Committees Will Meet Tomorrow

Preceding the first general meeting of the Salem Women's club in the clubhouse on north Cottage street tomorrow afternoon beginning at two thirty a number of standing committees will hold brief meetings.

Mrs. George H. Alden who has returned recently from a motor trip to the Atlantic coast, will call the first meeting of the education committee, of which she is chairman, at two o'clock in the east division of the clubhouse. Members of the committee are Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Harwood Hall and Mrs. Curtis Chase.

The executive board of the club will meet with the president, Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, in the board room at two o'clock. At the same time the press committee will meet in the dining room. Mrs. W. C. Dibble is chairman and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. Mary Vockey are press committee members.

Beginning at two fifteen Mrs. David Wright, chairman, will call together the following members of the visiting committee: Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. G. E. Schunemann and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser. They will meet in the west section of the clubhouse.

Members of the calendar committee—Mrs. W. E. Kirk, chairman, Mrs. J. A. Churchhill, Mrs. W. D. Clarke and Mrs. C. B. Williams—met on Thursday in the Y. W. room and completed plans to use colored slides, furnished by the extension division of the University of Oregon, at a number of the meetings during the coming year.

Mrs. T. S. Roberts will call a meeting of the music committee in the board room in the rear of the clubhouse after the general meeting. Members of this committee are Mrs. T. S. Roberts, chairman, Mrs. P. L. Newmyer, Mrs. Harry Styles, Mrs. Merle Rosecrance, Mrs. Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Harry J. Love and Mrs. J. W. Nash.

Delegates to the meeting of the state federation in Marshfield last spring will give their reports and committee chairmen will give two minute outlines of their plans for the year during the program hour at tomorrow's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott had as their guests for several days this week Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hunt of Chicago. During their visit here Mr. and Mrs. Elliott took their guests to Neekowin and Willamook and to places of interest in the valley. Mr. Hunt was head of the Quaker Furnace company for many years. Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Elliott were schoolmates when they were quite young. This was their first visit in a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt left last night for California.

Mrs. John R. Sites is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer at their summer home at Agate Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Ahalt and children, Victor, Marietta and Virginia, will leave tomorrow by motor for Pendleton. After attending the Roundup they will go on to Spokane and Seattle remaining for several weeks.

Miss Helen Smith has returned from a week's visit at her home in Roseburg.

Miss Neen West of Portland, is spending several weeks in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard and the Misses Marguerita and Evangeline Millard motored to Sheridan recently where they were guests of Mr. Millard's mother, Mrs. Mary Millard. Mrs. Millard and Marguerita and Evangeline returned on Saturday evening from Breitenburg Springs beyond Detroit where they spent the greater part of the summer. They were guests at the Mark Skiff summer home there.

Miss Madgel Liston who has been the guest for two weeks of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Liston, left yesterday for her home in Akron, Ohio. Miss Liston and Miss Ethel Liston will go as far as Vancouver, B. C., by motor, stopping at Tacoma and Seattle. At Vancouver Miss Liston will take the Canadian Pacific route for the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers and their house guest, Miss Helen Jordan, are planning to leave early in the week on a motor trip to Vancouver and Victoria. On their return from the Canadian cities Miss Jordan will remain at her home in Seattle.

Mrs. Hugh Fisher and daughter, Miss Loretta Fisher, were the guests in Portland yesterday, at the wedding of Miss Juanita Hart and Harold Allen. The ceremony took place in the Trinity Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reiser are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a new daughter on September 2. She has been named Rita Cyrell.

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE

LEIGH PALMER

MRS. JULIAN ALLEN

PRINCE JOACHIM OF PRUSSIA

David Lloyd George is expected to take a leading part in the Liberal drive to make Great Britain dry. Leigh C. Palmer, president of the U. S. Fleet Corporation, emphatically denies that the Leviathan will be taken off the ocean. Mrs. Julian Allen, formerly Mrs. Charles Dillingham, of New York, is reported one of fortune's pets at Deauville, where she is a heavy winner at bacarrat. Former Prince Joachim of Prussia, brother of the ex-Kaiser, has been conducting a band in Austria.

Mrs. C. J. Zineer, Miss Marian Zineer and Miss Margaret Liveley have returned from a ten day motor trip in Washington. They visited friends in Yakima, Walla Walla, Spokane and took the Snoqualmie pass road to Seattle.

Because of the success of the classes in design which Prof. M. B. Zane of the University of Oregon extension division offered here last winter, the Salem Arts league is directly sponsoring another series of lectures and classes under Professor Zane's direction this year. Beginning October 1 the classes will be held regularly on Thursday evenings in the public library auditorium. They are open to all interested, whether or not they are members of the Arts league and university credit is given for them. Arrangements for the classes may be made with Mr. Mary Rowland, president of the Arts league, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert or Professor Zane himself.

On Wednesday evening of the coming week the Arts league will hold an open house meeting in the library auditorium to which all members and friends of the league will be invited. Professor Zane will give a lecture before the group at this time. A short business meeting of the league, beginning at 7:45, will precede the lecture.

Professor Zane has been a student at the Pennsylvania academy of fine arts at Philadelphia, the school of industrial art in Philadelphia, at Pratt institute in Brooklyn, the Chicago art institute and at Drexel institute in Philadelphia. Among the positions which he has held are art supervisor of the public schools in Philadelphia, teacher of fine arts in the Pennsylvania state college, and a member of the art department of Jefferson high school in Portland. At the present time he teaches design, lettering and drawing in the University of Oregon art school and in the extension center in Portland.

Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Miss Mary Jane Albert left this morning for Portland. They will be the guests for two or three days of Mrs. O. E. Krause.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Matten were hosts at an attractive dinner in their home last Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Aschenbrenner of Corvallis, California, on their nineteenth wedding anniversary. Mr. Aschenbrenner is a brother of Mrs. Matten and before her marriage Mrs. Aschenbrenner was Miss Beulah Sherman daughter of the late Major D. C. Sherman.

Additional guests at the anniversary dinner were Mrs. D. C. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Culver and Miss Gladys Aschenbrenner.

Mrs. W. D. George who has been the guest for three weeks of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing, will leave on Sunday for her home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown will return within a few days from Seal Rocks. They have been domiciled for the past three months at their summer home there.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop returned on Wednesday from a three day visit in Portland with her sons, Roy and Clarence Bishop and their families. Mrs. Bishop was a guest at the banquet given for Vice President Dawes in Portland on Monday evening and had the honor of being seated on the stage in the auditorium during his address.

A cooked food sale will be held tomorrow in the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street by the Salem War Mothers. Mrs. W. P. Fowle will be in charge.

Mrs. Ora McIntyre has as her house guest Mrs. Duncan McIntyre of Hardisty, Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clave will have as their guests over the week end Mrs. Clave's cousin, Andrew Rehn of Lincolnton, Minnesota. Mr. Rehn is a northern Minnesota lumberman and will go from here to Seattle to study lumber conditions in the northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Clave are planning a trip to the beach for Mr. Rehn's pleasure.

Miss Doris Dee Nye left this morning for Centralia, Washington, where she will be the guest for several months of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Schwab. Mrs. G. A. Nye and Mrs. C. C. Gray accompanied Miss Nye as far as Portland where they will spend the day.

Prof. and Mrs. F. M. Erickson had as their guest recently their niece, Mrs. Lawrence Erickson, of St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mrs. T. G. Hopkins and Miss Dorothy Pearce have returned from a visit of several days with Portland friends.

More than two hundred Artisans and their friends were present at an open meeting and dance given by the lodge in their new hall last night. Mrs. Alene McAlport, Mrs. St. Helen, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Floyd White were hostesses in charge.

A program opening with an orchestra number and an address by Sam A. Koser was given early in the evening. Mrs. Greenwood gave a reading and Dolph Thomas of Portland, well known to radio fans through his broadcasting from KGW, gave several vocal numbers. Miss Agnes Johnson of Portland, accompanied him, and also offered a piano solo. The Hon. William A. Marshall gave an address and a fancy dance was given by Miss Rosalie Neunbaum.

Another soloist was Miss Peggy D'Arcy of Portland, and a number of duets were given by the Woody brothers. Following the program several hours of dancing were enjoyed.

Mrs. George King and two sons, Stanley and Robert, have returned from a five weeks' stay in Washington and British Columbia. They were the guests of Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. C. C. Davis, in Bellingham and spent several days in Vancouver, B. C. They also spent a month at Cottonwood beach on Puget Sound in Washington.

Ronald Craven left yesterday for Portland where he will spend a week with relatives.

With the return of vacationists, the opening of the academy and general settling down for routine duties, the social activities of St. Joseph's parish will take a new impetus. A get together dinner will be served at the auditorium on Sunday, September 20th, commencing immediately after mass at 12 o'clock. Everyone will be welcome. A harvest festival, fair and bazaar will be held in the auditorium for three days, November 6th, 7th and 8th, and promises to be the largest ever attempted in the parish. A play will be presented by the dramatic club of the parish also at a later date, and the young people will reorganize their dancing parties soon.

Miss Clara Ahrens was hostess at an attractive affair last night when she entertained in honor of Miss Doris Loveland who will leave Salem shortly to enter Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis. During the evening a handkerchief shower was given for Miss Loveland.

Marigolds and asters were arranged attractively about the living rooms of Miss Ahrens' home at 544 north Commercial street for the occasion.

The group included Miss Loveland, Miss Mizpah Palmerton, Miss Eunice Craig, Miss Agnes

Hayne, Miss Josephine Brose, Miss Marie Briggs, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Ruth Payton, Miss Echo Harris, Miss Olga Gath, Miss Sadie Key, Miss June Whitlock, Mrs. Rey, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Miss Katherine Vincent, Mrs. Masey, Miss Ruth Masey and the hostess, Miss Ahrens.

Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. E. J. Crawford are Salem representatives today at a meeting of the business committee of the conference of the woman's home missionary society being held at the home of Bishop and Mrs. W. O. Shepard in Portland. Mrs. Shepard entertained the officers of the conference and the six members elected at large who comprise the committee, at luncheon in her home at noon. The meeting is an all day affair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke and their children, Doris and Robert, returned last night from a six day motor trip down the Roosevelt highway from Marshfield to Crescent City, California. They returned by way of Medford.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies of the G. A. R. will be held tomorrow afternoon beginning at two thirty in the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. August Carl and family have returned from an extended trip through California and to Tia Juana, Mexico. They spent the greater part of the time in Long Beach where they were guests of Mr. Carl's sister and brother in law. They also stopped in Santa Barbara. Coming north from San Diego they took the inland route and viewed the large vineyards in the Maraca and Modesto districts.
