests one afternoon last week of Mrs. Lawrence Boch at her home on south Twenty-fifth street. Sewing was enjoyed during the afternoon. Lelaw summer flowers centered the tea table.

In the group were Mrs. Joe Bots, Mrs. F. C. Peterson, Mrs. Chris Butte, Mrs. William Butte, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. I. A. Persons and the hostess, Mrs. Boch.

F. B. A. will elect its officers at a meeting tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton spent the week end at Neokwin with friends.

Miss Marie Stenstrom left this morning for Dahl, Idaho, near Twin Falls, where she has accepted a position as science teacher in the high school. Miss Stenstrom was graduated recently from Willamette university.

Mrs. Edith E. Gattie of Seattle, who as international supreme queen of the Daughters of the Nile, personally conferred the degree of membership in the order upon Mrs. Warren Harding, the first wife of a president to join the organization, is a Portland visitor, spending several weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Smith, 1471 Detroit street.

Mrs. Gattie is well known in Portland, having constituted Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile, at the formation of the order here.

Miss Eva Tooney, formerly connected with the staff of a local hospital, left last week for Corvallis. She will be a staff member at the Corvallis general hospital.

"But," says the narrator, "when the engineer first saw it, he didn't know what an alrth was the matter; but in a minute more he burst out laughing and he ketchod hold of that throttle, an' he opened her up; an' he struck that lariat agoin' about forty mile an hour, an' he jest piled them braves up everlastin' pernicious, you bet!"

John Ford, the director, follows actual history in the picture which has been heartily approved by both press and public.

"The Iron Horse" comes to the Heilig theater next Saturday for an engagement of 6 days.

Mrs. R. H. Benson of Pasadena, California, the house guest for several weeks of Mr. R. F. Dillen, has been the inspiration of much delightful entertaining. A week ago Sunday Mrs. Dillen was hostess at a picnic at Hager's grove in Mrs. Benson's honor. In the group were Mrs. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wethey and three children, Betty, Katherine and Arthur, Miss Eva Tooney, Dorothy and Billy Dillen and Mr. and Mrs. Dillen.

Mrs. Benson was complimented at a bridge tea at the Dillen home on Wednesday. Among the four tables of players high honors were won by Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. Ray Smith. Mrs. Broymann Boles assisted Mrs. Dillen.

During the week end Mr. and Mrs. Dillen have taken Mrs. Benson on a motor trip around the Mt. Hood loop road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin spent the week end at their summer home at Neokwin.

Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. G. Steiner motored to Harrisburg one day last week and were guests for the day of Mrs. Lloyd Shiser. They celebrated a second birthday anniversary of Mrs. Shiser's small daughter.

BRITISH FIRE ON MOB OF CHINESE RIOTERS; 3 HURT

Shanghai, China, Sept. 7.—(A. P.)—British police in the international settlement late today fired on 2000 Chinese engaged in a demonstration at Edward and Honan road, wounding three, one probably fatally.

The British opened fire when one of the number was knocked down by the mob of the demonstrating Chinese which were being pushed back by the police towards the French settlement boundary.

The Chinese demonstrators organized at a mass meeting at the Nantao section of the Chinese territory as a surprise, excited mob they squeezed into the narrow Honan road about 5 p. m. and passed through the French concession without trouble.

When the mob moved on towards the central police station British officers using their night sticks, batons and clubs, the Chinese backed and gradually forced them to the boundaries to the French international settlement. It was here the shooting took place.

Hong Kong, China, Sept. 7.—(A. P.)—A general strike has been called by Chinese at Kong-moon. The customs house there has been closed and employees have left for Macao in a launch. The British gunboat Mookan has left for Kong-moon.

Obituary

Annie Saville Kell was born near Fargo, Oregon, between Aurora and Butteville, the 21st day of May, 1859, and was united in marriage to George P. H. S. White of Aurora at the home of her parents, Fred and Elizabeth Kell, of Aurora, Dec. 17, 1881. Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Milton N., Roy L., of Oregon City; Fred J. White and Alice E. Knoll of Salem, three daughters-in-law, Veda and Muriel White of Oregon City; Josephine White of Salem and one son-in-law, Carl M. Knoll of Salem. Her aged mother, Elizabeth Kell, of Aurora, four brothers, David A., Lewis F., Julius W. and Henry J. Kell, three grandchildren, Sherman and Louetta White of Oregon City and Joyce Knoll of Salem; four sisters-in-law, Frederica, Bertha, Louisa and Sophie Kell; four uncles, August, Henry, Charles Kell and William Schwader all of Aurora. Her nieces and nephews are Emma Kell, Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nunincamp, Mr. and Mrs. Allen White, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Pond, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kell, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Kell, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar White, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman, Ethel Kell and Cecil White, all of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Ira White and Mr. and Mrs. Victor White of Tillamook and a brother-in-law, W. L. White of Aurora and ten great nieces and nephews. Her cousins include Elizabeth Brevenegar, the Kell, Becke and Schwader families and a host of friends, in fact she had no known enemies.

She had a kind, loving and forgiving personality, was loved by all who met her and will be missed by all who ever knew her. She called time and time again, "Jesus come and take me home," as she had a longing to go. She had her first stroke at the home of her parents where she lived, about ten years ago or about four years before moving on the James Robertson place in the Pringle district in 1919, where the family resided about 6 months. Here she suffered another light stroke. Later they moved to the present home at Morningdale in South Salem, where the day before Christmas in 1920 she suffered a severe stroke that kept her inactive for more than a year. A year from that time on New Year's day she suffered another stroke which left her almost entirely helpless and thru several lighter attacks and about the 13th day of May, this year, she had another severe stroke, though it seemed light on account of her weakened condition. It was on her left side and one that seemed to effect her speech and she was unable to walk without help on Sunday morning, last, she suffered another light stroke which seemed to hasten her journey on earth, after having had nine strokes.

She was an industrious, kind and loving companion and mother, and her thoughts were always for others. As long as she was able, she attended the gospel meetings at the Christian Alliance tabernacle and found great comfort and cheer.

She told her husband she was ready and happy to go but her only regret was to leave her family who were so dear to her.

She passed almost without moving into the peace she so longed.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Christian Alliance tabernacle. Burial will be in the Mt. Hope cemetery.

Members of the Sons of Veterans auxiliary will hold a regular business meeting in the armory tomorrow evening beginning at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer spent the week end and Labor day at Neokwin.

Mrs. J. P. Frizell is entertaining in her guest for several days Mrs. James N. Davis of Portland. On Saturday Mrs. Davis was a special guest of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the chapter meeting. She is state chairman of the Caroline Scott Harrison memorial committee of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo S. White have as their house guests for several days Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Reese of Moro, Oregon. Mrs. White and Mrs. Reese are sisters. Tomorrow Mr. Reese's mother, Mrs. Joseph Reese, of Livermore, California and his brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reese of San Francisco, will arrive here and they will return together to Moro.
