Patriotic Program Tomorrow

Consistent day which will be observed tomorrow in all the states of the union will be fittingly honored here under the direction of Chemeteta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. All townpeople will be welcomed at an open meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium tomorrow afternoon beginning at two thirty. The hostesses will be the state regent of the daughters, Mrs. Seymour Jones, the chapter regent, Mrs. Chester C. Clark, and the chapter officers — Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. John Harbison, Mrs. Alton B. Hurley, Miss Lillian Applegate, Miss Eva Ferree, Mrs. W. E. Hanson and Mrs. Frances Cornell.

Seymour Jones, well known Salem speaker, will deliver the address of the day.

A social hour will follow Mr. Jones' address with the social committee serving tea in the parlor.

Members of the American club and a few additional guests were entertained on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. M. Rowland. The special guests were Mrs. J. H. West, Mrs. Lina Simpson, Mrs. W. E. Hallett of Yakima, Washington, and Mrs. William Krueger.

Red rosette and marigolds arranged in baskets were used effectively about the rooms. It was decided that the next meeting will be held after the state fair at the home of Mrs. Frank Sullivan.

Club members in the group were Mrs. Homer Ingrey, Mrs. H. L. White, Mrs. Edward R. Vlesko, Mrs. C. L. Dunn, Mrs. Roy Jennings, Mrs. Chester A. Downe, Mrs. Milton Eckman, Mrs. Frank Zinn, Mrs. Arnold Krueger, Mrs. Knight and hostess, Mrs. E. M. Rowland.

200 Attend Eastern Star Dinner

Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was hostess in the Masonic Temple last night at one of the largest and most elaborate lodge dinners of the year. Covers were laid for nearly two hundred.

The affair was given in honor of members of the Masonic Temple building association committee who recently installed a large electric range in the Temple for the convenience of Chadwick chapter. Mrs. Emma Murphy Brown was in charge.

A multitude of baskets filled with asters and zinnias were placed about the dining room and on the long tables. The honor guests were seated at a long table in the center of the room. Mrs. W. P. Babcock, worthy master of Chadwick chapter, presided at one end with Ralph Thompson, worthy patron, who also served as toastmaster, at the opposite end of the guest table.

In the guest group were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pope, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bohannon, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. William Gahlerdorf.

A regular stated communication of the chapter followed the dinner. It was one of the best attended meetings of the year.

An open meeting of the Salem Arts League will be held tonight in the auditorium of the public library, at 10 o'clock. B. E. Zane, professor of Oregon school of architecture and allied arts, will be the speaker of the evening. Dr. Mary C. Rowland, president of the league, will call a business meeting at 7:45. The open meeting will begin at eight.

Members of the First Congregational church will have an all day meeting at the church on Friday for the purpose of adding a number of finishing touches to the renovation work. A covered dish lunch will be served at noon. At two thirty in the afternoon the women's union will have a short business meeting.

Honoring Mrs. Ann Klein who will leave Salem shortly, Mrs. A. H. Moore was hostess at bridge in her home on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Klein and her mother, Mrs. Martha Klein plan to make their home in Portland in the future.

Asters in delicate shades of rose and lavender were used about the rooms of the Moore home. High score among the bridge players was won by Mrs. J. W. Lewis. Mrs. Klein was given a guest prize.

Mrs. Earl Fisher has been the guest in Albany this week of Mrs. Jess Martin.

After two years' absence Miss Mabel Curry has returned to Salem and will be a member of the faculty at the Lincoln school during the coming year. Miss Curry has been a teacher in a private school in Chicago since leaving here.

Members of the business and professional women's club will meet tonight in the chamber of commerce auditorium. A constitution day program will be given. Mrs. Seymour Jones will give a talk on the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Mrs. Bertha Bergman will speak on the significance of Constitution day. Miss Gladys McLintyre will sing. Dr. Mary B. Purvine will give her convention report and a number of important announcements will be made during the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hug and two sons have returned from Ocean Park, Washington, where they were guests of Mrs. Hug's sister, the Misses May and Anne Shogren. Mrs. Hug spent several weeks there while the boys were there for the greater part of the summer.

House guests of Mrs. Frank Zinn this week are her sister, Mrs. W. E. Hallett and her nieces, Dorothy and Elizabeth Hallett who are returning to their home in Yakima after touring California.

MAN STABS WIFE THEN ENDS LIFE' JEALOUSY CAUSE

Portland, Or., Sept. 16.—(A.P.)—Jack B. Carter, 35, logger, stabbed his wife, Mrs. Leona Carter, 33, and ended his own life by stabbing himself at a rooming house here early today. Mrs. Carter is in the same hospital suffering from wounds in her back and right arm, but her condition is not serious.

Mrs. Carter told the police that the stabbing occurred after she and her husband had been drinking moonshine and he had accused her of keeping company with another man while he was in a logging camp near Bend.

Carter returned to Portland yesterday from Bend, where he had been working in camp 76, of McLeod Brothers Logging company. Mrs. Carter said he spent the afternoon with another woman, and in the evening came to her apartment. They went out together and later returned to the apartment, where they had several drinks from a pint bottle of moonshine, she said. Then Carter accused her of going out with another man, and drawing a butcher knife from his shirt, inflicted the two wounds upon her. He then stabbed himself near the heart.

Mrs. George Campbell, the landlady, hearing groans, summoned the police.

BRITISH PROTEST TURKISH DRIVE

Geneva, Sept. 15.—(AP)—With the dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over the Mosul area still unsettled, the British delegation today protested to the league of nations council that Turkish troops have been encroaching on Christian villages in Mosul and deporting the Christian inhabitants to Turkey.

Geneva, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A resolution favoring the convocation of an international economic conference was introduced in the assembly of the league of nations today by Louis Loucheur, speaking for France.

The French resolution states that the league assembly resolved to try every method to promote peace and convinced that economic peace will contribute largely to the general security, invites the league council to appoint a committee to prepare for a conference, with the collaboration of the league's technical organizations and the international bureau to study "the economic differences standing in the way of a restoration of general prosperity and the best methods of surmounting these difficulties and avoiding disputes."

FATHER KILLS SON, THEN WIFE; TRIES SUICIDE

Denver, Colo., Sept. 16.—(A.P.)—Ray Shank, 50, shot and killed two members of his family early today, attempted to take the life of a third and then sought to end his life by drowning himself in a bath tub.

The dead: Mrs. Marion Shank, 49, his wife, Paul Shank, 19, a son. The son was shot in the head as he lay asleep on a sleeping porch. Mrs. Shank was killed in the living room.

Family friction is believed by officers to have been the motive for the crime. Divorce papers, filed by his wife and served on him yesterday, were found under Shank's pillow.

A daughter, Ruth, 18, escaped by running from the house. Attracted by her screams, a neighbor came to her assistance and grappled with the father, who broke loose and retired to the house where he attempted to end his own life.

A British shipyard has built a steamship of what is known as elastic limit steel, for which there is claimed a 10 per cent saving in weight without loss of strength.

ROUND UP OPENS WEATHER CLOUDY

Pendleton, Or., Sept. 16.—Pendleton is ready. The town, gaily decorated and full of cowboys from all over the big west is again prepared for its big moment, the Round Up.

That colorful community pageant again swings into action starting this afternoon at 3:30. Nearly 180 cowboys performers are gathered here and the registration went on far into the night.

Cloudy weather obelisks this morning but the belief holds among those familiar with eastern Oregon weather conditions that it will break and clear weather and sunshine will hold away when the curtain raises this afternoon on the "epic drama of the west."

Many noted performers are gathered here this year, including Paddy Ryan, freckled Irishman from Montana and winner of last year's Roosevelt trophy, the supreme award of cowboydom.

DEMPSEY WILL JOIN UNDERWRITING FIRM

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 16.—Reports emanating from the east that Jack Dempsey was about to enter Wall Street as a stockbroker were modified in an announcement here today by Murray Shewitt, of New York, who said the champion would be his assistant in a modest underwriting firm.

Activities of the firm, which probably will be known as Dempsey and Shewitt, will be confined solely to the financing of corporations, a business already carried on at a New York office. It is probable that a branch office will be opened in Los Angeles to handle the firm's operations on the Pacific coast. Shewitt said.

HYLAN CHEERFUL AND SAYS HE IS PLEASED

New York, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Mayor John F. Hylan, was cheerful when he arrived at the city hall this morning.

"I am pleased with two things," he said. "First, that I pulled the mask off the big ham and egg man from Albany, and second, that I made the traction and underground interests spend an average of $400 an election district to defeat me."

The mayor was shown a copy of an evening paper predicting he would head a third ticket, but he declined to discuss the matter.
