

JONES REFUSES $12,000 OFFER; STAYS AMATEUR

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Bobby Jones, national amateur golf champion, will never become a professional.

Bobby has said so himself and O. B. Keeler, golf writer who has followed the career of Jones since long before Bobby became famous on the links tells why.

Keeler writes that recently a well known professional characterized Jones "as the greatest drawing card in the world today" and held that it would be worth $100,000 a year for the champion to turn pro.

"It is surprising to me that so many people who know Bobby wonder he doesn't turn professional," Keeler continues. "A dozen have asked me about it since he returned from Oakmont, where Bobby again won the amateur crown. "This is no invidious commentary on the profession of golf, which is a thoroughly high class and honorable profession.

"But there is a definable something which I fear cannot ever be explained to the public at large, which may well be left inexplicable that will always keep Bobby Jones true to his own resolve to be an amateur sportsman to the end of the chapter.

"Coming back from Worcester, Bobby told me he had been offered $12,000 for a series of articles for one of the great magazines, commenting on a series of slow motion pictures of famous golfers.

"Well, I told him, 'That's a nice offer and it won't conflict with your amateur standing. Will you take it?'"

"No," said Bobby, "I declined it immediately. I cannot do that sort of thing. They want it, not because I'm a writer but because I'm a golfer."

Caldwell, Ohio.—After collecting $500 for letting sightseers view the wreck of the Shenandoah on his farm, Charles Niswonger fled, thinking he was going to be arrested. He's back now doing business as usual.

Get the Boys Ready For School

Getting boys ready for school is our business—but business wouldn't be good long unless we were constantly going to school ourselves.

Not a day goes by in our boys department that we do not study to serve you better.

We learn more about clothing from every transaction—from every customer—and we don't know it all yet—by a long shot.

We feel however, that if any store deserves your patronage for boys clothes it's the store that is working for it—and we want your son's clothing trade only if you feel we have earned it.
